

The Kitchen Table Entrepreneur

Paul Power

The Kitchen Table Entrepreneur Paul Power,2006 Kitchen Table Entrepreneurs make the best of what they have in terms of their personal skills, and their financial resources, which means they start their businesses from where they are standing right now. Rather than moan about what they could achieve if only they had enough money, the right premises or the right people - KTE's start their businesses with however much or little they have at the time.

How to Start a Business on Your Kitchen Table Shann Nix Jones,2020-09-15 Inspired by the author's rags-to-riches business story, this book explains how to combine passion with innovation to start a business. Practical tools, expert advice and innovative ideas to help you create a successful business that reflects your values, supports your lifestyle and creates real fulfilment. In 2014, in her farmhouse kitchen in Wales, Shann Nix Jones started to manufacture a relatively unknown probiotic goat's milk called kefir. It was a powerful healing remedy that cured her son's eczema and even saved her husband from a life-threatening MRSA infection. Today, the business she started on her kitchen table has 300,000 customers and an annual turnover of £4.5 million. In this book, Shann shares the innovative methods that helped her turn her passion into a sustainable business. Following these steps, you'll learn how to: • develop an idea into a viable business that supports any lifestyle • operate with meaningful values and stand out from the competition • convert every obstacle into a launch pad • balance work and family - and even weave both together to enhance your family life Shann believes that anyone can start a business following her 13 steps, and that doing so can bring you closer to creating a life in which you are the CEO of your business and your destiny.

Mommy Millionaire Kim Lavine,2008-02-19 The founder and president of Green Daisy, Inc. and creator of the Wuvit multipurpose, hot/cold therapy pillows offers real-word advice, secrets, and lessons she learned while turning her kitchen-table gift idea for her boys' teachers into a multimillion dollar business.

Kitchen Table Entrepreneurs Martha Shirk,Anna S Wadia,2009-06-17 Over the last five years, the number of women-owned businesses has grown at twice the rate of all U.S. firms; in the next few years, the number is expected to surpass the six million mark. Kitchen Table Entrepreneurs tells the inspirational stories of eleven low-income women who have marshaled the creative energy, confidence, and capital necessary to start their own small businesses. These women, who have used their entrepreneurial skills as a route out of poverty, give an American face to an economic empowerment tool that has enjoyed great success in developing countries. By becoming their own bosses, they not only provide for their children but also inspire them. Though each of their businesses is unique, all eleven of these women have discovered previously unknown strengths as they've struggled to overcome personal and bureaucratic obstacles. All received important assistance from nonprofit organizations supported by the Ms. Foundation for Women, the pioneer funding entity of microenterprise programs in the United States. Updated with a new epilogue.

Anyone Can Do It Sahar Hashemi,Bobby Hashemi,2004-05-14 Anyone Can Do It chronicles the start and evolution of a successful business dream. Beginning with the Hashemi siblings' first conversations (when the seed of the idea was planted) it follows the progress of Coffee Republic from business plan to the present day. Coffee Republic is now worth around £50m with 90 outlets around the UK. This is a start-up business book for real people. Sahar and Bobby take the reader step by step through every aspect of starting and growing a business from asking 'why?' and writing the plan to hiring staff and letting go. The book is illustrated throughout with inspirational anecdotes from their own experience. It is a very personal story of dreaming, acting and succeeding offering a myriad of lessons for aspiring entrepreneurs and blowing apart the myth that only 'special' people start successful businesses.

Do You Really Want to be an Entrepreneur? Karel Vermeulen, 2019-03-05 Do You Really Want to be an Entrepreneur serves as a practical, hands-on guide for aspiring entrepreneurs, start-ups, and small business owners to take immediate action for profitable success. Written from personal experience, Do You Really Want to be an Entrepreneur shares how Karel Vermeulen started his entrepreneurial journey from humble beginnings in his kitchen. It also shows how he grew his home-based business to a global, multimillion-dollar business. For those who have an idea but don't know how to turn it into a profitable business or for those small business owners who feel stuck, Karel shares his knowledge to empower readers to become even more successful than him. He guides readers through struggles and challenges, shining a bright light on what not to do. At the end of each chapter, Karel includes a list of practical exercises readers can work through before moving on to the next chapter, demonstrating how action and speed of implementation are some of the many secrets to success. Readers learn how they can turn their idea into a million-dollar business, how crucial it is to have correct branding and marketing, how to separate a business brand from a personal brand, and, ultimately, how the way someone changes is the way they succeed.

A Cup of Cappuccino for the Entrepreneur's Spirit: Jeretta Horn Nord & Cindy Patterson Th, 2009-06-18 A Cup of Cappuccino for the Entrepreneur's Spirit - find your passion and live the dream features entrepreneurs' true short stories written to inspire, energize and teach the reader. The stories include adversities, challenges, triumphs, and successes experienced by the entrepreneur to help readers discover passion and basic principles they can use to live the entrepreneurial dream. Touching both the head and the heart, the stories feature entrepreneurs from ages 21 to 94 representing a diverse range of business types, sizes, and income levels. Stories are presented in a "can do" optimistic format, opened with relevant inspirational quotes, and closed with key success factors, recommended books, entrepreneurs' websites, and editor's notes. Featured entrepreneurs include Scott Klososky from Oklahoma, who sold his last company for $115M. Scott believes that building businesses is a noble act and that entrepreneurship has made the U.S. economy the powerhouse that it is. Evelyn Echols, an entrepreneur from Chicago recently celebrated her 94th birthday and is still involved in entrepreneurial ventures. Ms. Echols believes that this era is the perfect time for young people to consider entrepreneurship. Evelyn owned and operated Echols International Travel School for 35 years and just published her second book with Walter Cronkite writing the foreword. Particularly relevant in today's economy, Katherine Sansone of SANSONE+ PR and Marketing firm in Oakland, California started a business because she was tired of being laid off and wanted to control her own destiny. She now represents notable clients worldwide and discusses changes she had to make in her business with personnel including using contract management rather than having employees. Tamara Dujmovic and Robert Sterpin, two successful entrepreneurs from Izola, Slovenia, Europe (the former Yugoslavia), discuss their business strategies and illustrate the possibilities of entrepreneurship in a society where owning a business was not an option prior to 1991. In the current economic climate, entrepreneurs must work harder than ever before to differentiate their businesses from the competition. Key success factors such as passion, customer service, relationships, work ethic, integrity, determination and perseverance are reiterated throughout the book. A Cup of Cappuccino for the Entrepreneurs' Spirit - find your passion and live the dream will include a series of books with the first book featuring 58 entrepreneurs from five countries and 18 states within the U.S. Future books will be published as editions of A Cup of Cappuccino for the Entrepreneur's Spirit. The series will include Volumes I, II, and III, a Women Entrepreneurs' Edition, an Internet Entrepreneurs' Edition, a Global Entrepreneurs' Edition, a Disabled Entrepreneurs' Edition, an African American Entrepreneurs' Edition, a Native American Entrepreneurs' Edition, a Social Entrepreneurs' Edition, an Australian Entrepreneurs' Edition and others. Over 50 potential editions have been identified. CDs with selected stories in the entrepreneur's voice will follow. A Cup of Cappuccino for the Entrepreneur's Spirit will bring inspiration, motivation, and knowledge to entrepreneurs and aspiring entrepreneurs worldwide. A portion of the proceeds from the book will be put in a fund to help the next generation of entrepreneurs with start-up funds.
