Designing Successful Professional Meetings and Conferences in Education Susan Mundry, 2000-08-15 This book outlines the principles of planning, implementing, and evaluating successful professional meetings and conferences in education. The following are among the topics discussed: (1) the knowledge base of effective meetings and conferences (nine principles held by effective meeting designers; characteristics of effective meetings and conferences; principles of effective adult learning); (2) early planning (identification of target audiences, conference budgets, identification of cosponsors or partners; selection of locations and dates; delegation of responsibility for conference design and planning); (3) design issues (selecting activities and approaches; identifying the view of participants assumed in the design; using the authentic task approach; choosing and supporting speakers; communicating with leaders, facilitators, and presenters; marketing conferences; preparing preconference participant mailings; managing conferences); (4) evaluating a conference or meeting (focusing the evaluation; identifying the evaluation's audience; choosing data collection methods; evaluating the meeting design and process; selecting evaluation methods; using evaluation information to make improvements; and conducting regular evaluations of small meetings and working sessions; and (5) producing conference proceedings (purposes of proceedings and ways to capture the meeting and add analysis to reporting). The following items are appended: examples of topics addressed by professional meeting planners; sample agendas; and sample evaluations. The bibliography lists 23 references. (MN)

Implementing Student-Led Conferences Jane M. Bailey, Thomas R. Guskey, 2001 This book explains how teachers can serve as facilitators as students lead their parents through discussion of their work. The 9 chapters are: (1) Philosophy and Purpose of Student-Led Conferences (relevance, responsibility, and reporting to parents); (2) Roles and Responsibilities of Participants (teacher, student, parent, administrator, office staff, and support teacher role); (3) Designing Formats for Student-Led Conferences (individual or student-involved conferences, simultaneous conferences with multiple families, and presentation or showcase conferences); (4) Preparing Students to Lead Conferences (e.g., portfolios, making time for reflection, role-playing, and preparing students); (5) Preparing Parents and Colleagues for Student-Led Conferences (communicating the concept, preparing parents, and introducing the concept to colleagues); (6) Organizing for Student-Led Conferences: It's All in the Details (e.g., scheduling, arranging facilities, and encouraging parent participation); (7) Anticipating and Handling Unique Solutions (e.g., parents who cannot attend, potentially abusive parents, and students with special needs); (8) Evaluating Student-Led Conferences (e.g., gathering comments from parents, students, and colleagues); and (9) The Role of Student-Led Conferences in Authentic Assessment and Reporting. Student conference resources are included. (Contains 20 references.) (SM)

Habits of a Successful Musician Scott Rush, Rich Moon, 2021

The Articulate Jazz Musician: Mastering the Language of Jazz (Bass Clef Instruments), Book & Online Audio Caleb Chapman, Jeff Coffin, 2013 Award-winning jazz educator Caleb Chapman and multiple GRAMMY(R) Award-winning saxophonist Jeff Coffin have created a highly effective approach to jazz articulation. Step by step, The Articulate Jazz Musician details Caleb's proven approach for mastering the fundamentals of jazz articulation, phrasing, and interpretation. The play-along tracks are designed for C, B-flat, E-flat, and bass clef instruments.

Rhythm section instruments can use the play-along tracks as a how to play it reference. The tracks feature a world-class quartet of Jeff Coffin (tenor saxophone), Victor Wooten (bass), Roy Futureman Wooten (drums), and Chris Walters (piano). This method makes approaching jazz articulation easy and fun. Follow the explanations, do lots of listening, play along, practice what you have heard, and before long, you too will be an articulate jazz musician! This title is available in MakeMusic Cloud.

Applying Research to Teaching and Playing Stringed Instruments Gail V. Barnes, 2003 The String Research Journal (SRJ) is the official juried, string research publication of ASTA and is the world's only journal devoted to string playing research. The SRJ will be published bi-annually. ASTA members also have the option of viewing a PDF of the most current SRJ issue in the members-only section of www.astaweb.com. 144 pages.

Building Choral Excellence Steven M. Demorest, 2001 This is a compact and comprehensive overview of the many teaching methods, strategies, materials, and assessments available for choral sight-singing instruction. It takes the mystery out of teaching music reading. Topics covered include practical strategies for teaching and assessment.

Vision 2020 Clifford Madsen, 2020-10-28 The Housewright Symposium on the Future of Music Education, held at Florida State University in Tallahassee in 1999, assembled 175 music educators, industry representatives, community arts leaders, and students to speculate about what music education might look like in 2020 and the directions the field might take. Participant presentations were published in 2000 as the book Vision 2020, and the current reprint shares the ideas of the likes of Wiley Housewright, Clifford Madsen, Judith Jellison, and other illuminati of music teaching and learning. The contributors to this book asked leading questions about the value of music education, its place in the curriculum, and its possible futures. Many preservice music teachers in the intervening twenty years read chapters like "Why Study Music?" or "How Can All People Continue to Be Involved in Music Education?"—questions whose answers are as relevant today as they were at the end of the last century. As music education moves into a new phase with the current pandemic, the topics considered in this publication are of increasing importance to the discussion. An introduction by two successive presidents of the National Association for Music Education, Kathleen D. Sanz of Florida and Mackie V. Spradley of Texas, place this reprint edition in the context of the present day and looks at future directions of the profession.

Long Tone Duets for Trombone – David Vining, 2010 One of the best ways to grow as a musician is to emulate the great masters of your instrument. In this volume of Long Tone Duets, trombone players have the opportunity to improve by playing along with Ralph Sauer, long time principal trombonist of the Los Angeles Philharmonic. This edition not only captures Mr. Sauer's sound on an included CD, but also reflects some of his teaching ideas embedded in the duets. By playing along with the CD, you can match Mr. Sauer's clear tone, exquisite intonation, and superb articulation.

You Will Be Found Benj Pasek, Justin Paul, 2020-03-17 A new book from Benj Pasek and Justin Paul, the award-winning songwriters of the hit Broadway show Dear Evan Hansen. When Benj Pasek and Justin Paul set out to write a pivotal song for Dear Evan Hansen, a musical they had been working on for years, they knew it had to be big and emotional and genuine. So they tapped into their main character's loneliness and allowed him to sing his way out of it. The result was You Will Be Found, a song that sets in motion a moment that goes viral in the world of the show and in turn helps Evan find connection. And then something happened in the world outside the show: Fans loved the song. It connected. It went viral. People who had never even seen Dear Evan Hansen found the song, and found comfort in its message of hope. This beautifully illustrated edition of the You Will Be Found lyrics is for them, and for anyone on the edge of a new chapter in life. It serves as a reminder to anyone who feels lost or uncertain that, as the song says, you are not alone.
