Kommunale Beteiligungsberichterstattung in

NRW Stephan Körner, 2019-09-26 Charakteristisch für eine große Anzahl von Kommunen in der Bundesrepublik Deutschland ist ein hoher Anteil an ausgelagerten Organisationseinheiten. Die oftmals konzernartigen kommunalen Strukturen sind insbesondere für die Bürger, für die politischen Mandatsträger und für die Kernverwaltung mit einem Verlust an Transparenz sowie an Einfluss-, Steuerungs- und Kontrollmöglichkeiten verbunden. Durch die verselbstständigten Aufgabenbereiche entsteht eine Informationsasymmetrie zwischen den genannten Akteuren und den mit der Aufgabenwahrnehmung beauftragten Managern kommunaler Unternehmen. Als das zentrale Element zur Reduzierung der Informationsasymmetrie gilt der kommunale Beteiligungsbericht. Bisherige Studien zur Verfügbarkeit und Qualität von Beteiligungsberichten legen allerdings erhebliche Varianzen und Defizite in der Berichterstattung offen, weshalb nach wie vor enormer Forschungsbedarf auf diesem Gebiet besteht. Hier setzt die vorliegende Arbeit an. Aufgrund der hohen sozialen und politischen Bedeutung sowie eines homogenen Unternehmens- respektive Untersuchungsgegenstandes wird die kommunale Wohnraumversorgung, die mit den Wohnungsgesellschaften zu den Schwerpunktbereichen der kommunalen Auslagerungen zählt, fokussiert. Überdies ist das Land Nordrhein-Westfalen, das bereits über eine langjährige Erfahrung in der Beteiligungsberichterstattung verfügt und sich durch eine hohe Einwohnerzahl und Bevölkerungsdichte auszeichnet, für die Untersuchung besonders geeignet.

Dienstleistungsmanagement in der

Wohnungswirtschaft Peter Fehr, 2013-07-29 Angesichts

veränderter Nachfragerstrukturen und einer wachsenden Bedeutung des Kundenbindungsmanagements wird in der Wohnungswirtschaft diskutiert, über die Vermietung und den Verkauf von Wohnungen hinaus weitere, wohnbegleitende Dienstleistungen abzusetzen. Allerdings bestehen beim einzelnen Wohnungsunternehmen oftmals erhebliche Unsicherheiten bezüglich der grundsätzlichen Erfolgsaussichten, der Definition und Umsetzung eines Serviceangebots. Peter Fehr entwickelt auf Basis der Dienst- und Sekundärleistungstheorie sowie einer umfassenden Nachfrageanalyse ein Konzept für das Management wohnbegleitender Dienstleistungen. Besonderes Merkmal der Dissertation ist die breite empirische Fundierung, zum einen in Form einer Kundenbefragung bei dem größten deutschen Immobilienkonzern, zum anderen durch Experteninterviews in der wohnungswirtschaftlichen Praxis.

Housing Governance in a Time of Financialization

Roman Zwicky, 2021 In recent years, the financialization of housing has become a major challenge to many cities across the globe, not the least because it tends to favor the interests of global finance over the needs of residents. Based on three case studies in the city regions of Zurich, Birmingham and Lyon, the present investigation analyzes the interplay of housing governance and policies over the past 20 years against the backdrop of the financialization of housing.

Fagus Annemarie Jaeggi, 2000-08 The Fagus Shoe-Last factory in Germany, designed by Walter Gropius in 1911, was the first large structure to use a steel frame and a facade almost entirely of glass. This revolutionary technique was a seminal point in modern architecture.

Taste and Power Leora Auslander, 2023-04-28 Louis XIV, regency, rococo, neoclassical, empire, art nouveau, and historicist pastiche: furniture styles march across French history as regimes rise and fall. In this extraordinary social history, Leora Auslander explores the changing meaning of furniture from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth century, revealing how the aesthetics of everyday life were as integral to political events as to economic and social transformations. Enriched by Auslander's experience as a cabinetmaker, this work demonstrates how furniture served to represent and even generate its makers' and consumers' identities.

Rembrandt as Educator JULIUS. LANGBEHN, 2018-11 This seminal work of Volkisch thought from the late 19th century is an early representative of the Conservative Revolution, and offers a subtle and detailed analysis of the North German character during the Wilhelmine Period, arguing for a return to the natural aristocratic ethos as a means to combat the evils of cosmopolitan democratic culture.

History of Urban Planning and Design Mirle Rabinowitz Bussell, 2012-06 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the historical evolution--from antiquity to the present--of the city and the built environment. It considers the forces that influence the city's form and content and explores the wide variety of city designs and built forms that have evolved throughout history.

The German Empire, 1871-1918 Hans-Ulrich Wehler, 1985-03 In the wake of the Fischer Controversy on the origins of World War I there emerged in West Germany a younger generation of historians who took a critical 'revisionist' view of the Bismarckian Empire and began to analyze the political development of the Hohenzollern monarchy against the background of the country's social and economic power structures. Professor Wehler became one of the most prominent exponents of this approach and his structural analysis of the 'Kaiserreich' created a considerable stir when it was first published. It has since, with its incisive and rigorous analysis, become a classic in the field.

Housing Estates in Europe Daniel Baldwin Hess,Tiit

Tammaru, Maarten van Ham, 2018-08-14 This open access book explores the formation and socio-spatial trajectories of large housing estates in Europe. Are these estates clustered or scattered? Which social groups originally had access to residential space in housing estates? What is the size, scale and geography of housing estates, their architectural and built environment composition, services and neighbourhood amenities, and metropolitan connectivity? How do housing estates contribute to the urban mosaic of neighborhoods by ethnic and socio-economic status? What types of policies and planning initiatives have been implemented in order to prevent the social downgrading of housing estates? The collection of chapters in this book addresses these questions from a new perspective previously unexplored in scholarly literature. The social aspects of housing estates are thoroughly investigated (including socio-demographic and economic characteristics of current and past inhabitants; ethnicity and segregation patterns; population dynamics; etc.), and the physical composition of housing estates is described in significant detail (including building materials; building form; architectural and landscape design; built environment characteristics; etc.). This book is timely because the recent global economic crisis and Europe's immigration crisis demand a thorough investigation of the role large housing estates play in poverty and ethnic concentration. Through case studies of housing estates in 14 European centers, the book also identifies policy measures that have been used to address challenges in housing estates throughout Europe.
