Words of Light Eduardo Cadava,2018-06-05 Here Eduardo Cadava demonstrates that Walter Benjamin articulates his conception of history through the language of photography. Focusing on Benjamin's discussions of the flashes and images of history, he argues that the questions raised by this link between photography and history touch on issues that belong to the entire trajectory of his writings: the historical and political consequences of technology, the relation between reproduction and mimesis, images and history, remembering and forgetting, allegory and mourning, and visual and linguistic representation. The book establishes the photographic constellation of motifs and themes around which Benjamin organizes his texts and thereby becomes a lens through which we can begin to view his analysis of the convergence between the new technological media and a revolutionary concept of historical action and understanding. Written in the form of theses--what Cadava calls snapshots in prose--the book memorializes Benjamin's own poetic method of writing. It enacts a mode of conceiving history that is neither linear nor successive, but rather discontinuous--constructed from what Benjamin calls dialectical images. In this way, it not only suggests the essential rapport between the fragmentary form of Benjamin's writing and his effort to write a history of modernity but it also skillfully clarifies the relation between Benjamin and his contemporaries, the relation between fascism and aesthetic ideology. It gives us the most complete picture to date of Benjamin's reflections on history.

Words of Light Padre Pio,2009-02 The world was startled in 2007 by revelations that Mother Teresa of Calcutta's spiritual life was full of serious doubts and personal suffering for nearly 50 years. The other great saint of the last half century - Padre Pio - offers similar revelations of his own in this enlightening collection of short excerpts from his letters. Many books have been written on the life and works of Padre Pio, but Words of Light is not a book about what others think or say about him. Here, he speaks for himself. If you are interested in the complexities and challenges of contemporary faith, you will benefit from these short teachings, counsels, and recollections culled from some of Padre Pio's most personal writings. In these letters I quickly discovered the same states of soul that were described by the great mystics. Padre Pio's own 'dark night' was in no way inferior to that described by John of the Cross, and equally the 'living flame' of his love for God dazzles the reader and allows them to catch a glimpse of another world. - Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, from the Introduction

Names for Light Thirii Myo Kyaw Myint,2021-08-17 Winner of the Graywolf Press Nonfiction Prize, a lyrical meditation on family, place, and inheritance Names for Light traverses time and memory to weigh three generations of a family's history against a painful inheritance of postcolonial violence and racism. In spare, lyric paragraphs framed by white space, Thirii Myo Kyaw Myint explores home, belonging, and identity by revisiting the cities in which her parents and grandparents lived. As she makes inquiries into their stories, she intertwines oral narratives with the official and mythic histories of Myanmar. But while her family's stories move into the present, her own story—that of a writer seeking to understand who she is—moves into the past, until both converge at the end of the book. Born in Myanmar and raised in Bangkok and San Jose, Myint finds that she does not have typical memories of arriving in the United States; instead, she is haunted by what she cannot remember. By the silences lingering around what is spoken. By a chain of deaths in her family line, especially that of her older brother as a child. For Myint, absence is felt as strongly as presence. And, as she comes to understand, naming those absences, finding words for the unsaid, means discovering how those who have come before have shaped her life. Names for Light is a moving chronicle of the passage of time, of the long shadow of colonialism, and of a writer coming into her own as she reckons with her family's legacy.

Words of Light Kenneth Hanson, 2000 This beautiful book of virtues by the author of Kabbalah illuminates the desert disciples for living a more spiritual life, as practiced by the Essenes, scribes of the sacred Scrolls. French fold cover.

Words of Light Linda Adkins, 2013-09 In the Christian's life, spiritual growth comes from a relationship with God. As we draw near to the Father, He will most certainly draw near to us. It is in this nearness that we learn who He is and what He will become in us. His desire for us is that we become sons, and in becoming sons of the living God, we will find ourselves in the secret place where His fullness dwells. Only daily discipline, searching His Word, continual prayer, and thoughts that are stayed on Him will keep us on the pathway that leads to holiness. We have been commanded to love Him with all our heart, have no other gods before Him, and be holy as He is holy.

Filling Words with Light Rabbi Lawrence Kushner, Nehemia Polen, 2011-03-02 Breathe New Life into Your Prayer with the Wisdom of Kabbalah and the Hasidic Masters Jewish mystics teach that every word a person utters in prayer should radiate light. Even the letters of the words of prayer carry sparks of the Divine that yearn to join together in holiness. In this inspiring spiritual companion, Reform rabbi Lawrence Kushner and Orthodox rabbi Nehemia Polen join together to provide a window into the liturgy for people of all backgrounds by offering fresh insights and meditations that bring the traditional prayerbook to life. Drawing from the Torah, Zohar, and ancient and contemporary Hasidic masters, Kushner and Polen reflect on the joy, gratitude, compassion, mystery, and awe embedded in traditional prayers and blessings, and show how you can imbue these familiar sacred words with your own sense of holiness. Insightful, fresh, and wise, Filling Words with Light will enrich your understanding of the prayer book and guide you on how to put more of yourself into the holy words of the Jewish tradition.

The rich mixture of photographs, Zen poems and essays presented on these pages is intended to open our hearts to the wild and the wilderness, and to direct us to the ways in which we can heal the earth. The author is an award-winning photographer and videographer and his art and wildlife photography from the core of a unique teaching programme that integrates art and wilderness training and cultivates an experiential appreciation of the relationship of Zen spirituality to our natural environment.

Difficult Light Tomas Gonzalez, 2020-08-11 Grappling with his son's death, the painter David explores his grief through art and writing, etching out the rippled landscape of his loss. Over twenty years after his son's death, nearly blind and unable to paint, David turns to writing to examine the deep shades of his loss. Despite his acute pain, or perhaps because of it, David observes beauty in the ordinary: in the resemblance of a woman to Egyptian portraits, in the horseshoe crabs that wash up on Coney Island, in the foam gathering behind a ferry propeller; in these moments, González reveals the world through a painter's eyes. From one of Colombia's greatest contemporary novelists, Difficult Light is a formally daring meditation on grief, written in candid, arresting prose.

All the Light We Cannot See Anthony Doerr, 2014-05-06 *NOW A NETFLIX LIMITED SERIES—from producer and director Shawn Levy (Stranger Things) starring Mark Ruffalo, Hugh Laurie, and newcomer Aria Mia Loberti* Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award finalist, the beloved instant New York Times bestseller and New York Times Book Review Top 10 Book about a blind French girl and a German boy whose paths collide in occupied France as both try to survive the devastation of World War II. Marie-Laure lives with her father in Paris near the Museum of Natural History where he works as the master of its thousands of locks. When she is six, Marie-Laure goes blind and her father builds a perfect miniature of their neighborhood so she can memorize it by touch and navigate her way home. When she is twelve, the Nazis occupy Paris, and father and daughter flee to the walled citadel of Saint-Malo, where Marie-Laure's reclusive great uncle lives in a tall house by the sea. With them they carry what might be the museum's most valuable and dangerous jewel. In a mining town in Germany, the orphan Werner grows up with his younger sister, enchanted by a crude radio they find. Werner becomes an expert at building and fixing these crucial new instruments, a talent that wins him a place at a brutal academy for Hitler Youth, then a special assignment to track the Resistance. More and more aware of the human cost of his intelligence, Werner travels through the heart of the war and, finally, into Saint-Malo, where his story and Marie-Laure's converge. Doerr's "stunning sense of physical detail and gorgeous metaphors" (San Francisco Chronicle) are dazzling. Deftly interweaving the lives of Marie-Laure and Werner, he illuminates the ways, against all odds, people try to be good to one another. Ten years in the writing, All the Light We Cannot See is a magnificent, deeply moving novel from a writer "whose sentences never fail to thrill" (Los Angeles Times).

The BOOK of LIGHT Daniel Prok,2021-01-29 It is a great honor and privilege to share this message of Light with you. While staying in Angel Valley near Sedona Arizona, I met a group of women on a retreat who seemed very familiar to me even though I had just met them. One of them, who is now like a sister to me, mentioned that she heard of a book called The Book of Love... by Jesus. Since I love Jesus I said, That sounds amazing! Where can I get that book? She said, I heard the book got destroyed or removed from the Alexandria Library. I asked, So have you read it? She said, No. Then I asked, Do you know where I can get it? She answered, No. But after a few seconds she said, But if you want it you'll find it. At that point, I remember thinking to myself Jesus...I want that book! The following morning, I was in my cabin preparing for the day and I heard a gentle voice in my mind say... The Book of Love... by Jesus the Christ... Channeled by Daniel Prok... My Beloved... It is with great Love that I share these ideas with you... I had a sense that it was a message of great importance so I grabbed my microphone to record it. I closed my eyes, and took deep breaths to clear my mind, and as the words dropped into my mind I spoke the words out loud. It was as though I was reading a speech that was written by Jesus. And forty minutes later the initial message was complete. Then, a few minutes later Chapter 2 started to load into my mind. So, I continued the process and downloaded the full audio of The Book of Love. A few weeks later, back in Sedona, the words of The Book of Light dropped into my mind in a similar way. I spent the next few months putting both books in written form and publishing them so they can be shared with you. Both books are messages from Jesus about the Love and Light of God that are inside of all of us. They are not only inside of us... they ARE us! But how do we know that it's Jesus?, you may ask.I know from the way the messages came into my mind, and then through my Heart and Soul. The warmth of the Loving energy of Jesus is beyond anything I have felt in my human form. Also, the words of these books are so Divinely stated that it is beyond me to come up with something this magnificent! As for you, you will have a knowing as you read the words. Feel them with your Heart and Soul. Feel them with the depths of your Being. You will know. The Book of Light will uplift, empower and charge you to use the Light of God and the Love of God to make your life a masterpiece, and to help create a masterpiece for the collective here on Earth. Thank you to Jesus for sharing this beautiful message so that everyone, everywhere can experience the Light of God and the Love of God in the way that he has. God Bless you all with God's Light! Daniel Prok

Love Is a Radiant Light Hannah Skandar, 2019-03-20 "A man who prays lives out the mystery of existence, and a man who does not pray scarcely exists." Thus writes St. Charbel Makhlouf (1828–1898), a Maronite monk and priest from Lebanon whose reputation for sanctity spread widely during his life, and whose heavenly intercession has worked countless miracles after his death. St. Charbel's homilies and proverbs are reminiscent of the sayings of the Desert Fathers: simple, homespun, and direct, yet shining and profound. This holy monk speaks from a reservoir of silence about the fundamentals of the Faith and targets the temptations facing all Christians today: the flight from suffering, excessive attachment to comforts, pride over accomplishments, complacency, factiousness, substituting talk for action, fear of proclaiming the truth in an age of hostile unbelief. Alert to the reality of spiritual warfare, St. Charbel calls each one of us to hold fast to the Cross, "the center of the universe and the key to heaven," and defy the devil who seeks our ruin. This collection of some of the most beautiful words spoken by St. Charbel is augmented by a short biography that will bring him to the attention of those who have not yet made his acquaintance or profited from his wisdom.
