Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Political and Constitutional Reform Committee, House of Commons

Recall of MPs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Political and Constitutional Reform Committee, House of Commons, 2012-06-28 The Government published a draft Bill on the Recall of MPs, with the aim of restoring faith in the political process after the expenses scandal. But the restricted form of recall proposed could reduce public confidence in politics by creating expectations that are not fulfilled. Under the Government's proposals, constituents themselves would not be able to initiate a recall petition. Furthermore, the circumstances that the Government proposes would trigger a recall petition are so narrow that recall petitions would seldom, if ever, take place. The Committee believes that the new House of Commons Committee on Standards, which will include lay members, already has the sanctions it needs to deal with MPs who are guilty of misconduct, including recommending the ultimate sanction of expulsion from the House of Commons in cases of serious wrongdoing. The Committee argues that the option of expulsion must be actively considered and that the House must be prepared to act. The Committee recommends: that the Government replace the requirement for a single designated location for signing the recall petition with a requirement for multiple locations; that people with an existing postal vote should automatically be sent a postal signature sheet in the event of a recall petition; that constituents in Northern Ireland should have the same options for signing a recall petition as constituents elsewhere in the UK, rather than being restricted to signing by post

Or have Jackie and Curt unleashed the wrath of vengeful pharmaceutical executives? Emboldened by the support of law enforcement officials and a prominent physician, Jackie and Curt embark on a crusade against AlzCura. They have compelling evidence of unethical business practices and countless numbers of unreported patient deaths related to their miracle cure for Alzheimer's. But when a key witness is found hanging in his office, their case against the pharmaceutical giant is significantly weakened. On top of that, Jackie's home is broken into, and an ominous warning was left on her wall. And someone posing as Curt's brother tried to pick up his kids from school. Shaken, Jackie and Curt must reassess the potential cost of continuing their fight. Would Jackie and Curt be able to garner sufficient support and evidence to bring AlzCura to justice? Or would their continued efforts bring down a reign of terror that would make them pay with their lives? Dying to Recall is the second book in the page-turning Table for Four medical thriller series. It's a captivating story of good versus evil with engaging characters who will take you on an emotional roller-coaster ride. Pick it up now. You'll have trouble putting it down.
