Organized by the seven deadly sins, it includes: Pride — use social proof to position your product in line with your visitors' values Sloth — build a path of least resistance that leads users where you want them to go Gluttony — escalate customers' commitment and use loss aversion to keep them there Anger — understand the power of metaphysical arguments and anonymity Envy — create a culture of status around your product and feed aspirational desires Lust — turn desire into commitment by using emotion to defeat rational behavior Greed — keep customers engaged by reinforcing the behaviors you desire Now you too can leverage human fallibility to create powerful persuasive interfaces that people will love to use — but will you use your new knowledge for good or evil?
