Reading Bridal Magazines from a Critical Discursive Perspective E. Glapka,2014-09-04 Bridal magazines have become increasingly popular in Western society, proliferating the idea of a 'princess bride' on her 'big day'. Yet little has been written on how the ever-expanding wedding media and the popular wedding culture constructs gender and affects the ways women live and experience their weddings. Offering a critique of contemporary wedding discourse, this book marries together analyses of media texts and their reception to propose a new approach to media discourse. The analysis richly illustrates how women are invited to embrace not only the stereotypical idea of bridal femininity but also a consumptive way of experiencing it. Through examination of brides' accounts of their 'big days', the book observes the imprints of the popular gender imagery on their self-portraits and self-narratives, and describes the women's diverse approaches to them. Based on insights from gender and critical discourse studies, sociology and audience research, this exploration illuminates the ongoing debate on 'media and gender' and its methodological approaches.

Women's Right to Reproductive Self-Determination from the Perspective of Civil Law Weijun Jiang,2022-08-12 This book explores the issue of abortion and women's rights in contemporary China. With a vast population, China's government has pursued controversial policies, such as the One Child Policy, in the past. Today, a rapidly urbanizing society is aging quickly, and the policies are loosening; but what are the implications for Chinese women, and how do policies compare to those in the West? In this groundbreaking book, Dr. Jiang elucidates the Chinese legal and social history of abortion for the first time in English. This book will be of interest to lawyers, NGO researchers, feminists and academics.

QUESTIONS Magazine Alphi Q.,2016-07-01 QUESTIONS Magazine is the on-going visual story of my post-Marine Corps existential search. It is a compilation of the visual and philosophical perspectives gained during my travels. If anybody can learn a single insight from it, then the work was all worth it. I don't have to change the world, but I can try to change one perspective at a time. Issue 1 - Perspectives from Guatemala (116 pages): Two years after I left the Marine Corps I was lost, burnout, and unhappy. Without the Marine Corps to support my new identity in a civilian world, I no longer knew my purpose. Issue 1 is the result of a spiritual self-searching process that begin when I dimly asked myself one day, What am I doing with my life?. The perspectives in this issue were all photographed and conceived while traveling in Guatemala.Free digital version available here: <https://gum.co/QmagIssue1>
