Armor Bearing Valentine Johnson, 2011-06-06 Friendship is one of the most valuable assets you could have in life. The trust, loyalty, commitment and honesty are only a few of the benefits one can partake of when entering a covenant friendship. It's a place where you can share your heart without reservations, because you know, if there is anyone you can abandon your fears to and be vulnerable around is a friend. Jesus in John 15:15 draws reference to the promotion of a servant, not to a higher level or position of service, but to one of the most honored positions a servant could be promoted to by his master, a place of friendship. In Armor Bearing "An invitation to Intimacy" Minister Johnson highlights how important it is for an armor bearer to have a good understanding of intimacy in relation to the service rendered to a leader. He examines the character and motivation of the armor bearer by asking the question "what is it that qualifies you to armor bear? The answer may surprise you. In this book you will discover such thing as: • God always want to give us a sneak preview of where we are going. • How easy it is for armor bearers to walk in idolatry. • Who is the last line of defense for your leader? • The grace to partake of an anointing without walking the experience.
