

Qui Suis Je

Alexandre Dumas

Qui suis-je ? Sébastien Cornu, 2020-11-16T00:00:00Z Sur une aire de repos de l'autoroute A7, une camionnette immatriculée en Italie renferme huit cadavres. Pour Alexandre Favre et Jessica Verdier du 36 quai des Orfèvres, cela ne fait aucun doute : il s'agit d'un trafic d'êtres humains. Trois jours plus tard, le commanditaire de ce sinistre réseau est abattu au bord de sa piscine dans sa villa à Venise par deux projectiles : un dans le cœur et l'autre dans la tête. Quelques semaines plus tard en Andalousie, un trafiquant de drogue subit le même sort. Lui aussi est froidement assassiné selon le même mode opératoire. Pour les deux enquêteurs du 36, les deux affaires sont liées... ----- Il est là. Parmi nous. Il se promène, discute, plaisante, et sourit même. Il pourrait appartenir à votre cercle d'amis. Vous l'appréciez, vous l'aimez. J'en suis convaincu. Pourtant, il vous trompe depuis le début. En réalité, vous ne savez rien de lui. Ce n'est qu'un inconnu, un fantôme, une ombre qui ne laisse derrière lui que le sens de ses valeurs profondes : le respect, la confiance, la justice... l'amour. Seriez-vous capable de le confondre et de le comprendre ? Apporterez-vous la réponse à cette question : qui suis-je ?

Deep Refrains Michael Gallope,2017-11-14 Deep Refrains is a wide-ranging investigation of the philosophy of music. Michael Gallope asks what it means for music to speak” when it is not saying anything in particular. To answer this question, he turns to the writings of some of the most revered thinkers of the twentieth century--Ernst Bloch, Theodor Adorno, Vladimir Jankélévitch, Gilles Deleuze, and Félix Guattari. For these theorists, Gallope argues, the paradox that music is both ineffable and yet harbors deep philosophical wisdoms is fertile ground for thinking outside of conceptual boundaries. It provides the lens for a utopian potentiality that inspires hope (Bloch), an ethical critique of modernity (Adorno), an exemplification of the ephemeral movement of lived time (Jankélévitch), and a sonic extension of the syncopated, contrapuntal rhythms of sense and social life (Deleuze and Guattari). Gallope argues that a philosophical engagement with music's ineffability rarely calls for silence or declarations of the unspeakable. Rather, it asks us to think through the ways in which the impact of music is made to address complex philosophical problems specific to the modern world.

Ou sont mes ailes ? / Where Are My Wings? Touré, Soutcho Lydie ,2019-03-25 "Don't sit on your stool, watching life go by," insists Soutcho Lydie Touré. In this collection of reflections written over a decade, she explores insecurities and vulnerabilities, with which many a reader will relate. She shares about loneliness and feeling different and goes on to ponder everyday life in "Politicking" and "VDN" – a memorable highway in Dakar which pedestrians must cross "under the mocking smile of the sun." Touré draws on experiences and insights from her life betwixt and between West Africa and North America. In her verses, spiced with nature, color, joy, humor and fantasy, questions and answers compete equally for the reader's attention. A veritable source of confidence in the force of life and love. Confidence that makes one grow wings.
