Clyde Fitch and the American Theatre Kevin Lane Dearinger,2016-07-29 Clyde Fitch was a major figure in the American theatre, influential in his time and to the playwrights who followed. A collection of Fitch's letters published in 1924 provided a sanitized record of his life, but no major biography has since appeared. Clyde Fitch and the American Theatre: An Olive in the Cocktail is the missing piece in the study of this important playwright and his contributions to gay history in a way that gives his plays the reconsideration and revival deserved.
