Digital Sociologies Daniels, Jessie, Gregory, Karen, Tressie McMillan Cottom, 2017 This handbook offers a much-needed overview of the rapidly growing field of digital sociology. Rooted in a critical understanding of inequality as foundational to digital sociology, it connects digital media technologies to traditional areas of study in sociology, such as labor, culture, education, race, class, and gender. It covers a wide variety of topics, including web analytics, wearable technologies, social media analysis, and digital labor. The result is a benchmark volume that places the digital squarely at the forefront of contemporary investigations of the social.

Someone Is Hiding Something Richard Belzer, George Noory, David Wayne, 2015-02-17 A year after the disappearance and commencement of the international search for Malaysia Airlines Flight 370, no sign of the plane has been found—no debris, no bodies, no sign of the much-talked-about black box. Richard Belzer, George Noory, and David Wayne want to know why. Scrutinizing the theories the media and politicians claim are the “most likely” reasons the plane crashed, Belzer, Noory, and Wayne argue that if a year after a huge Boeing 777 has gone missing, and there’s still no sign of it whatsoever, it’s time to think outside the box. The public needs to stop being misled. If a plane and its passengers went missing once, what's to stop it from happening again? Some of the theories the authors consider seem implausible on the surface, but the thorough research they've done and the continual failure of politicians, aviation authorities, and military members around the world to give any indication they're wrong makes their arguments as good—if not better—than the more widely shared ones. The title of this thought-provoking volume, Someone is Hiding Something, is a line spoken by former Malaysian Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad—perhaps the only government official to publicly acknowledge the true reason that neither Flight 370 nor the 239 people onboard have been found.

HIV in World Cultures Dr Gustavo

Subero, 2013-12-28 This book analyses the way that HIV/AIDS is often narrativised and represented in contemporary world cultures, as well as the different strategies of remembrance deployed by different (sub)cultural groups affected by the illness. Through a close study of a variety of cultural texts; including cinema, literature, theatre, art and photography amongst others, it demonstrates the trajectory that such narratives and representations have undergone since the advent of the 'discovery' of the disease in the 1980s. Acknowledging the central - yet often overlooked - role that cultural products have played in the construction of public opinion towards the condition itself and those who suffer it, this ground-breaking volume focuses on a variety of narratives, as well as strategies of coping with HIV/AIDS that have emerged across the globe. Bringing together research on the UK, North and South America, Africa and China, it provides rich textual analyses of the ways in which the HIV positive body has been portrayed in contemporary culture, with attention to the differences between specific national contexts, whilst keeping in view a space of commonality amongst the different experiences reflected in such texts. As such, it will be of interest to social scientists and scholars of cultural and media studies, concerned with cultural production and representations of the body and sickness.

Spletna besedila in jezik na spletu Mija Michelizza, 2014-09-01 Cilj znanstvene monografije je čim celovitejši pregled nad tematiko spletnih besedil, čeprav je osrednja obravnava namenjena besedilom blogov in Wikipedije, pri čemer je, kot se izkaže, nujna umestitev v širši okvir elektronskih besedil. V prvem poglavju so predstavljene okoliščine nastanka spleta ter njegova opredelitev v razmerju do interneta in drugih elektronskih medijev. V drugem poglavju sta predstavljena korpus in slovar v povezavi s spletom, predvsem glede na to, kaj so spletni korpusi, kakšno vlogo prevzemajo danes spletni iskalniki, ter glede na rabo spleta v slovaropisju. Tretji, najobsežnejši del pričujoče monografije obsega podrobnejšo analizo jezika in besedil, predvsem izbranega gradiva z blogov in Wikipedije. _ _ _ _ _ The goal of the monograph ('Web texts and language on the Web (the case of blogs and Wikipedia in the Slovenian language)') entitled Web texts and language on the Web (the case of blogs and Wikipedia in the Slovenian language) is to give an overview, as complete as possible, of the topic of web texts, although its main part is limited to blog and Wikipedia texts, where, as it turns out, there is a need for placing the topic into a broader context of electronic texts. The first chapter treats the circumstances of the formation of the Web and its definition in relation to the Internet and other electronic media. In the second chapter, corpus and dictionary are presented in relation to the Web, especially in terms of web corpora, the current role of web search engines is discussed, as well as the use of the Web in lexicography. The third and the largest part of the monograph includes a detailed analysis of Slovenian language and texts, especially of the selected material obtained from blogs and Wikipedia.

Alguém Está a Esconder Alguma Coisa Richard Belzer, George Noory, David Wayne, 2015-07-01 Este é um daqueles casos em que a realidade ultrapassa a ficção. No dia 8 de março de 2014, um avião da Malaysia Airlines, com 239 pessoas a bordo, desapareceu durante um voo entre Kuala Lumpur e Pequim. O Boeing 777 nunca chegou ao destino. Porque? Caiu? Onde? Ninguém sabe. Ou, se sabe, não diz. Sucederam-se as teorias acerca do que teria acontecido, mas cada uma delas levantava ainda mais questões. O avião caiu no mar - então e não há destroços? Foi abatido por um míssil - e ninguém deu por nada? Houve uma emergência e os sistemas de comunicação falharam - e falharam todos, ao mesmo tempo? Num mundo cada vez mais monitorizado, em que é difícil a um simples cidadão passar despercebido, um avião destes desaparece dos ecrãs do radar e ninguém no planeta sabe nada acerca do assunto? A única coisa que se sabe e que ja passou muito tempo e todas as perguntas continuam sem resposta. A comecar pela mais desconcertante: onde esta o avi?o? Este livro e sobre tudo aquilo que n?o bate certo nesta historia.

Science of Parenthood Norine Dworkin-

McDaniel,Jessica Ziegler,2015-11-17 Based on Norine Dworkin-McDaniel and Jessica Ziegler's popular illustrated humor blog, Science of Parenthood: Thoroughly Unscientific Explanations for Utterly Baffling Parenting Situations takes the duo's mix of high-brow science and low-brow humor to a whole new level. Using their trademark brand of quirky, witty humor, and bolstered by their signature cartoons, Dworkin-McDaniel and Ziegler dig deep into the core sciences—biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics—to help moms and dads everywhere solve for “y.” As in, “Y” is my child doing that . . . that . . . THING? And please, dear lord, is there a way to make them stop!? Anyone who's ever wondered why the kid who plays Minecraft for hours can't sit still for ten damn minutes to finish a math worksheet; who's marveled at how their toddler always picks the most inopportune moment to poop; or who's despaired of ever showering, sleeping, or finding a moment's peace again will find this book a hilarious, enlightening, and relatable read.

Buffalo Bill, Boozers, Brothels, and Bare-Knuckle Brawlers Kellen Cutsforth,2015-11-01 The travel journal of the wealthy young Englishman, Evelyn Booth, weaves a factual, enthralling, and entertaining narrative that follows his escapades throughout the United States of the late nineteenth century. Transcribed and edited (with relevant commentary for contemporary audiences) by Kellen Cutsworth, Booth's journal reveals his career as a young care-free "frat boy" with unlimited funds, gives first-hand accounts that involve drunken nights, fist fights, illicit sex with prostitutes, sporting events, and full-blown adventures with the most well-known celebrities of the day, including encounters with famous scout and showman William Frederick 'Buffalo Bill' Cody and the Wild West Cowboys; bare knuckled world champions John L. Sullivan and Jack "Nonpareil" Dempsey; Fred Archer, the most famous horse jockey of the day, and prostitutes, gamblers, and infamous houses.

The Wire in the College Classroom Karen Dillon, Naomi Crummey, 2015-03-18 The Wire's provocative subject matter, layered narrative and explicit critiques of American socio-economic institutions make it one of the most teachable television series in recent years. This collection of new essays offers practical examples for implementing The Wire in the college classroom as a cultural text to engage students in critical and creative inquiry. The essays provide a disciplinary framework for using the series in media studies, writing and narrative, ethics and rhetoric, and education and literacy. Each essay details the pedagogical goals of teaching the series or specific episodes, how it was employed in class and student responses to the material. International Governance and Regimes Peter Kien Hong Yu,2012-08-21 This book examines China's involvement in international governance, international regimes, and globalization. Peter Kien-hong Yu offers a new framework with which to understand 'international regimes' and applies it to important Chinese case studies such as arms control, disarmament, and non-proliferation; the counter-piracy regime and the environmental issue. Whilst internationally important matters related to such systems are identified, Yu's discussions attempt to find out whether any particular system works better in relation to China, and asks if not, why not? After examining eight different cases, the author concludes that these regimes are working but there is ample room for improvement and that the Chinese (Communists) for one have to enhance their understanding of international governance and try to export their experience to other parts of the world. International Governance and Regimes will be appeal to anyone interested in
