Robert A. Danielson

Santa Clarita Valley John Boston, Santa Clarita Valley Historical Society, 2009 A trade crossroads dating back to Native American times, Santa Clarita may be relatively new in the story of Los Angeles County's suburban sprawl, but old-timers also recall it as the Navel of the Universe. A Chinese general once declared the Santa Clarita Valley one of the top 10 military targets on Earth. Located east of the Ventura County line where the valley creates a break in the Angeles National Forest, Santa Clarita has been home to cowboys, movie stars, farmers, and pistol fighters. With a diverse population of 250,000 today, the Santa Clarita Valley still boasts an eclectic heritage. The West's first major oil refinery is located here. The ground was bloodied by at least 21 deaths in one of America's last and greatest range wars. And local lore has maintained that the world's largest grizzly bear, weighing more than a ton, was shot here.

Newhall's Walk of Western Stars Bill West, E.J. Stephens, and Kim Stephens, 2021 Since 1981, the Walk of Western Stars in Newhall, California, has commemorated beloved performers from Western film, television, radio, and music. Over the years, nearly 100 honorees have been memorialized in the sidewalks of Old Town Newhall with bronze saddles and terrazzo tiles. Each April, new inductees are added to the walk during the Santa Clarita Cowboy Festival. Santa Clarita, which includes Newhall, has a century-long history of Western film and television production that continues to this day. Newhall is the site of William S. Hart Park, where silent cowboy superstar William S. Two Gun Bill Hart, the first Walk of Western Stars inductee, had his retirement home. It is also the home of such Western gems as Melody Ranch, a film ranch once owned by Gene Autry that is still in operation. Melody is where Matt Dillon first stared down the bad guys in Gunsmoke, where Al Swearengen ruled over Deadwood, and where the hosts first became sentient in television's Westworld.

A New Kind of Mayor Bill Miranda, 2021-08-31 This book is a collection of my memoirs centering around the day I was appointed to the city council. I detail how I was selected over 50 competitors to fill the seat, what I did to prepare and what it was like. I chronicle my journey from the mean streets of New York to the mayor's seat in Santa Clarita. This book is also a love story. It is the story of 47 years of marriage to my beautiful wife, Virginia. Our adventures extended far beyond those of most marriages and I share many of them here. Recently, my Virginia reminded me that I promised her the world when we got married and I delivered. I didn't deliver, Sweetheart. We delivered everything together. Ultimately, I decided to write this book to inspire others to follow their dreams. Take adventurous journeys. Live great lives. Success is not what society dictates. Success is what you define it as. There was a time when I had more material things than I could ever use. But it wasn't until I found service to others that I truly became successful in my life. It is my sincere hope that my story inspires you and gives you the courage to be the one to break the mold in your world.

FOCUS Rodger Howard, 2021-12-02 Rodger Howard spent over 30 years covering television news in the city of Los Angeles as a photojournalist. He believes that while his profession provides a videographer the opportunity to share stories and experiences with the public, it also carries a tremendous responsibility. Photographers have the obligation to tell the whole story, to provide some perspective and critical information along with visuals. Originally from Long Island, New York, Rodger Howard spent the majority of his youth in Los Angeles, graduating from James Monroe High School in the San Fernando Valley. Rodger studied broadcasting at Los Angeles City College but furthered what he calls his real-world education working in the news business on the streets of Los Angeles; a vibrant city with a rich history and millions of stories to tell. As he likes to say, learning to operate a video camera can be done in a classroom, but becoming a photojournalist requires time and experience that can only be found on the streets. Over the years, Rodger has been the recipient of numerous awards for news videography, including five Los Angeles Area Emmy Awards, Three Golden Mikes and more. After retirement, Rodger was the Director of Photography on the documentary film The Weight of Honor, produced by his wife, Stephanie Seldin Howard. The film was a labor of love and tells the stories of five families whose lives are changed forever when they suddenly find themselves caregivers to their severely wounded veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan. Rodger Howard, can now add author to his list of accomplishments. He has completed his first novel, FOCUS, with Briton Publishing; its target release date is late Spring 2021. A die-hard Dodgers fan and jazz aficionado, Rodger has four children, three grandchildren and a wacky Husky named Loki. He and Stephanie live in the Santa Clarita Valley, north of Los Angeles.

St. Francis Dam Disaster John Nichols, 2002-11-06 Minutes before midnight on the evening of March 12, 1928, the St. Francis Dam collapsed. The dam's 200-foot concrete wall crumpled, sending billions of gallons of raging flood waters down San Francisquito Canyon, sweeping 54 miles down the Santa Clara River to the sea, and claiming over 450 lives in the disaster. Captured here in over 200 images is a photographic record of the devastation caused by the flood, and the heroic efforts of residents and rescue workers. Built by the City of Los Angeles' Bureau of Water Works and Supply, the failure of the St. Francis Dam on its first filling was the greatest American civil engineering failure of the 20th century. Beginning at dawn on the morning after the disaster, stunned local residents picked up their cameras to record the path of destruction, and professional photographers moved in to take images of the washed-out bridges, destroyed homes and buildings, Red Cross workers giving aid, and the massive clean-up that followed. The event was one of the worst disasters in California's history, second only to the San Francisco Earthquake and Fire.

Santa Clarita Valley, The Kim Stephens, Dr. Alan Pollack and E.J. Stephens, 2014 Born in 1987 as the nation's first new city with a population greater than 100,000, Santa Clarita, California, has a fascinating history that stretches back to the rugged Wild West era. Hollywood recreates this history in Santa Clarita and its surrounding valley, to the delight of movie fans worldwide.

The Perishing Natashia Deón, 2022-11-01 A Black immortal in 1930's Los Angeles must recover the memory of her past in order to discover who she truly is in this extraordinarily affecting novel for readers of N. K. Jemisin and Octavia E. Butler. Lou, a young Black woman, wakes up in an alley in 1930s Los Angeles with no memory of how she got there or where she's from. Taken in by a caring foster family, Lou dedicates herself to her education while trying to put her mysterious origins behind her. She'll go on to become the first Black female journalist at the Los Angeles Times, but Lou's extraordinary life is about to take an even more remarkable turn. When she befriends a firefighter at a downtown boxing gym, Lou is shocked to realize that though she has no memory of meeting him, she's been drawing his face for years. Increasingly certain that their paths previously crossed—and beset by unexplainable flashes from different eras haunting her dreams—Lou begins to believe she may be an immortal sent here for a very important reason, one that only others like her can explain. Setting out to investigate the mystery of her existence, Lou must make sense of the jumble of lifetimes calling to her, just as new forces threaten the existence of those around her. Immersed in the rich historical tapestry of Los Angeles—Prohibition, the creation of Route 66, and the collapse of the St. Francis Dam—The Perishing is a stunning examination of love and justice through the eyes of one miraculous woman whose fate seems linked to the city she comes to call home.

The Fallen Angel Jessamine Jin, 2020-07-20 They say that when you die, you either go to Heaven or Hell. But the harsh reality was there is only Hell. Before the fall of Heaven, if a demon had spent a hundred years in Hell, it could finally pass through to Eden, the paradise dimension. As time went on, the demons grew envious of the angels and attacked Heaven, imprisoning the Saints, the guardians of the gates, and overthrew their land, forcing Hell to become the destiny of everyone, regardless of how you behaved when you were alive. Before their defeat, the Queen of Heaven cast a curse upon the land, locking the gates of Eden forever and made it so that only the Fallen Angel could reopen them. Seraphina is nearing the end of her demon days. No one had passed into Eden since the Hadean War and it was becoming difficult to find enough souls to claim. If she did not move up the ranks soon, she would disappear into Oblivion, the dimension of the Forgotten. Those who reached Oblivion never came back, forced to watch as everyone they loved lost all memory of them. While delivering her first fresh soul in months to the Keepers of the Vault, Seraphina stumbles upon a Saint. Can an insignificant thief of the underworld unite with a handsome, divine guardian to find the Fallen Angel and restore the balance of the Afterlife? Or will Hell be the only option for the deceased?

A Deal with the Devil Blake Ellis, Melanie Hicken, 2020-07-21 “A personal how-to guide for investigative journalists, a twisted tale of a scam of huge proportions, and a really good read” (Bethany McLean, author of The Smartest Guys in the Room), this spellbinding true story follows a pair of award-winning CNN investigative journalists as they track down the mysterious psychic at the center of an international scam that stole tens of millions of dollars from the elderly and emotionally vulnerable. While investigating financial crimes for CNN Money, Blake Ellis and Melanie Hicken were intrigued by reports that elderly Americans were giving away thousands of dollars to mail-in schemes. With a little digging, they soon discovered a shocking true story. Victims received personalized letters from a woman who, claiming amazing psychic powers, convinced them to send money in return for riches, good health, and good fortune. The predatory scam had been going on unabated for decades, raking in more than $200 million in the United States and Canada alone—with investigators from all over the world unable to stop it. And at the center of it all—an elusive French psychic named Maria Duval. Based on the five-part series that originally appeared on CNN’s website in 2016 and was seen by more than three million people, A Deal with the Devil picks up where the series left off as Ellis and Hicken reveal more bizarre characters, follow new leads, close in on Maria Duval, and connect the dots in an edge-of-your-seat journey across the US to England and France. A Deal with the Devil is a fascinating, thrilling search for the truth that will suck you “deep into the heart of a labyrinthine investigation that raises bigger questions about greed, manipulation, and the desperate hunger to believe” (Megan Abbott, author of You Will Know Me).

The Abundance Project Derek Rydall, 2022-02-08 From the author of the acclaimed book Emergence comes a step-by-step guide to design and create abundance in any area of life, including money, time, love, creativity, and more. The Abundance Project is about having more than enough in every area of your life—more than enough money, time, love, creativity, happiness—regardless of the circumstances you’ve been through or are currently facing. This may sound like wishful thinking, but once you understand what you’re really made of, and what the source of real abundance is, you will increase your capacity and unleash your divine inheritance. Built on universal, proven principles, The Abundance Project breaks you out of the unsustainable buying/consuming loop created by the mindset that fulfillment comes from outside ourselves. Instead, Derek Rydall—international life coach and integrative therapist—shows you that the infinite-sum reserve that’s already in you will provide all that you need. Rydall teaches the laws of giving and circulation that will release the channels of abundance-creating energy in your life through his Seven Gifts that Give You Everything; he will help you identify Abundance Blind Spots and Shadows that get in the way; and he walks you through the step-by-step Abundance Boot Camp so you can design and master the life you’ve envisioned. The Abundance Project is a way of living that turns life from transactional to transformational—

A Coalition of Lineages Duane Champagne, Carole Goldberg, 2021-05-25 The experience of the Fernandeano Tataviam Band of Mission Indians is an instructive model for scholars and provides a model for multicultural tribal development that may be of interest to recognized and nonrecognized Indian nations in the United States and elsewhere.

The Boys of '67 Andrew Wiest, 2012-09-20 Following on from the stunning success of the novel Matterhorn as well as Osprey’s own Tonight We Die as Men, this book follows the trials and tribulations of a group of Vietnam draftees from basic training to the rice paddies of Vietnam. In the spring of 1966 the Vietnam War was intensifying, driven by the US military build up, under which the 9th Infantry Division was reactivated. Charlie Company was part of the 9th and representative of the melting pot of America. But, unlike the vast majority of other companies in the US Army, the men of Charlie Company were a close-knit family. They joined up together, trained together, and were deployed together. This is their story. From the joker who roller-skated into the Company First Sergeant’s office wearing a dress, to the nerdy guy with two left feet who would rather be off somewhere inventing computers, and the everyman who just wanted to keep his head down and get through un-noticed and preferably unscathed. Written by leading Vietnam expert Dr Andrew Wiest, The Boys of '67 tells the unvarnished truth about the war in Vietnam, recounting the fear of death and the horrors of battle through the recollections of the young men themselves. America doesn’t know their names or their story, the story of the boys of Charlie, young draftees who had done everything that their nation had asked of them and received so little in return – lost faces and silent voices of a distant war.

A Golden State Marlene Smith-Baranzini, 1999 A collection of essays on mining and economic development in California from the Gold Rush through the end of the 19th century. This is the second in a series of four volumes commemorating the state’s sesquicentennial.

Heavy Ground Norris Hundley, Donald C. Jackson, Jean Patterson, 2016-01-26 Minutes before midnight on March 12, 1928, the St. Francis Dam collapsed, sending more than 12 billion gallons of water surging through California’s Santa Clara Valley and killing some 400 people, causing the greatest civil engineering disaster in twentieth-century American history. This extensively illustrated volume gives an account of how the St. Francis Dam came to be built, the reasons for its collapse, the terror and heartbreak brought by the flood, the efforts to restore the Santa Clara Valley, the political factors influencing investigations of the failure, and the effect of the disaster on dam safety regulation. Underlying all is a consideration of how the dam and the disaster were inextricably intertwined with the life and career of William Mulholland.

The Attuned Survivor Jacob Evans, 2021-01-04 200 years after most of life on earth was obliterated by global nuclear fallout, Taniel lives in an underground village with the last-known human survivors. But even in a world where the unusual has become normal, Taniel doesn’t fit in. His only friend is the boy the other kids pick on. His only family is a father who has been missing for four years. His only hope is that his father will still somehow come home. Then everything changes when a stranger arrives, bringing knowledge of a broader world with him, as well as an opportunity for Taniel to search for his father, and possibly save the kingdom of Anora in the process. The only catch is that he will have to leave the only place he has ever known and face his fears. Add a tyrant king, bounty hunters, war, magic, dungeons, and unexpected friendships, and you have a coming of age adventure designed to make you want to smile (no matter how bad things might look in the real world).

The Church's Response to COVID-19 Robert A. Danielson, 2021-05-04 As of January 5, 2021, the COVID-19 virus has wreaked havoc on the physical and emotional well-being of the people all over the globe. As of this date, there have been 282,000 total cases in Kentucky with 3,067 total deaths. In the United States there have been 20,900,000 total cases with 354,000 death, and in the entire world there have been 85,900,000 total cases with 1,860,000 deaths. While several vaccines have been created and are currently in the process of distribution, the world is still in the midst of this challenging crisis, a crisis which can only be compared to the Spanish Influenza outbreak of 1919 long before most of us were even born. It is expected that these numbers will rise before they begin to decline. As a professor at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky, I like many others, was thrown into the challenge of moving classes online for most of 2020. This was a particular challenge since I was teaching two courses of Missional Formation, one in the Summer of 2020 and one in the Fall of 2020. This course has traditionally used an ethnographic component to teach students how to study a congregation through observation and interviews, but as churches moved online with social distancing and mask wearing increasing, I was left trying to figure out how to deal with this assignment in an online format.
