The Meaning of the Qur'ān Syed Abul 'Ala Maudoodi, 1967

قرآن مجید - Urdu Translation of the Quran (Goodword) Maulana Wahiduddin Khan (Translator), 2014-01-21 The Quran, a book which brings glad tidings to mankind along with divine admonition, stresses the importance of man's discovery of truth on both spiritual and intellectual planes. Every book has its objective and the objective of the Quran is to make man aware of the Creation plan of God. That is, to tell man why God created this world; what the purpose is of settling man on earth; what is required from man in his pre-death life span, and what he is going to confront after death. The purpose of the Quran is to make man aware of this reality, thus serving to guide man on his entire journey through life into the after-life.

The Holy Quran Abdullah Yusuf Ali, 2023-12-28 The Holy Qur'an: Text, Translation and Commentary is an English translation of the Qur'an by the anglophile British Indian Ismaili Bohri Shi'ite Muslim civil servant Abdullah Yusuf Ali during the British Raj. It has become among the most widely known English translations of the Qur'an, due in part to its prodigious use of footnotes. _x000D_ _x000D_ _x000D_

Holy Qur'An , 2001-10 Intended for those who are unable to recite the holy Qur'an Arabic text, this title presents transliteration with Arabic text and English translation.

God Arises Vaḥīduddīn Khān, 2003 This book attempts to present the basic teachings of religion in the light of modern knowledge and in a manner consistent with modern scientific methods. After a thorough investigation of the subject, the writer has reached the conclusion that religious teachings are, academically, valid and as understandable and intellectually acceptable as any of the theories propounded by men of science.

Agony of Quran Asrar Ayyub, 2021-04-23 Have you ever reflected on this verse of the Holy Quran: O my Lord! Truly my people had made the Quran mahjur (25:30)? This word (mahjur) has much deeper meanings than its usual interpretation. You may have seen an animal with its rear leg tied to one end of a short rope and horn or neck to the other, in a way that animal's head is contorted preventing it from moving freely. Such animal (per Arabic dictionary) is called mahjur and al-hijaar is the rope with which it is tied. The deeper meanings of the referred verse would be that the people had tied the Quran with the rope of their vested clarifications to alter its meanings as per their wishes. How befitting to name such dilemma as the Agony of Quran? Agony of Quran is the English version of my well-known Urdu book Quran Ka Dukh which is the culmination of six years of my research and reflection on Quran and relevant tradition. It received an overwhelming response from the people of understanding who requested an English translation of the book for enhanced understanding. These people included Dr. Khalid Masood the then-chairman Council of Islamic Ideology of Pakistan and Justice (retired), Majida Rizvi, the then-chairwoman National Commission on the Status of Women, Pakistan. Then I received an email from Mr. Jamshed Akhtar, a member of the Islamic Fiqh Academy India and the author of great books such as The Ultimate Revelation, In Search of Our Origins and the origin and fate of universe. Akhtar wrote that one of his friends brought Quran Ka Dukh from Canada to India and presented it to him with an urge for its translation in English, and after reading it he also thought that it should be translated to

English in order to reach people around the world. So, we started translating the book, which contains replies to some of the most sought-after queries such as: is destiny predetermined, is effort not included in supplication (dua), is woman lesser mortal, is moment of death predetermined, what is the true concept of tauba, can sawab be transferred, does the world belong to nonbelievers only etc? As far as the question of why I wrote this book is concerned, I recall as a schoolboy being intrigued by a question that shook the very foundation of my head and heart. If Genghis Khan was bad, which he was according to my history teacher because he was jabir, then how is God good, which He is according to my Islamic studies teacher because He is jabbaar? Apparently the two words (jabir and jabbaar) meant the same. How could these two contradictory statements be correct at the same time? This was the question I posed to both my teachers the next day and the unanimous answer I received was that this type of query is conjured up in one's mind by Satan. I felt frightened, but the thought did not leave my mind until I became older and started to explore the Quran on my own. It did not take me long to realize that I had studied about Genghis Khan from an Urdu textbook, and in Urdu, jabir means oppressor, whereas I read about God from Quran, which is written in Arabic and according to Arabic dictionary al-jabr means the following: To reform something in a way which needs force, so the splints used for mending broken bones are called al-jabair, and jabeera is the rope with which the splints are tied. Al-jabir is the one who mends broken bones. So, when we say that Genghis Khan was jabir, it implies that he used force to break bones but when we say that Allah is jabbaar, it means that He uses force to mend broken bones. Both the processes are painful, but one is used for destructive reasons while the other is applied for a constructive purpose. Al-jabaar is one of the ninety-nine attributes of Allah, which means the mender of all cosmic and human weaknesses. After realising how intricate this issue was and how simple its solution was, I thought of searching for more and more such queries. I collected 24 burning questions and tried to find out their answers in this book.

QURAN ENGLISH TRANSLATION , The Quran, a book which brings glad tidings to mankind along with divine admonition, stresses the importance of man's discovery of truth on both spiritual and intellectual planes. Every book has its objective and the objective of the Quran is to make man aware of the Creation plan of God. That is, to tell man why God created this world; what the purpose is of settling man on earth; what is required from man in his pre-death life span, and what he is going to confront after death. The purpose of the Quran is to make man aware of this reality, thus serving to guide man on his entire journey through life into the after-life. The main themes of the Quran are enlightenment, closeness to God, peace and spirituality. The Quran uses several terms, tawassum, tadabbur, and tafakkur, which indicate the learning of lessons through reflection, thinking and contemplation on the signs of God scattered across the world. The present translation of the Quran and its explanatory notes are written keeping in mind these very themes.

Atlas of the Qur'ān, 2003 This Atlas is new in its subject, a subject that has not been touched before. It helps whoever recites the Qur'an or studies it to specify the locations mentioned by the Noble Verses, and to mark those places of ancient people mentioned in the Qur'an. This is besides locating areas where the incidents of the prophetic Seerah occurred. Eventually the diligent reader will easily recognize those places, learn about them, and take heed of them while reciting. Eventually the diligent reader will easily recognize those places, learn about them, and take heed of them while reciting. The Atlas has also revealed obscure places we used to pass through inattentively, like the site where Nuh's Ark settled, the site of the curved Sand-hills {Al Ahqah}, the cave of the young faithful men, the houses of median, the site of Sodom and other places determined by the Atlas depending on reliable sources. Thus the Atlas eliminates all the guessing and the fantasies we used to encounter when reciting the Noble Quran, and takes us to the specific place.

The Qur'an & Modern Science: Compatible or Incompatible? Zakir Naik, 2007
Ever since the dawn of human life on this planet, Man has always sought to understand

Nature, his own place in the scheme of Creation and the purpose of Life itself. In this quest for Truth, spanning many centuries and diverse civilizations, organized religion has shaped human life and determined to a large extent, the course of history. While some religions have been based on books, claimed by their adherents to be divinely inspired, others have relied solely on human experience. Al-Qur'aan, the main source of the Islamic faith, is a book believed by Muslims, to be of completely Divine origin. Muslims also believe that it contains guidance for all mankind. Since the message of the Qur'aan is believed to be for all times, it should be relevant to every age. Does the Qur'aan pass this test? In this booklet, I intend to give an objective analysis...
