Spanish for Beginners Hector Ramos,2020-03-30 Spanish for Beginners is a great tool to help you in your quest to speak a new language. The format is simple. Just listen, repeat what you hear, and learn Spanish. This book has laid it all out for you in an easy to follow format that makes learning intuitive. It's just like when you were young and learning to use your words. You didn't know words, you heard other people speaking and you learned to associate words you heard with actions around you. This book is the same. You have things happening around you all the time and this book identifies that the important subjects and gives you sentences and the pronunciation of the words so that you are prepared to speak and be understood. - Learn the vocabulary and sentence structure to talk about things inside and outside of the home. Not sure what to wear to the wedding? Pon el vestido azul. It matches your eyes. Learn the terms for gardening, cleaning and everyday chores. Sure, no one wants to think about chores, but if you're learning a new language, its worth it. Get information on the hotel you found on the internet. You can call them directly to make sure they will have everything you want when you arrive. Get the sentence right. Know what to ask to get what you want. The scenarios are listed in Spanish for Beginners in a way that teaches you what to say with confidence. You will be able to use the tools provided within this book to learn the best parts of speaking a new language. You will be equipped to go to another country, set up your cell phone, get to where you are staying, ask for more towels and find the pool. You will know how to order food in restaurants, coffee at the café and drinks at the bar. There is a comprehensive vocabulary list that will give you the opportunity to not only speak Spanish but understand Spanish. Let's face it, speaking the language is only half the battle. With Spanish for Beginners, you will listen to Spanish words as well. It may be more important to understand what is said to you. The process of learning will be gentle and complete. You already know some Spanish; now you will be able to know a lot more. The book starts in the home and gives you words that are needed every day. Now, you will be able to say them in Spanish as well. Learn about appliances, clothing, cleaning, gardening, eating, and shopping. It's as easy hearing the words and repeating them. This is how you learn to talk in your native language, and this will be the way you learn to speak Spanish. Spanish for Beginners will guide you through beginning skills needed as the starting point to fluency in Spanish. By completing this book, you will see that you don't have to have all the grammar rules under your belt to be understood in a practical and still correct manner. Take the step needed to speak Spanish with Spanish for Beginners.
