Jim Walden

The Black Cougars Abby Hatch, 2019-07-25 The Black Cougars is a student gang group where the members are recruited randomly at school. Once one becomes a member, the leader demands the member to follow the group rules. Find out how this affects the life of Lauren.

Tales from the Washington State Cougars Sideline Jim Walden, 2013-10-01 During an association with the Washington State football program that started in 1977, Jim Walden established a foundation of competitive expectations that helped spur the success of contemporary Cougar teams. Walden's 1981 Cougars broke a 51-year bowl drought, and with victories in three of his last five Apple Cup games against Washington, Walden finally leveled the field with WSU's cross-state rivals. Walden's teams beat every opponent in the Pac-10 Conference at least once, squaring off against powerhouses USC, UCLA, and Washington despite a deficit in resources that he once described as "having to fight battles every Saturday with a really short sword." He kidded and sparred with coaches like Don James, John Robinson, and Terry Donahue, while ticking off a few others with his outspokenness. He offered his opinions so frequently and frankly that his university president had "The Walden Release" printed and ready as a disclaimer for the press: "The opinions of Coach Walden do not necessarily reflect the stance of the WSU administration." In Tales from the Washington State Cougars Sideline, the stories cover players and coaches alike, including Jack "The Throwin' Samoan" Thompson, the colorful "Lone Star" Dietz, Bill Doba, and many more. Walden reveals the effective strategies and the flubs and tells what really happened on the field and in the locker rooms. He also shares the ways he was able to coax prospects into coming to remote Pullman and what he was really screaming at officials all those times. Walden tells his stories the way he coached—all out and nothing held back, with wit and humor.

Cougar Courage Troy Daul, 2006-07-24 The powerful Camden Cougars are used to winning. Then the graduation of several key players and Coach Reilly's decision to skip retirement at the risk of his own legacy leaves the town questioning its team and coach. The team's inexperience and lack of leadership lead to an early season loss ending their twenty-six game win streak. To unite the team and the town Matt leans on senior Tyler Lampert. Tyler's hard work, determination and leadership lift the team. Now if Tyler can only tell his best friend how he really feels about her. Follow Tyler as he carries the team on his back, as he tackles his way to a college scholarship, a girl's heart and possibly... a championship season.

Giving into Glory Scott Lance, 2015-05-11 With the Bausk University Cougars starting out their football season with a 4-1 record, Head Coach Al V. Lyle implements some of his own tactics, motivational projects, and faith. Head Coach Al V. Lyle has more than a college football team to prepare for this week's game, this season of ups and downs, and the occasional prankster. Al V. Lyle has a life away from Bausk University he is just getting to notice. There's a life-changer down at the river; it's a beast of an animal with roar and coat of black fur. It's a bear! From the college cafeteria, where most mornings at the school begin to football practice and the crowds on Saturday, a walk amongst nature's beauty, a failed marriage, and the feeling of "something is about to happen" changes the meaning of life for Al V. Lyle. Is it coincidence or fate? The every day is always changing. The alarm goes off at the same time most every day, but that does not mean you wake up at the same time. Coach Al V. Lyle is not one to emphasize routine. "There's just too much out of bounds" and "Mistakes make perfect." We are human beings. "The ball is hiked! Seren rolls out, picks up a block, and another block. He's twenty-four yards down field before being forced out of bounds!" "This guy is playing as if on a mission, Chad!" "No doubt about it. Bry Seren is in total control out there, Matt!" With the Cougars at the thirty-eight-yard line with a first and ten yards to go, Coach Lyle calls a time-out, and Bry Seren steps over to the coach. "Just chill, Bry. We need you for the second half of this game as well." "Yes, Coach," and with something on his chest needing to get off, "what happened between you and my girlfriend?" "Nothing! Now, get out there and play," he said as if a sworn secret had just been leaked out. Coach Bren is standing close by. "What was that all about?" "Just something that did not need to be known—Thursday night, a short talk with Bry's girlfriend—that's all it was. We have a game going on, for Pete's sakes." "It looks like another first down, Chad!" The chain gang comes onto the field. First down by an inch! The next play would be an incomplete pass and on second and ten from the twenty eight yard line. "The Cougars line up, snap the ball, it's a sweep to the left!" "Upton runs for four yards and is brought down by a pack! The Cougars are facing third down and six yards to go, Chad." "The Cougars snap the ball from the Shotgun formation. Bry Seren fakes the handoff, rolls out to his right, is he going to run?" "No, he rifles a short pass to Jackson!" "And, he is tackled, like, right now!" "It's still enough for a first down. These Cougars are just making it." Written upon these pages faces is a fictional character. Put yourself in the shoes of Head Coach Al V. Lyle, former linebacker, wearing the uniform stitched with Bausk University. Written upon these pages portrays a man feeling alone and not knowing if he should reach out or remain under his own restraint. Al comes in different names to match the moment, but on the inside, he tries to remain the same: "I am but the least of us all."

Taming the Wild Cougar Terry Spear, Cougar shifter, Dr. Kate Parker, is planning her annual camping vacation alone this year. She runs into trouble before she even starts her trip in the form of one wounded, hot cougar, undercover agent—or so he says. He's not going along with just her tender loving care because he came into town as a cougar, and he needs her help to get him back to where he can take up the search to look for an arms dealer, who just happens to be a cougar too. Leyton Hill slipped into the unlocked, darkened clinic, figuring his luck had just changed. Except he doesn't plan for the good doctor to be napping in her office. Taking him on her vacation wasn't in the plan, and taking her hostage, hadn't been either, but now she's stuck with him until he can get back to his mission and the chase at hand. Yet it appears the roles have reversed and who's holding whom hostage now?
