168 Hours Laura Vanderkam,2011-05-31 It's an unquestioned truth of modern life: we are starved for time. We tell ourselves we'd like to read more, get to the gym regularly, try new hobbies, and accomplish all kinds of goals. But then we give up because there just aren't enough hours to do it all. Or if we don't make excuses, we make sacrifices- taking time out from other things in order to fit it all in. There has to be a better way...and Laura Vanderkam has found one. After interviewing dozens of successful, happy people, she realized that they allocate their time differently than most of us. Instead of letting the daily grind crowd out the important stuff, they start by making sure there's time for the important stuff. When plans go wrong and they run out of time, only their lesser priorities suffer. Vanderkam shows that with a little examination and prioritizing, you'll find it is possible to sleep eight hours a night, exercise five days a week, take piano lessons, and write a novel without giving up quality time for work, family, and other things that really matter.

What They Don't Teach You in Project Management School JOSEPH DOLPHIN,2017-03-10 What they don't teach you in Project Management School builds on the existing book of knowledge on project governance and management. The book brings the author's tacit knowledge and his knowledge rooted in context to bear on this subject. The book provides deep insights and shares experience on how projects are delivered in the real world. Emphasis is on the mathematics of project management. There are several topics that are not taught in project management schools - metrics, managing onshore-offshore delivery, managing staffing pyramid, managing cash flow in projects, comprehensive project governance plan, and also comprehensive coverage of tools and templates like MS Project Professional, Requirement Traceability Matrix and EVA.
