The Crab That Won the Race Daniel Paul Austin Ph.D.,2021-08-04
The Crab That Won the Race is about a crab that never loses faith and keeps his humility even when faced with adversity. The fox that represents everyday superstars gives the impression that even after winning you have to keep pressing forward to get better. This is the world today in a nutshell, don't ever lose sight of the finish line, even when you think the race is won. Keep on pushing, keep on trying until you cross that line. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. (2 Timothy 4:7 NIV)

Dickinson,2022-08-18 John's Camping Adventures at Crab Run Beach:

A kid's book about a young boy's experience camping at the beach and all the family activities they enjoy together. John loves catching crabs on the beach, paddle boarding, and snorkeling, he also learns the importance of keeping the beaches clean, and how it's good for the environment. Running The World Nick Butter,2020-11-12 'Superb - a great book to fuel your wanderlust.' Mark Beaumont 'The ultimate running book, showcasing the ultimate running adventure.' Sean Conway ---

In 2019, Nick Butter became the first person to run a marathon in every country on Earth. This is Nick's story of his world record-breaking adventure and the extraordinary people who joined him along the way. On January 6th 2018, Nick Butter tied his laces and stepped out on to an icy pavement in Toronto, where he began to take the first steps of an epic journey that would see him run 196 marathons in every one of the world's 196 countries. Spending almost two years on the road and relying on the kindness of strangers to keep him moving, Nick's odyssey allowed him to travel slowly, on foot, immersing himself in the diverse cultures and customs of his host nations. Running through capital cities and deserts, around islands and through spectacular landscapes, Nick dodges bullets in Guinea-Bissau, crosses battlefields in Syria, survives a wild dog attack in Tunisia and runs around an erupting volcano in Guatemala. Along the way, he is often joined by local supporters and fellow runners, curious children and bemused passers-by. Telling their stories alongside his own, Nick captures the unique spirit of each place he visits and forges a new relationship with the world around him. Running the World captures Nick's journey as he sets three world records and covers over five thousand miles. As he recounts his adventures, he shares his unique perspective on our glorious planet, celebrates the diversity of human experience, and reflects on the overwhelming power of running.
