Slow Food Editore

Slow Food Guide to Italian Wines 2003 Slow Food Editore Staff, 2003-12-01 The Slow Food Movement was conceived in 1986 by Carlo Petrini, after learning that a McDonalds was to open at the base of the famous Spanish Steps in Rome. As the name suggests, the organization was founded to counter the fast food culture. So at a conference in 1989, what had started as an amusing idea became a world-wide movement that now has over 50,000 members in 50 countries, including Britain and the United States. This is their guide to Italian wines, which provides a region-by-region profile of the producers and their wines.

An essential guide for armchair oenophiles and better still for those who get out of that chair once in a while: over half the producers listed will offer a discount of at least 10% to anyone who visits them with a copy of Slow Wine in hand.

Slow Wine Guide USA Slow Wine Guide, 2022-02-15
A year in the life of the vineyards and wines of the USA
Slow Wine Guide USA is a new and revolutionary guide to the wines of California, Oregon, New York, and Washington. Thanks to the help of a handful of expert contributors, we've selected the best wineries from each state and reviewed their most outstanding bottles. The idea behind Slow Wine is simple: it acknowledges the unique stories of people and vineyards, of grape varieties and landscapes, and of their wines. The awareness that wine is more than just liquid in a glass helps wine lovers make better, more conscious choices and enhances the very enjoyment of this beverage. Since its beginnings in Italy twelve years ago, Slow Wine has combined its tasting sessions with equally important moments of exchange and debate with producers. The direct contact with winegrowers and winemakers allows for a genuine, authentic, and always up-to-date report on what's happening in America's vineyards and cellars. Each winery receives a review divided in three sections: the first one is dedicated to the people who live and work at the winery, the second to the vineyards and the way they're farmed, and the third to the finest wines currently available on the market. The very best wines are awarded the Top Wine accolade. Among these we have the Slow Wines--which beyond their outstanding sensory quality are of particular interest for their sense of place, environmental sustainability or historical value--and the Everyday Wines, representing excellent value at prices within $30. The most interesting wineries on the other hand are awarded the Snail, for the way they interpret Slow Food values (sensory perceptions, territory, environment, identity) while offering good value for money; the Bottle, to wineries whose wines are of outstanding sensory quality throughout the range; the Coin to those estates offering excellent value for money.

Slow Food Guide to Italian Wines 2002 Slow Food Movement Staff, 2002-04-15 The Slow Food Movement is the world's most unusual food club. It was conceived in 1986 by Carlo Petrini, after learning that a Macdonalds was to open at the base of the famous Spanish Steps in Rome. As the name suggests the organization was founded to counter the fast food culture. So at a conference in 1989, what had started as an amusing idea, became a world wide movement that now has 30,000 members in 15 countries, including Britain and the US. As well as acting as a club for like-minded food enthusiasts, it publishes four issues of Slow, the movement's quarterly magazine and the series of guides to osterias and wines.

Slow Food Carlo Petrini, 2004-10-06 Discusses the history and spread of the International Slow Food Movement which was sparked in 1986 when Carlo Petrini organized a protest against plans to build a McDonald's fast food restaurant near the Spanish Steps in Rome, and discusses the movement's goals of preserving indigenous foods and eating traditions, and returning to dining as a social event.

The Slow Food Guide to San Francisco and the Bay Area Sylvan Brackett, Sue Moore, Wendy Downing, 2005 With more than 500 recommended restaurants, this is the third in a series of destination city guides for eco-gastronomic travelers--adventurous people who seek out quality, tradition, and fresh, seasonal, and locally grown ingredients when they explore the restaurants, markets, and bars of a city.

Cantine di Alba. Winemakers of Alba

Jmarketing, 2016-04-13 La prima guida delle cantine di Alba. La pubblicazione della guida dei produttori della città di Alba è un momento da celebrare. Si tratta infatti di uno dei primi tentativi di unire sotto un'unica bandiera i moltissimi produttori della capitale delle Langhe, creando una sinergia e un'unione che, speriamo, sia solo il primo passo di una promozione a lungo termine. L'idea che sta infatti alla base della pubblicazione è che questa funga da motore di valorizzazione, una sorta di innesco a partire dal quale i produttori albesi potranno proporsi ad eventi nazionali e internazionali con forze e contenuti che solo un solido gruppo possono garantire. La guida va dunque sfogliata "in divenire", augurandosi cioè che fondi le basi di un'associazione che continuerà a portare il nome vitivinicolo di Alba nel mondo. Ma la guida dell'Associazione Cantine di Alba va anche consultata per il suo lato pragmatico... The first guide to the wineries of Alba The publication of the guide to the wineries of the city of Alba is something to celebrate. In fact it is one of the first attempts to unite the plethora of producers in the capital of the Langhe in a common cause, creating a synergy and togetherness that we are certain is just the first step toward long-term promotion. In fact, the idea behind the publication was that it would act as a booster - a springboard for the producers of Alba to propose their participation in national and international events with the forces and the content that only a solid group can guarantee. One must therefore flip through the guide aware that it is in evolution, hoping that it will lay the foundations for an association that will continue to carry the flag of Alba's winemaking out in the world.

Slow Food Valeria Siniscalchi, 2023-06-29 Written by one of the leading experts on food activism, this is the only independent, full-length study of the Slow Food movement. Slow Food is a grassroots organisation that embraces a slow way of life, linking the love of food with community and environmental support. Based on three years of ethnographic fieldwork inside Slow Food's international headquarters in Italy, Valeria Siniscalchi reveals what really goes on behind the scenes of this enigmatic organization. Observing daily meetings, decision-making processes, and major events, she explores the contradictions, complexities, and ambiguities of the movement - as well as the passionate commitment of its employees, members, and leaders. Through talking to insiders and people who have 'broken' with Slow Food, Siniscalchi makes a major contribution to our understanding of one of the most high profile and controversial food movements in the world - and to our knowledge of activist organizations more broadly. This is an essential read for students and scholars in food studies, anthropology, geography, and sociology and anyone interested in Slow Food.

Beverage Basics Robert W. Small, Michelle Couturier, 2011-09-13 Beverage Basics presents a new approach to understanding wine and other alcoholic beverages. The book includes an introduction to alcoholic beverages, information on important issues such as purchasing beverages, healthy drinking, and alcohol and the law, and an introduction to wine including viticulture, viniculture, and the sensory evaluation of wine. The authors teach readers about wines by varietal as opposed to appellation, which is a much simpler entry point for beginners to the world of wine. In addition to all the major wine varietals (Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, etc.), the book also covers hybrid and Native American varieties, sparkling wines, and dessert and fortified wines. Chapters on beer and distilled spirits include information on making, purchasing, and evaluating beer and spirits. The appendices include map-filled sections on The Old World and The New World of wine, as well as a thorough examination of the TTB requirements for alcoholic beverage labels, and a complete glossary of terms. Author Robert Small is former Dean and Emeritus Professor of The Collins College of Hospitality Management at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, where he still teaches courses on wine, spirits, and beer and on beverage marketing and food and beverage management, and is the Chairman of the Los Angeles International Wine competition, one of the largest and most prestigious wine competitions in the United States.
