Jordan Rubin

Reminders for Daily Devotion John Fischer,2018-11-15 In the busyness of daily life, we need reminding of God's love. That He's not through with us. He has many blessings in store. More than we can imagine. These daily 'Reminders' will help us focus on our Lord Jesus for a life worth living. More for others and Jesus than ourselves. More of life as He intends. John Fischer, with his own unique style, has put together once again a devotional book for every day, all year long.

Daily Reminders from the Gospel of John Griffin W. Bull,1911

Daily Reminders for Living a New Paradigm Anne Wilson Schaef,2017 We spend a lot of time thinking about how to better ourselves: our bodies and minds, our lives, our world. It's a natural human inclination. At this point in human history, though, we could use some help. The societies we've created are increasingly destructive, not only to themselves but to the planet. We need a new paradigm--and a way to live it. The journey to a new way of living requires faith, because we can't see where it will lead. However, we're better equipped for this journey than we realize. Anne Wilson Schaef suggests that deep within ourselves--in our cells, in our ancestral blood, in our archaic souls--we have the ancient knowledge we need to find our way. We simply need to remember what we know. In this book, Dr. Schaef uses 30 themes to build cycles of reminders that expand and deepen over the course of the year. Through insightful reflections on themes including the Reminder that All Is Process and In Process, while Stressing the Importance of Honesty, Exploring Our Beliefs and Assumptions, Accepting Our Humanness, and Walking in Beauty, we broaden our perspective and open our minds so we can live more fully.

Throw Down Your Stones Carole Roxburgh,2007-01-07 Life gives us choices. When we know what's right, JUST DO IT! These forty stones help you find that the right choices in life are much better. Wrong choices can keep our lives in turmoil and nothing will seem to ever go right. This journey through my years of raising my children and growing up will help you too as you share my stones. Some stones will seem rough, others smooth and then there are those stones which will bring hard changes in your life. But if you throw down your stones, God will begin a work in your life to help you be who you were called to be. There were times I felt like I was being stoned. Then other times I could find rest and peace in receiving these stones. Yet in all these stones you will see, as I did, that when I made the right choice to let God be God, I found these stones easy to lay down before a Holy God, knowing that no matter what was happening in my life God would be with me all the way. God promises to never leave us or forsake us. Through these years and years of learning to walk in obedience and sacrifice I have grown up and found that God's ways and His thoughts are not our thoughts. HE IS THE WAY, THE TRUTH and THE LIFE. It was not always easy, but it was a journey of a lifetime for me, with a God who loves me so much that He gave His life so we can all be over comers and not be overcome! Now, follow me down this less-traveled path to find peace, joy, obedience, and sacrificial love, as you too begin to..THROW DOWN YOUR STONES.

I Still Do Devotional Dave Harvey,2020-10-06 Durable marriages are built on our responses to defining moments--those experiences, events, and decisions that determine (and sometimes alter) our whole direction. But not all of those moments are going to be big. In fact, big moments are actually made up of many smaller moments, and it's how we react in those everyday, seemingly insignificant moments that determines how we'll act in the big, life-transforming ones. This 31-day devotional is designed to help you and your spouse prepare for those moments. Grounded in Scripture, each devotion includes a brief point of reflection, along with an application or a prayer designed to show you how to meet Jesus in every moment of your marriage, no matter how long you've been married.
