Beaver Girl Cassie Premo Steele, 2023-11 If beavers spoke and thought in human language, they'd probably sound a lot like the clever, soulful protagonists of Cassie Premo Steele's charming novel. Beaver Girl is a wonderful contribution to the castor canon that's certain to convert a new wave of Beaver Believers - and a good thing, too, since our semiaquatic brethren need all the supporters they can get! -Ben Goldfarb, Author of the Bestselling Eager: The Surprising, Secret Life of Beavers and Why They Matter Beaver Girl explores a grim climate future through the eyes of both beavers and people. Although our species differ in many ways, Cassie Premo Steele skillfully illustrates what we have in common - a deep longing for safety, family, and to build a brighter future for the next generation. I was particularly happy to find so many tidbits of actual beaver ecology woven into the story. This is a book that I could easily read for fun or assign in one of the science classes I teach as an example of communicating science through story. -Emily Fairfax, Assistant Professor of Geography at the University of Minnesota Both sobering and hopeful, Beaver Girl is a story for our times. As Livia flees climate catastrophe, pandemic tragedy and societal collapse, Chap's compassion and wise teachings offer us all another way of living in this troubled world. -Frances Backhouse, Author of Once They Were Hats: In Search of the Mighty Beaver and Beavers: Radical Rodents and Ecosystem Engineers Beaver Girl is the novel 'beaver believers' have been waiting for. Premo Steele has written an incredibly thoughtful fictionalized account of the relationship between a human and a beaver family that represents beavers' broader positive impacts not only for our degraded yet resilient landscapes, but also for our tender human spirits. -Alison Zak, director of the Human-Beaver Coexistence Fund and author of Wild Asana: Animals, Yoga, and Connecting Our Practice to the Natural World
