American Studies in Altaic Linguistics Nikolai Nikolaevich Poppe, 1962 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors. Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history, coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world. In the collection, there are five previously unpublished essays. The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play, the play's debt to contemporary theater, its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan, the metrical variety of the play, and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements. To compliment these new essays, the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals, newspapers, and other sources. This collection brings together these essays for the first time.

Passing Through Midnight Mary Kay McComas, 2013-04-26 Dr. Dorie Devries needs a place to hide and recover, mentally and physically, after a shocking attack—and the small town of Colby, Kansas looks like the perfect place to be invisible. But she doesn't stay invisible to farmer Gil Howett and his two sons who live a mile across the way. Dorie wants to be alone, but finds herself drawn time and again to the Howett men. Their care, understanding, and faith in her is exactly the medicine she needs to rediscover her personal strength, and the woman she once was. From New York Times bestselling author Mary Kay McComas, PASSING THROUGH MIDNIGHT was originally published as part of Bantam Dell's Loveswept line.

Earth Angel Linda Cajio, 2014-02-18 In Linda Cajio's sizzling romance, a boardroom hotshot discovers heavenly pleasures with an unlikely angel. Catherine Wagner is leading a double life as the mysterious, anonymous Earth Angel, the passionate activist out to make Wagner Oil—and her greedy uncle—face the consequences of their dirty deeds. The key to halting the company's devastation of the environment lies in the missing portion of her grandfather's will. But the ruthless heartbreaker who can help her recover it is the last man she needs in her life. Miles Kitterage has wanted Catherine for years, and his desire for the unattainable beauty can't be cooled—not even by her obvious disdain. He knows she sees him as just another soulless businessman on the wrong side of her cause. But now Catherine needs him. And Miles will take that as his cue to prove his loyalty—and his undying devotion.

Love Life Charlotte Vale Allen, 1998-09 Helen Kimbrough doesn't lead an ordinary life because she isn't an ordinary woman. Her relationship with her mother is the first of many strong bonds in Helen's life. Teddy, her first love, is the disillusionment of adolescence; Stu, her first husband, has to leave before their marriage really has a chance; and, Fraser, an extraordinary friend, wants to show Helen how close two women could be. Through one of her students, the sad and disturbed Gena, Helen finally meets Norm, who isn't afraid to change his life and even his ideals for the sake of their relationship. And, in the end, he must, finally, surrender the future.
