Ultimate Movie Trivia Quiz Malcolm

Bickle, 2018-02-15 Whether you are going to a trivia night with movie lovers or are just looking for a book full of hard trivia questions to challenge yourself, you're going to love this book. Inside are 503 fun trivia questions and answers covering a century of movies - from Hollywood productions to notable indies and non-American movies. The questions are divided by decade, from the 1910s to the 2010s. Each question includes four answer choices. Want to check if you're right? The answer key is at the back. Seasoned TV game show writer Malcolm Bickle wrote this book of movie trivia questions and answers specifically for fellow trivia fanatics and film buffs who live and breathe movies. If you delight in paying attention not just to the big picture, but to the tiny details as well... If you love wading in a sea of what others call useless information... If some of your favorite movies (or even you) have been called pretentious or artsy-fartsy by some guy with questionable tastes... If words like Academy Award, Criterion Collection, and Top 100 Films of All Time set your heart aflutter... ..then get this book of interesting trivia questions NOW!

Global Entertainment Media Anne Cooper-Chen, 2006-04-21 Global Entertainment Media offers a unique perspective on entertainment media worldwide. As one of the first comprehensive books to address entertainment mass media worldwide, it addresses students as TV watchers and takes them to new places, both geographically and intellectually. Editor Anne Cooper-Chen has gathered an international group of scholars to explore such concepts as psychology, gratifications, and effects of media entertainment and its relation to national cultures, as well as to discuss the business of international TV trade by transnational media corporations. In this volume, experts discuss the content, audiences, and cultural and legal aspects of their respective countries, all of which are major TV markets. The country-specific chapters draw on the individual insights, expertise, and currency of 10 resident authors. Contributions represent every hemisphere of the globe, offering detailed examinations of media entertainment in United Kingdom, Germany, Egypt, Nigeria, South Africa, India, Japan, China, Brazil, and Mexico. The two concluding chapters provide cross-national case studies that look at familiar TV experiences--The Olympics and the Who Wants to Be a Millionaire show--in global and novel ways. Global Entertainment Media is intended for students in international media, comparative media, cross-cultural communication, and television studies, and it also has much to offer scholars and researchers in entertainment media.

TV Format Mogul Albert Moran, 2013-01-06 Since the late 1990s, when broadcasters began adapting such television shows as Big Brother, Survivor, and Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? for markets around the world, the global television industry has been struggling to come to grips with the prevalence of program franchising across international borders. In TV Format Mogul, Albert Moran traces the history of this phenomenon through the lens of Australian producer Reg Grundy's transnational career. Program copycatting, Moran shows, began long before its most recent rise to prominence. Indeed, he reveals that the practice of cultural and commercial cloning from one place to another, and one time to another, has occurred since the early days of broadcasting. Beginning in the late 1950s, Grundy brought non-Australian shows to Australian audiences, becoming the first person to take local productions to an overseas market. By following Grundy's career, Moran shows how adaptation and remaking became the billion-dollar business they are today. An exciting new contribution from Australia's foremost scholar of television, TV Format Mogul will be a definitive history of program franchising.
