Brandstorm: Surviving and Thriving in the New Consumer-Led Marketplace Liz Nickles, Savita Iyer, 2012-11-13 Branding has become ubiquitous, with new brands becoming word-of-mouth successes literally overnight, and many welcome the easy familiarity they bring to daily life. But now brand proliferation is threatening not only to stifle true choice in the marketplace, but to render hard-won brand identities - some decades in the making - meaningless. With today's unprecedented access to thousands of brands a day, via Twitter, Facebook, and the rest, the balance of brand power is shifting irrevocably away from the businesses behind them. In Brandstorm, branding guru Liz Nickles argues that, as a result, the brand is no longer a value proposition in itself, and that marketers and brand managers must stop the dilution and focus on meaningful, market-specific reinvention for those brands that can stand the test of time. She offers the success secrets behind leading brands like Ralph Lauren, Justin Bieber, and Revlon, and how to channel them today.

Teardrops in the Tides: The Journeys of a Ring Finder Jim Wren,2018-03-02 This is not a typical metal detecting book. This book delves into the reality of someone with a face, name, and real tears who lost a very precious and sentimental engagement or wedding ring. It's one member of The Ring Finders true and factual journeys trying to find, recover, and return lost treasures to their rightful owners. Irrelevant of any cost, every ring has a story attached. The story could have started when a young man slipped a beautiful engagement ring on the love of his life's finger. Maybe the story started the day before when a couple exchanged wedding vows and rings, or generations ago when a ring was passed down from family member to family member. When a ring is lost, that part of the story stops. The ring can always be replaced, after all, it's only a materialistic piece of metal. However, the love, sentiment, and memories attached to that special ring can never be replaced and is lost forever.

An accident stole her memory. Now a chance encounter has brought it all crashing back . . . Violet Niarchos can't recall the affair that gave her a child. But when she runs into Aidan Murphy, she knows the sexy bar owner is no stranger. He was her lover over one amazing weekend. He's her baby's father. But will Aidan believe she truly forgot all they shared? Or will he think that the high-class heiress is faking it to save her reputation?

Sellelevision Augusten Burroughs,2003-06-01 The hilarious first novel by the #1 bestselling author of Running with Scissors, Dry, A Wolf at the Table, and You Better Not Cry, Sellelevision is Augusten Burrough's darkly funny and vastly entertaining skewering of a very troubled home-shopping channel.

Welcome to the world of Sellelevision, America's premier retail broadcasting network. When Max Andrews, the much loved and handsome (that is, lonely and gay) host of a Toys for Tots segment, accidentally exposes himself in front of millions of kids, Sellelevision faces its first big scandal. As Max struggles to find a new job in television, the popular and perky host Peggy Jean Smythe is receiving sinister emails from a stalker. Popping pills and drinking heavily, she fails to notice that her husband is spending a lot of time with the young babysitter who lives next door. Then there's Leigh, whose affair with married Sellelevision boss Howard Toast is going nowhere until she announces their relationship on air. A blistering satire of our overcharged, scandal-obsessed world, Sellelevision is an absolute howl . . . wicked fun (New York Daily News).
