The Substitute (Replica #13) Marilyn Kaye,2013-09-25 Amy never knew whom Mr. Devon worked for--the organization that's after her, or some other secret government agency. All she knew was that he seemed to be her ally. He always appeared just when she needed help or vital information. But ever since Mr. Devon's death, Amy has relied on her own smarts to survive. And she'll need them more than ever now that a new substitute teacher at school has it in for her. Ms. Heartshorn has a reputation for being demanding. She doesn't tolerate fools or careless work. And her feedback can be . . . well, a little harsh. Amy hates her. But when she learns why Ms. Heartshorn is really at school, Amy totally flips out.

Talent Knows No Color Elaine Clift Gore,2007-10-01 In the summer of 1970, the members of the New Orleans Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals understood clearly the realities of race in the South. Houston, Texas, like other Southern cities, had made haste toward racial school desegregation as slowly as the White Southern Federal courts would allow. When the High School of Performing and Visual Arts opened its doors in Houston a year later, a new superintendent and liberal-dominated Board of Education wished to demonstrate the positive potential of a voluntarily desegregated student body. HSPVA was the first United States public school for the arts specifically used for racial desegregation purposes, the prototype for the first public urban magnet program of desegregation used to replace a standing court order, and a continuing prototype for other public magnet schools for the arts across the United States. Talent Knows No Color is a 35-year history of HSPVA, exemplary in both arts and academics, which chronicles multi-perspective participant experiences within the context of ever-changing district education policies and demographics. Ten years of school system and HSPVA archival research, examination of local newspapers, and oral history interviews allow a rich narrative unusual among the already limited number of scholarly histories of individual public schools. It is the description and analysis of everyday occurrences that assist the reader in understanding what Series Editor O. L. Davis, Jr. refers to as "the continuing, likely never ending, practical development of one particular high school and its curriculum."

Believing - Salvation - Praise Bill Savage,2012-04 Everyone is going through life pursuing happiness and few find True Happiness. That pursuit may take many forms; family, jobs, wealth and so on. This scriptural based autobiography will direct you step by step to that Love and True Happiness you have been so desperately seeking, whether Christian or Atheist. I know; God took an Atheist believing in evolution destined for hell, and adopted me as a son with all its privileges. The title of the book is in a circle symbolizing God's purpose for your life. You Believe, You Get Saved, You Give God the Praise, someone else sees Christ through the change in your life and wants to know the reason for your hope. They hear and see his word in action and come to Believe and the circle continues. God told me over thirty years ago to write this book. It took heart attacks, open heart surgery, two types of cancer and seven cancer surgeries before I listened. Learn how not to make the same mistakes that I did. To God be the Praise for everything he has done for me ...
