Habilidades gerenciales Jorge Enrique Maldonado Pinto,2019-03-01 La gerencia actual se enfrenta a la globalización como realidad de nuestros tiempos, para ello debe realizar alianzas estratégicas con sentido crítico con el objeto de abastecer grandes mercados. La simplificación de las distancias en el día a día empresarial, las velocidades de negociación que nos proporcionan las multiredes, el sentido de la oportunidad en la correcta evaluación de situaciones específicas de mercado, entre otras importantes variables de la gestión empresarial, requieren poner en práctica las herramientas gerenciales para la toma de decisiones y el logro de los objetivos organizacionales. Priorizar estrategias debe ser un propósito fundamental de la gerencia, por esta razón, además de abordar los temas anteriores de manera clara y estructurada, la obra presenta el Análisis Estructural como método para lograrlo.

Prospectiva del desarrollo deportivo Darío José Espinal Ruiz,Javier Enrique Medina Vásquez,2021-08-28 El rol de los estudios del futuro y la prospectiva es proveer, a los decisores del sistema deportivo, caminos para ver el futuro con ojos diferentes y brindar una completa comprensión de las posibles implicaciones de las alternativas y trayectorias tecnológicas y sociales. El elemento más crítico no es la correcta predicción acerca de cuándo algunos eventos van a suceder, más bien, se trata de la visualización de sus implicaciones estratégicas en términos de capacidades, tecnologías, inversiones, etc. Su propósito no es suministrar recetas ni pronósticos específicos, sino que ayuda a preparar las capacidades que las organizaciones deportivas requieren en diversos escenarios, sin estereotipos preconcebidos, facilitando el debate sobre estas implicaciones y sus potenciales riesgos o beneficios, así como respecto a las formas prácticas en las cuales estos escenarios se puedan convertir en acciones ejecutables. Para que la prospectiva del desarrollo deportivo sea considerada tan valiosa como sea posible, las organizaciones deportivas deben crear grupos con gente idónea que pueda destinar tiempo y recursos valiosos para esta deliberación informada acerca de incertidumbres cruciales y preguntas inteligentes sobre cómo todos estos factores pueden incidir en la transformación de los modelos de negocio, el campo privado, los modelos de desarrollo deportivo, el campo público, los modelos académicos, el campo universitario y las prácticas deportivas de la sociedad civil y la ciudadanía.
