Frommer's Irreverent Guides George McDonald, Liz Barrett, 1995-09

Frommer's Irreverent Guide to San Francisco Liz Barrett, 2002-03-15 Looking for a travel guide that goes where other guides fear to tread? One that rides roughshod over ad-copy puffery to smartly deliver the real scoop on a destination's sites and attractions? One that dares to be honest, hip, and fun? Look no more. Frommer's Irreverent Travel Guides are wickedly irreverent, unabashedly honest, and downright hilarious, and provide an insider's perspective on which attractions are overrated tourist traps and which are the secret gems that locals love. You'll get the lowdown on restaurants, lodging, and shopping, and even find out what the locals think of you. Like being taken around by a savvy local, said the New York Times. Hipper and savvier than other guides, concurred Diversion magazine. Never shy about confronting the issues, the Irreverents are guides to real travel in the real world. It's easy to leave your heart in one of America's most beautiful and visited cities, but you don't have to follow the crowds to do it. Go behind the scenes with Frommer's Irreverent Guide to San Francisco and experience the city as the local do. You'll discover how to get into the open morning rehearsals at the San Francisco Symphony, how to hop a cable car without waiting in line, and how to wrangle a seat at some of the city's best restaurants without reservations. You'll learn that uttering the word Frisco can actually make a local loco, and how to endear yourself to San Francisco cabbies. Frommer's Irreverent Guide to San Francisco give you all that, plus the inside scoop on the tastiest meals, the smartest clubs, and the coziest love nests.

Frommer's San Francisco By Night Joe Brown, Jack Boulware, Tyler Davidson, 1996-08-01 Similar in look and feel to the Irreverent Guides, with the same brutally honest, personal, witty, and sophisticated editorial tone, these books will capture a travel niche that no other guides fill. The reader will learn not just the names of theaters but where to sit, how to get last-minute seats when everything is sold out, and how to attend rehearsals; not just names of concert halls but free concerts in churches or parks. The first and only guide with the inside story on everything to do after dark -- from clubs to bars and cabaret.
