Silly Alien Space War Stories for Bigger Kids Denis Hayes, 2014-04 Do other superior beings really exist outside of Earth? Of course they do and in this book they are very active all over all over the Universe but not always in a serious way. The Sramians, Sunevians and Otulpian are from three identical planets in the same orbit around the same sun in a very old galaxy on the far side of the Universe that has no sides. They come from a Galaxy so old that its name has been forgotten and so is just called The Oldest Galaxy. The Creator has made them Caretakers, Custodians and the Commissioners of the Universe as the Creator is very busy creating. This second book in the series centres around an attack from another Universe led by an Alien who had slipped into our Universe aeons before and had created havoc. He had been deported, supposedly back to his own Universe but had been dumped into a different one by mistake. He has been plotting his revenge ever since. Our Aliens have developed a Space Fighter to end all wars but found that only Humans can utilise it to the full. This is a story of how one man saved the Universe and returned to tell the tale.

The Little Spaceship Virginia Jones, 2005-05-01 I am an artist. I drew a picture of an alien and thought I would write a story about this little guy. I named him Jojo. The name of his planet is Ulti. I have ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The characters in my story, Jojo's friends, all live on other planets and share their first names with my grandchildren. In this story, you will be excited when you see how Jimmy, the little Earth boy, becomes friends with Jojo, the little alien, and this is where the story takes off. When Jojo invites Jimmy to meet his other friends on other planets, it starts off casually and ends up with all the little aliens exploring unfamiliar territories in outer space. They go to other planets, have a little trouble, and get scared. This story can be enjoyed by readers of all ages. I have lived in Stuart, Florida all my life.

Kids' Adventures With E.T. Friends in Space Barbara Lamb, 2021-04-21 Real Adventures of E.T. FRIENDS IN SPACE, Based on Real Accounts, is designed to be read to children by adults or by children themselves. It is a friendly, reassuring introduction to typical experiences children have when visited and briefly taken by extraterrestrials. The scenarios are inspired by real accounts of encounters retrieved through hypnotic regressions conducted by psychotherapist Barbara Lamb, M.S., MFT., CHT. Although kids are sometimes confused by having these beings appear to them, many discover they are having wonderful adventures and are significantly helped by these beings. The intent of this book is to educate people about this real phenomenon and to reduce fear about having encounters with extraterrestrial beings. Awareness is increasing worldwide that UFOs are visiting earth, and millions of people are coming forth with accounts of their own visitations by beings from various planets. Official government disclosure about this phenomenon has been happening slowly, bringing attention to this significant aspect of reality. Children and adults who experience these visitations appreciate being believed and validated. This book serves this purpose, as well as to familiarize others with this important phenomenon. We believe there is a large market for this book. Barbara Lamb is well known and respected for her expertise in regressing and counseling people in more than 4000 regressions to people's extraterrestrial encounters, and for 25 years of conducting Experienter groups. She has had vast experience in speaking at conferences and groups of many kinds, with dozens of interviews on film, television, radio, YouTube, the Beyond Belief series on GAIA, Ancient Aliens tv show on the History Channel, and the Netflix 'Extraordinary' series. As Paul Wallis said, I would consider Barbara to be the leading voice worldwide on the subject of close encounters, abduction, and human-ET hybridization in contemporary society. She has co-authored three books: Crop Circles Revealed, Alien Experiences, and Meet the Hybrids. She has also received Lifetime Achievement Awards from three major UFO conferences. Mary Edwards has been an artist, interior designer, and teacher for 35 years. She's taught art to 6-12 year olds and design to college students. Her father and grandfather were rocket scientists and has multi-generational connections with NASA and the USA space program. At age 8, she applied to NASA to be the first woman astronaut and worked on designing interiors for NASA's International Space Station and has had a lifelong interest in inspiring peoples' interest in Space. Her daughter Lizzy also worked at NASA. Both authors are experiencers of extraterrestrial contact and Mary is a hybrid and knows of her six hybrid children.

Both authors are well equipped to create this book and are eager to enlighten as many people as possible.

True Stories of Space Exploration Conspiracies Nick Redfern, 2014-07-15 Established in 1958, NASA, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, has been at the forefront of efforts to explore outer space, resulting in the Apollo missions to the moon, the Skylab space station, and the space shuttle. But beyond these very public explorations, author Nick Redfern seeks to display what goes on behind the scenes at NASA, ascertaining whether there is any truth to rumors and speculation about everything from a possible UFO crash at Roswell, New Mexico in 1947 to whether or not the moon landings themselves were faked.--

Jokes and Cartoons from Outer Space Joel Rothman, 2006-10 Collection of one-panel cartoons about astronauts, aliens, rocketships, and other objects in space.

The Train from Outer Space Alan Sproles, Lizanne Southgate, 2015-12-10 Brady lost his father over a year ago and is still coping by refusing to care about anything anymore. He's failing in school, rejecting the efforts of his friend Franky to help him and lashing out at his mother for dating Brady's science teacher, Mr. Tibbetts. Then his dog, Skip, hears something outside one night and Brady follows him out into the darkness where they find a strange bio-mechanical train which tries to run over Brady. He escapes with Skip only to find that Skip has stolen something off the train, a strange, dark, glowing tube. Brady's mother doesn't believe his tale, so he calls Franky and together they find the tiny alien (Lil Dude) hidden in the tube. As Brady and Franky try to figure out what to do with this strangely recalcitrant little creature, a larger alien, Rotaxis prowls the neighborhood, looking for the stolen tube. And although Rotaxis has a perfectly competent, shape changing, wise cracking, personal assistant, Chimera, he refuses her offers of assistance and in doing so, manages to send Earth through a wormhole. Brady and Franky wake the next morning to see a lime green sky, three suns, and a string of planets now on a collision course with Earth. When neither Mr. Tibbetts or the conspiracy nut sheriff, Sheriff Joe, can figure out what to do, Brady grows desperate. And when Rotaxis manages to hunt them down, Brady and Franky steal his shape shifting train space craft and head out into the galaxy with Lil Dude and (unbeknownst to them) Chimera, to search for the Wormhole Reverser that will save the planet. As Brady navigates through the galaxy, he regains his confidence and remembers what his father said about taking responsibility. As the voice of the still unseen Chimera guides them safely toward their destination, Brady bonds with the ship and begins to suspect that the tale Lil Dude has told them is not the entire truth. After an excursion to another planet where Brady and Franky face incredible creatures, some of whom want them for supper and others who re-open their hearts, the kids find the Wormhole Reverser. But on the journey home, Brady discovers that Lil Dude not only intended to destroy the Earth, but that it is all part of an intergalactic game. And now Brady is part of it, and must win at all costs. Franky and Brady return to Earth, where, with the help of Mr. Tibbetts, Sheriff Joe and the real Rotaxis, Brady races against time to save the world. And when the battle is over and the Earth returns to its normal orbit, Brady wants nothing more than to go home and start his real life again. Too bad that somewhere in the galaxy, Brady's name appears on the game board & nd another game is just about to begin.

Wormhole Moon John Williams,2015-05-09 Worm Hole Moon is a story about two Earth, Space Command astronauts that crash land on a seemingly insignificant moon in a sector of space light years away from Earth. Little do they know, the moon secretly conceals a black hole that is a portal to an alien civilization. Wormhole Moon contains many characters that are interesting and engaging. The locations in the book consist of space, various countries on Earth, to include alien planets. The villains in this book consist of not only one alien race but two! Twists and turns abound as John Williams skillfully weaves the stories and locations in and around each other in Wormhole Moon. You will not find fluff or word fillers in this book. The plots and story line are credible, well researched and easily understood. The reader will not struggle with the technology or procedural syntax. In fact, the book may even educate the reader on some things they did not know about space, military tactics and space travel. Wormhole Moon contains a lot of space technology to include new types of weapons and war tactics in the book. In fact, there are weapons in the book that have yet to be seen in film or television as of the writing of this description. Some of the main characters are of course the two Astronauts, The Chief of Security for the alien planet, Special Operations operators, various commanders and decision makers of all kinds. The book is definitely not all about the business of galactic war. It is laced with plenty of humor and interactions between human and new alien races. The challenges and realities of adding a new species to our planet can be seen throughout various story lines in Wormhole Moon. Author John Williams has a very descriptive writing style and he creates word pictures and visual portraits for his readers so they may truly have a reading experience. Although Worm Hole Moon, is a Sci-fi novel, it is designed to appeal to those who do not usually read Science fiction. This work is over one hundred thousand words long and will delightfully entertain and engage from the novice Sci-fi reader to even the most persnickety, sci-fi reading veteran for hours.

Going Bananas in Space Cabbage Patch Young Storytellers,L. S. V. Baker,2015-07-13 Going

Bananas in Space is the story of two intrepid Cabbage Patch Explorer Club members who successfully trade their phenomenal bananas for out-of-this-world brainberries, all while avoiding conflict with the aliens they encounter. The book includes fun facts about space travel, along with math and craft activities, following Baxter's Corner successful formula for combining a story with a variety of educational activities to create a rich, beyond the story book experience for readers. Authors of the story are 10 Louisville, Ky., youth ages 8 - 13, who collaborated on the project as part of a Young Storytellers Camp at the Cabbage Patch Settlement House. Baxter's Corner founders Mary Ellen Stottmann and Linda Villwock Baker led the camp and proposed developing the story into a published book, the first in a new series of books by Cabbage Patch campers. Proceeds from sales of the book will benefit youth services at Cabbage Patch Settlement House.
