Challenges for Governance Structures in Urban and Regional Development / Fragen zur Steuerung von Stadt-, Land- und Regionalentwicklung Erwin Hepperle,Robert Dixon-Gough,Reinfried Mansberger,Jenny Paulsson,Franz Reuter,Meltem Yilmaz,2015-02-03 The governance structures in urban and regional development have undergone processes of transformation since the medieval period, resulting in them becoming increasingly decentralised, diversified, and centred about middle-class values. An essential part was played by the initial concepts of land ownership and planned land use. These were then complemented by additional items from land taxation to the concepts that began to evolve during the 20th century, including diverse elements such as land economics and social responsibility. This volume concentrates on a diverse range of topics centering on the relationships between governance and the organization of entities within both urban and rural areas. The essays indicate that the development of systems of governance runs parallel to and reflects the indelible print humankind has made upon all forms of landscape. Over time various forms of governance evolved, but in the course of the last century they also became more accountable. Together this resulted in a continual process of evolving boundaries and territories, of political changes, and of the subsequent divisions between urban and rural areas as well as urban subdivisions. In addition to this complex mixture of land and spatial planning issues, we are faced today with rapidly changing demographic profiles across all of Europe – and not the least with the emerging awareness of how social responsibilities impact this issue. Even though this volume cannot provide all the answers to the many complex problems, together the essays present a stimulating, interdisciplinary approach that challenges conventional thoughts in European land and spatial planning.

Sustainability Dr. Kabila Hmood, 2019-07-03

Urban and Architectural Heritage within Sustainability is interested in the cities of the future, which must tie together the past, present, and future through an advanced connective chain that meets all humans' requirements in any era. 21.Uluslararası Kamu Yönetimi Formu Tam Metinler Kitabı

Murat ERCAN,2022-09-19

Belediye Hizmetleri ve Seçmen Davranışı Asmin Kavas Bilgiç,2020-03-05 Yerel yönetimler, bilindiği gibi, bir yandan yurttaşa en yakın birimler olarak yerel ortak nitelikli kamu hizmetlerini sunarken, öte yandan yerel düzeyde iktidar savaşımı veren siyasal birimlerdir. Bu nedenle, sundukları hizmetlerin nicelik ve niteliği ile yerel seçimlerde tekrar yönetime gelebilmeleri arasında bir ilişki olup olmadığı sorusu haklı olarak akıllara gelmektedir. Dünyada ve Türkiye'de kentsel nüfusun giderek artması kent yönetimleri olan belediyeleri ön plana çıkarmaktadır. Belediyeler tarafından sunulan belediye hizmetlerinin seçmenin oy verme davranışı üzerindeki etkisinin araştırılması, belediye hizmetlerinin seçmen davranışını belirlemedeki yeri, önemi ve boyutlarının araştırılması önem taşımaktadır. Belediye hizmetleri dışında, yerel seçimlerde adayların sahip olduğu kimi özelliklerin (İzikselsel, kişisel, eğitim, iletişim becerisi, ideoloji hemşerilik gibi), seçim vaatlerine yansıyan ve adayların seçmen tercihini etkilemeye yönelik projeleri de elbette seçmen tercihlerinde etkili olan yerel koşullardandır. Asmin Kavas Bilgiç, Belediye Hizmetleri ve Seçmen Davranışı başlıklı bu Kitabında, belediye hizmetleri ile seçmen davranışı ilişkisini, bu hizmetleri sunan ilçe belediye ve büyükşehir belediye başkanlığı seçimleri bağlamında tartışmaktadır. Ankara Büyükşehir Belediyesi'nin Altındağ ve Yenimahalle İlçe Belediyeleri örneklerinde söz konusu tartışmanın somutlaştırılması, Kitabı daha da değerli kılmaktadır. Altındağ ve Yenimahalle İlçelerinin yerel ve genel seçim sonuçlarının analizlerine, seçmen eğilimlerine ve parti tercihlerine yer verilmesi, özellikle son dönemlerde güncel ve tartışmaya açık olan belediye hizmetlerinin, seçmenin oy tercihlerindeki yeri ve önemi üzerinde yapılan sınırlı sayıdaki araştırmalara önemli bir katkıda bulunmaktadır.

system for algae breeding, were widely analyzed. Problem of emissivity of NO_x from engines fueled by B20 fuel was characterized. The closing chapters deal with the assessment of the potential of biofuels in Turkey, the components of refinery systems for production of biodegradable plastics from biomass. The Ottoman Empire in the Tanzimat Era Yonca Köksal, 2019-02-15 The Ottoman Empire in the Tanzimat Era generates a new history of the Ottoman Empire's Tanzimat reforms in the provinces of Edirne and Ankara. It studies variation across the two provinces and the crucial role of local intermediaries such as notables, tribal leaders, and merchants. The book provides insights into how states and societies transform each other in the most difficult of times using qualitative and quantitative social network analysis and deep research in the Ottoman and British archives to understand the Tanzimat as a process of negotiation and transformation between the state and local actors. The author argues that the same reform policies produced different results in Edirne and Ankara. The book explains how factors such as socioeconomic conditions and historical developments played a role in shaping local networks. The Ottoman Empire in the Tanzimat Era invites readers to rethink taken-for-granted concepts such as centralization, decentralization, state control, and imperial decay. It will be of interest to scholars and students interested in Middle Eastern and Balkan studies, and historical and political sociology.

Transforming Socio-Natures in Turkey Onur İnal, Ethemcan Turhan, 2019-07-09 This book is an exploration of the environmental makings and contested historical trajectories of environmental change in Turkey. Despite the recent proliferation of studies on the political economy of environmental change and urban transformation, until now there has not been a sufficiently complete treatment of Turkey's troubled environments, which live on the edge both geographically (between Europe and Middle East) and politically (between democracy and totalitarianism). The contributors to Transforming Socio-Natures in Turkey use the toolbox of environmental humanities to explore the main political, cultural and historical factors relating to the country's socio-environmental problems. This leads not only to a better grounding of some of the historical and contemporary debates on the environment in Turkey, but also a deeper understanding of the multiplicity of framings around more-than-human interactions in the country in a time of authoritarian populism. This book will be of interest not only to students of Turkey from a variety of social science and humanities disciplines but also contribute to the larger debates on environmental change and developmentalism in the context of a global populist turn.

Women and Public Space in Turkey Selda

Tuncer, 2018-06-21 Turkey's process of 'modernization' developed rapidly during the second half of the twentieth century. New social and legal reforms were institutionalized and political and economic changes located the country as a more liberated, 'Western-style' society. Women and Public Space in Turkey provides a historical understanding of women's experiences of this modernization between 1950 and 1980, a vital period in which their participation in urban public life expanded through higher education and employment. Selda Tuncer examines the precise conditions that enabled women to leave the home and reveals how they perceived and experienced urban public space and social relations. Drawing on interviews with two generations of women from Ankara, and using personal family photographs, the book provides invaluable insights into women in a predominantly Muslim society who are living in a highly secular social context. Tuncer specifically focuses on women's everyday experiences and discusses how the relationship between women and public space was actually controlled and regulated by different notions of 'domestication', especially in the micro-politics of daily life. The book sheds new light on the gendered processes of nation-building, socio-cultural transformations, and the crucial connections between gender, modernity and the urban experience in a non-Western context.
