Transport Law on Passenger Rights Marko Pavliha, 2021-07-22 Europe and also the rest of the world has experienced a boom in mobility over the last thirty years. In light of the protection of increasing number of consumers - passengers it is almost logical that during the past few decades, international and European transport law has developed almost to revolutionary extent, especially in the field of private aviation (air) law with the introduction of unlimited liability of carriers for death and injury of passengers and commendable sophisticated rights in case of denied boarding, cancellation of flights and long delays. This book will cast light through a critical prism on the most important characteristics of the international transport law, the EU legislation and jurisprudence regarding passenger rights during the carriage by air, sea, rail and road. One of the ideas which, however, needs further research is that the commendable legal solutions and experience of the EU can serve as an excellent framework for a new holistic international convention on passengers rights in all transport modes.

Böses Geld Cornelius Granig, 2021-10-04 Das Internet: ungeahnte Möglichkeiten, beeindruckende Innovationsstätte - und Spielplatz für eine völlig neue Generation von Finanzgeschäften, die schnelles Geld versprechen. Die Kehrseite: die Welt der volatilen Kryptowährungen wie Bitcoin, Ripple, Dogecoin & Co., die die Anleger meist nicht wirklich verstehen; und die undurchsichtige Welt elektronischer Dienstleister wie Wirecard, die zwar begeistern, aber oft große Betrugsmaschinen kaschieren. Cornelius Granig hat als Bankvorstand die Entwicklung der hochgelobten neuen Finanzwelt erlebt und schildert spektakuläre Betrugsfälle wie den Wirecard- und den OneCoin-Skandal, die exemplarisch für böses Geld stehen. Er zeigt, wie Fortschrittsgläubigkeit, Technologievertrauen und die Sehnsucht nach dem schnellen Reichtum zur DNA großer Straftaten gehören, und ruft zu mehr Wachsamkeit gegenüber allzu euphorischen Jubelmeldungen auf, um sich selbst vor dem Absturz zu schützen.

Anti-Discrimination Law in Civil Law Jurisdictions Barbara Havelková, Mathias Möschel, 2019-12-19 This collection of essays explores the evolution of anti-discrimination law in European civil law jurisdictions. Historically, scholarship in this area has focused on the common law, which has also taken the lead in developing the theory and practice of anti-discrimination law. This volume breaks new ground by offering a sustained, critical, legal and socio-legal, comparative look at how anti-discrimination is faring in European civil law environments. While it is true that anti-discrimination law is seen as a foreign transplant in some regions, it does not fare poorly across the board. As shown by the case studies herein, the success of anti-discrimination law is found to vary according to its national context, the actors involved, and the evolution of the particular concept or ground of discrimination in question.

Essential Texts on European Tourism Law Marc Taeymans, 2019-09-19 Travelling is by far a moment to enjoy and to relax. In order to make sure that tourism companies, transportation operators and hotels provide such pleasure to travellers, a very comprehensive set of rules and regulations exists. This volume presents a selection of legislative texts and case law of European and Belgian Tourism Law. It focuses on the law regarding consumers protection, such as air passengers rights and rights of travellers buying travel services. In the first place it serves as a guide for students and scholars of International Tourism & Leisure Law.

Blocking Patents in European Competition Law Angelika S. Murer, 2021-12-03 In practice and jurisprudence in European competition law, it is especially difficult to define the boundaries of patent abuse as an offence. In this thoroughly researched book, the author answers the question of when and how an application for a blocking patent can amount to an abuse of a dominant position under Article 102 TFEU. Drawing on legal literature and European Union (EU) case law, the presentation analyses a constellation of blocking patenting strategies and proposes potential remedies where abuse is involved. With detailed descriptions of the characteristics of potentially abusive and non-abusive behaviour regarding applications for blocking patents, the book provides the following and more: a comprehensive analysis of the case law of the EU courts on the abuse of a dominant position in cases which involve intellectual property rights; insights on how patenting strategies affect competition with a particular focus on the application of blocking patents; an overview of the developments in doctrine and practice which led to the current understanding of the seemingly conflictual goals of competition and intellectual property law; and insights on the difficulties of defining relevant markets and establishing whether an undertaking holds a dominant position. The book illustrates the mechanisms of blocking patenting strategies with examples from the pharmaceutical industry because blocking strategies have particular relevance in applying for patents in that context. A test scheme for analysing the application of a blocking patent under Article 102 TFEU is included. Additionally, the book provides an outlook on the topic of patents and shortages of supply in light of the COVID pandemic. Practitioners and policymakers requiring an understanding of the conceptual framework of the abuse concept within EU competition law and how it relates to patent strategies will welcome this invaluable book. They will not only be able to set the conduct of applying for blocking patents into the Article 102 TFEU context but also have decisive tools to approach questions on the intersection of patent law and competition law in the EU.

Austria International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., 2018-06-29 This paper evaluates the state of fiscal transparency in Austria. Austria has built strong fiscal institutions over the past decade, notably through the budget reforms introduced in 2009 and 2013, which have significantly improved fiscal transparency. Many elements of sound fiscal transparency practices are in place in Austria. Fiscal reports, covering a substantial part of public activities, are published in a frequent and timely manner and include reconciliations between alternative measures of fiscal aggregates. Budgets and forecasts have a clearer medium-term and performance-oriented focus, and are guided by clear fiscal policy objectives, the compliance with which is subject to independent scrutiny. In addition, there is regular, high-quality reporting on the long-term sustainability of public finances.

Labour Law in Cyprus Christina Ioannou, Achilles C. Emilianides, 2019-03-26 Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws, this monograph on Cyprus not only describes and analyses the legal aspects of labour relations, but also examines labour relations practices and developing trends. It provides a survey of the subject that is both usefully brief and sufficiently detailed to answer most questions likely to arise in any pertinent legal setting. Both individual and collective labour relations are covered in ample detail, with attention to such underlying and pervasive factors as employment contracts, suspension of the contracts, dismissal laws and covenant of non-competition, as well as international private law. The author describes all important details of the law governing hours and wages, benefits, intellectual property implications, trade union activity, employers' associations, workers' participation, collective bargaining, industrial disputes, and much more. Building on a clear overview of labour law and labour relations, the book offers practical guidance on which sound preliminary decisions may be based. It will find a ready readership among lawyers representing parties with interests in Cyprus, and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative trends in laws affecting labour and labour relations.

Öffentlicher Personennahverkehr Monique Dorsch, 2019-06-11 Dieses Lehr- und Fallstudienbuch bietet sowohl eine theoretische Einführung in die Thematik ÖPNV als auch 25 Fallstudien mit Lösungen. Im Zentrum der Theorie stehen die strategischen Aktionsfelder der Verkehrsunternehmen und -verbünde sowie die jeweiligen Rahmenbedingungen. Die gewählten Beispiele – überwiegend aus Deutschland und Österreich – weisen durchwegs eine hohe Komplexität auf. Geeignete Instrumente zur Analyse und Lösung solcher Problemstellungen bietet die Methodik des vernetzten Denkens. Daher erläutert die Autorin zudem die Anwendung der diesbezüglichen Instrumente. Zu jeder Fallstudie wird ein Lösungsvorschlag angeboten. Ein Vorteil dieses Buches ist, dass die Fragestellungen zu den einzelnen Fällen je nach Interesse und Schwerpunktsetzung auch variiert werden können, was die Fälle universeller einsetzbar bzw. anwendbar macht.

International Investment Law and the Global Financial Architecture Christian J. Tams, Stephan W. Schill, Rainer Hofmann, 2017-02-24 This book explores whether investment law should protect against such regulatory measures, including where these have the support of multilateral institutions. It considers where the line should be drawn between legitimate regulation and undue interference with investor rights and, equally importantly, who draws it.

EU Anti-Discrimination Law Beyond Gender Uladzislau Belavusau, Kristin Henrard, 2018-11-15 The EU has slowly but surely developed a solid body of equality law that prohibits different facets of discrimination. While the Union had initially developed anti-discrimination norms that served only the commercial rationale of the common market, focusing on nationality (of a Member State) and gender as protected grounds, the Treaty of Amsterdam (1997) supplied five additional prohibited grounds of discrimination to the EU legislative palette, in line with a much broader egalitarian rationale. In 2000, two EU Equality Directives followed, one focusing on race and ethnic origin, the other covering the remaining four grounds introduced by the Treaty of Amsterdam, namely religion, sexual orientation, disabilities and age. Eighteen years after the adoption of the watershed Equality Directives, it seems timely to dedicate a book to their limits and prospects, to look at the progress made, and to revisit the rise of EU anti-discrimination law beyond gender. This volume sets out to capture the striking developments and shortcomings that have taken place in the interpretation of relevant EU secondary law. Firstly, the book unfolds an up-to-date systematic reappraisal of the five 'newer' grounds of discrimination, which have so far received mostly fragmented coverage. Secondly, and more generally, the volume captures how and to what extent the Equality Directives have enabled or, at times, prevented the Court of Justice of the European Union from developing even broader and more refined anti-discrimination jurisprudence. Thus, the book offers a glimpse into the past, present and - it is hoped - future of EU anti-discrimination law as, despite all the flaws in the Union's 'Garden of Earthly Delights', it offers one of the highest standards of protection in comparative anti-discrimination law.

Revisiting Judicial Politics in the European Union Mark Dawson, Bruno de Witte, Elise Muir, 2024-03-14 Addressing the tensions between the political and the legal dimension of European integration as well as intra-institutional dynamics, this insightful book navigates the complex topic of judicial politics. Providing an overview of key topics in the current debate and including an introductory chapter on different conceptions of judicial politics, experts in law and politics interrogate the broader political role of the European Court of Justice.

EU Law Paul Craig, Gráinne De Búrca, 2015 This work provides a clear and insightful analysis of European law accompanied by carefully chosen extracts from a range of materials.

Challenges of Active Ageing Simonetta Manfredi, Lucy Vickers, 2016-07-30 This edited collection takes a multi-disciplinary approach to the 'Active Ageing' agenda to enable readers to consider the implications of this phenomenon for the law, the workplace, and for working lives from a holistic perspective. Challenges of Active Ageing brings together academics working throughout Europe from different disciplines including law, industrial relations, human resource management and occupational psychology to explore and debate the challenges of the 'Active Ageing' agenda for equality law and management practice. Also including shorter contributions from law, human resource management, trade union and other practitioners, this book aims to fully reflect how organizations can adjust their practices to respond to the challenge of an aging population and extended working lives.
