Kommunale Beteiligungsberichterstattung in NRW Stephan Körner, 2019-09-26

Charakteristisch für eine große Anzahl von Kommunen in der Bundesrepublik Deutschland ist ein hoher Anteil an ausgelagerten Organisationseinheiten. Die oftmals konzernartigen kommunalen Strukturen sind insbesondere für die Bürger, für die politischen Mandatsträger und für die Kernverwaltung mit einem Verlust an Transparenz sowie an Einfluss-, Steuerungs- und Kontrollmöglichkeiten verbunden. Durch die verselbstständigten Aufgabenbereiche entsteht eine Informationsasymmetrie zwischen den genannten Akteuren und den mit der Aufgabenwahrnehmung beauftragten Managern kommunaler Unternehmen. Als das zentrale Element zur Reduzierung der Informationsasymmetrie gilt der kommunale Beteiligungsbericht. Bisherige Studien zur Verfügbarkeit und Qualität von Beteiligungsberichten legen allerdings erhebliche Varianzen und Defizite in der Berichterstattung offen, weshalb nach wie vor enormer Forschungsbedarf auf diesem Gebiet besteht. Hier setzt die vorliegende Arbeit an. Aufgrund der hohen sozialen und politischen Bedeutung sowie eines homogenen Unternehmens- respektive Untersuchungsgegenstandes wird die kommunale Wohnraumversorgung, die mit den Wohnungsgesellschaften zu den Schwerpunktbereichen der kommunalen Auslagerungen zählt, fokussiert. Überdies ist das Land Nordrhein-Westfalen, das bereits über eine langjährige Erfahrung in der Beteiligungsberichterstattung verfügt und sich durch eine hohe Einwohnerzahl und Bevölkerungsdichte auszeichnet, für die Untersuchung besonders geeignet.

CSR und Digitalisierung Alexandra Hildebrandt, Werner Landhäußer, 2017-08-24 Dieses Buch ist ein Kaleidoskop unserer Gesellschaft und Zeit. Es beschäftigt sich mit Herausforderungen, Chancen und Risiken der größten Transformation der Geschichte: der Digitalisierung. Vorgestellt werden bahnbrechende neue Methoden zur nachhaltigen Steuerung der digitalen Transformation, neue Denkstile sowie neue Formen interdisziplinärer Zusammenarbeit - etwa mit Geistes-, Sozial- und Naturwissenschaftlern, Ökonomen, Informatikern, Psychologen, Philosophen und Vertretern der Kreativwirtschaft. Sie zeigen, dass Digitalisierung weder gefürchtet noch verehrt werden muss, denn es geht vor allem darum, ihre Rolle zu verstehen, um sie nachhaltig zu gestalten.

Consumer Vulnerability and Welfare in Mortgage Contracts Irina Domurath,2017-11-30
This book advocates a new way of thinking about mortgage contracts. This claim is based on the assumption that we currently live in a political economy in which consumer debt fulfils a social function. In the field of housing this is evidenced by the expansion of mortgage credit through which consumers are to purchase residential property as a means of social inclusion and personal welfare. It is suggested that contract law needs to adjust to this new social function in order to avoid welfare losses in terms of default, over-indebtedness, and possibly eviction. To this end, this book analyses theoretical contract law frameworks and makes concrete proposals for contract law in the EU legal order.

Insurgent Public Space Jeffrey Hou,2010-04-21 Winner of the EDRA book prize for 2012. In cities around the world, individuals and groups are reclaiming and creating urban sites, temporary spaces and informal gathering places. These 'insurgent public spaces' challenge conventional views of how urban areas are defined and used, and how they can transform the city environment. No longer confined to traditional public areas like neighbourhood parks and public plazas, these guerrilla spaces express the alternative social and spatial relationships in our changing cities. With nearly twenty illustrated case studies, this volume shows how instances of insurgent public space occur across the world. Examples range from community gardening in Seattle and Los Angeles, street dancing in Beijing, to the transformation of parking spaces into temporary parks in San Francisco. Drawing on the experiences and knowledge of individuals extensively engaged in the actual implementation of these spaces, Insurgent Public Space is a unique cross-disciplinary approach to the study of public space use, and how it is utilized in the contemporary, urban world. Appealing to professionals and students in both urban studies and more social courses, Hou has brought together valuable commentaries on an area of urbanism which has, up until now, been largely ignored.

Contemporary Planning Practice Gavin Parker, Emma Street, 2021-04-22 Planning today is an increasingly complex system of specialisms, and this brand new introduction is the first textbook to offer both a broad overview of each core area in planning, alongside the skills necessary to combine each specialism in order to make sustainable and efficient planning decisions. In so doing, it gives students a unique glimpse into the realities of working in planning today. Planners need knowledge that goes beyond the history of planning decisions in order to reconcile competing demands, from corporate speculative property developers to environmental activists. This new role – aggregating specialisms – is at the forefront of this innovative approach, equipping students with the tools necessary to do planning; which today means being both expert and generalist, specialist and synthesiser. Planners must now act as professional mediators of different (often conflicting or incompatible) interests. Planners are themselves working as specialists, whether that is in heritage, transport, ecology, economic assessment, or design. And this dual role reflects the organisation of this new text, introduced with a wealth of practitioner-informed chapters to enliven and inspire passion for the crucial role of planning. This text is an ideal companion for all practitioners and students of planning and related disciplines – at undergraduate and master's level.

Building Sustainable Communities Mike Raco, 2007-01-10 In 2003 the Labour Government published its ambitious Sustainable Communities Plan. It promised to bring about a 'step change' in the English planning system and a new emphasis on the construction of more balanced, cohesive, and competitive places. This book uses historical and contemporary materials to document the ways in which policy-makers, in different eras, have sought to use state powers and regulations to create better, more balanced, and sustainable communities and citizens. It charts the changes that have taken place in community-building policy frameworks, place imaginations, and core spatial policy initiatives in the UK since 1945. In so doing, it examines the tensions that have emerged within spatial policy over the types of places that should be created and the forms of mobility and fixity required to create them. It also shows that there are significant lessons that can be learnt from the experiences of the past. These can be used to inform contemporary policy debates over issues such as migration, uneven development, key worker housing, and sustainability. The book will be an important text for students and researchers in geography, urban studies, planning, and modern social history. It will also be of interest to practitioners working in central and local government, voluntary organisations, community groups, and those involved in the planning and design of sustainable communities.
