The Advent of Divine Justice Shoghi Effendi,2021-02-27 The Advent of Divine Justice is a letter from Shoghi Effendi to the Bahá'ís of the United States and Canada written on 25 December 1938. It describes the unique spiritual destiny of America, its role in establishing the Most Great Peace and the crucial contribution that American Bahá'ís have to make to that process. Shoghi Effendi explains that in order for the Bahá'ís to make a lasting contribution and fulfill their destiny, they must exert themselves to manifest moral rectitude, absolute chastity, and complete freedom from prejudice.

A Tutorial on the Advent of Divine Justice Fazel Naghdy,2019-12 Shoghi Effendi-the Guardian of the Bahá'í Faith, wrote The Advent of Divine Justice as a letter to the North American Bahá'ís in 1938, at a critical time in the history of the Faith and the affairs of the world. The North American Bahá'í community was chosen by 'Abdu'l-Bahá to initiate the plan set out in the Tablets of the Divine Plan, the charter revealed by 'Abdu'l-Bahá for the spiritual conquest of the planet. 'Abdu'l-Bahá, and later Shoghi Effendi, nurtured the development of the North American Bahá'ís, preparing them to embark on the mission conferred on them by 'Abdu'l-Bahá. A year before writing The Advent of Divine Justice, Shoghi Effendi provided the North American Bahá'í community with a Seven Year Plan as the first stage in bringing the Light of the Cause to the American continent. In a message dated 18 January 2019 to the Bahá'ís of the world, the Universal House of Justice-the supreme governing body of the Bahá'í Faith, signaled that the forces of disintegration have regrouped and gained ground since the beginning of the 21st century and new challenges have begun to emerge. The increasing problems of the world bring an urgency to the study of The Advent of Divine Justice. It is critical for all Bahá'ís at this time, to assimilate its contents into the patterns of their behaviour as individuals and as communities, no matter in what part of the globe they live. This current book is designed to assist you to study The Advent of Divine Justice and absorb its contents. It is called a tutorial as it attempts to simulate, as much as possible, the tutor-tutored relationship in a self-paced personal study. All the references in the tutorial are sourced either from authoritative Bahá'í materials or obtained from other reliable sources.

The Baha'i Faith: A Guide For The Perplexed Robert H. Stockman,2012-11-21 Founded by Bahá'u'llah in Iran in the 19th century, the Bahá'í Faith is one of the youngest of the world's major religions. Though it has over 5 million followers worldwide, it is still little understood outside of its own community. The Bahá'í Faith: A Guide for the Perplexed explores the utopian vision of the Bahá'í Faith including its principles for personal spiritual transformation and for the construction of spiritualized marriages, families, Bahá'í communities, and, ultimately, a spiritual world civilization. Aimed at students seeking a thorough understanding of this increasingly studied religion, this book is the ideal companion to studying and understanding the Bahá'í Faith, its teachings and the history of its development.

An Introduction to the Baha'i Faith Peter Smith,2008-04-07 Peter Smith explores the history, beliefs and practices of the Baha'i faith.

Islam and the Baha'i Faith Oliver Scharbrodt,2008-04-25 Muhammad`Abduh (1849-1905) was one of the key thinkers and reformers of modern Islam who has influenced both liberal and fundamentalist Muslims today. `Abdul-Baha (1844-1921) was the son of Baha'ullah (1817-1892), the founder of the Baha'i Faith; a new religion which began as a messianic movement in Shii Islam, before it departed from Islam. Oliver Scharbrodt offers an innovative and radically new perspective on the lives of these two major religious reformers in 19th century Middle East by placing both figures into unfamiliar terrain. While one would classify `Abdul-Baha, leader of a messianic movement which claims to depart from Islam, as an exponent of heresy in Islam, `Abduh is perceived as an orthodox Sunni reformer. This book, however, argues against the assumption that both represent two extremely opposite expressions of Islamic religiosity. It shows that both were influenced by similar intellectual and religious traditions of Islam and that both participated in the same discussions on the reform of Islam in the 19th century. Islam and the Baha'i Faith provides new insights into the Islamic background of the Baha'i Faith and into `Abduh's own association with so-called heretical movements in Islam.

The World of the Bahá'í Faith Robert H. Stockman,2021-12-30 The World of the Bahá'í Faith is an outstanding guide to the Bahá'í Faith and its culture in all its geographical and historical diversity. Written by a distinguished team of international contributors, this volume explores the origin of this religion and contains substantial thematic articles on the living experience of the global Bahá'í community. The volume is organised into six distinct sections: Leadership and Authoritative Texts Theology Humanity Society The Contemporary Bahá'í Community History and Spread of the Bahá'í Community These sections cover such themes as the afterlife, artistic expression, Bahá'í institutions, devotional life, diversity, economics, education, the environment and sustainability, family life, gender, human nature, interfaith relations, international governance, law, marriage, peace, persecution, philosophy, race, science and religion, scripture, spirituality, and work. The development of the Bahá'í Faith is outlined in ten regional articles. This volume provides an authoritative and accessible source of information on all topics important to the Bahá'í Faith. The World of the Bahá'í Faith will be essential reading to students and scholars studying world religions and comparative religion. It will also be of interest to those in related fields such as sociology, political science, anthropology, and ethics.

Studies in Babi and Baha'i History Moojan Momen,2006 This is the first collection of scholarly essays on the history of the Bahá'í Faith to be published as a book. Included are the works of five scholars who have conducted original research on specific aspects of the Bábí and Bahá'í religions.Two essays are concerned with Bahá'í history in Iran. Denis MacEoin's provocative paper traces the first years of interaction and conflict between the Shaykhí School and the emerging Bábí Movement. Moojan Momen provides a fascinating account of the relations of Christian missionaries in Iran with Bábís and Bahá'ís. The three remaining essays discuss American Bahá'í history. Peter Smith's comprehensive survey of the American community from 1894 to 1917 adds substantially to our knowledge of that period. William Collins offers an in-depth study of the Bahá'ís of Kenosha, Wisconsin, where one of the first Bahá'í communities was established. Finally, Loni Bramson-Lerche examines the development of Bahá'í administrative procedures from 1922 to 1936.This is the first volume in the Studies Series and remains a classic work of Bahá'í history. It is a basic text for any study of the history of the Bahá'í Faith.Comments about the series include: The series demonstrates both that a critical mass of young scholars interested in these movements have formed & that the Baha'i community in the U.S. can now support academic books on the religion.--(British Society for Middle Eastern Studies Bulletin). ...much more work needs to be done on Baha'i history in Iran...that process is now underway & this collection carries it further.--(Middle East Journal). There is...a mass of information here that could be used in more comparative or theoretically-oriented studies ...--(Iranian Studies). ... a fascinating volume which offers much new information on the development of a modern faith.--(Religious Studies Review). This volume is well worth reading by anyone seriously interested in religion in modern Iran.--(British Society for Middle Eastern Studies Bulletin).
