Charles Gavan Sir Duffy

Management Philosophy Ole F. Kirkeby,2000-03-15 This book opens a new field within business science: management philosophy. It presents an uncompromising picture of the real leader through a set of leadership virtues, focusing on human duties, not on human rights. The book demonstrates that only through philosophy it is possible to establish a genuine science of management, overcoming the pressures of functionalism, opportunism and pragmatism, inherent in the hyper-modern corporation shaped by high-tech and information advantages.

The Cyclopaedia of Anatomy and Physiology Todd,1847

The Poseidonian Chora Mikels Skele,2002 In the sixth century BC the Greeks established the city of Poseidonia in the Sele Plain of Campania, Italy, in the area settled by an indigenous Italic population. Mikels Skele presents evidence from the Capodifiume survey of the region which provides insights into the nature of the interaction between indigenous and colonising populations.

The Icon of Saint Peter Stavros Mihalarias,1983

Soft Rupert Thomson,1998 When the new orange soft drink hits the streets, it triggers a series of events that Jimmy Lyle could not have anticipated. He never dreamed it would plunge him into the twilight world of synchronised swimming. Nor did he think it would end in murder.

Urban Flotsam Raoul Bunschoten,Hélène Binet,Takuro Hoshino,Chora,2001 The manner in which global trends affect cities and increase instability is like letting a rising river loose on a house. Global trends create urban flotsam that forms a second skin of the earth. How is this visible and how can it be useful in urban planning? This book answers questions through examples. It contains a manifesto for a general debate of issues, a poetic setting of the theme of the second skin and case studies undertaken in urban situations. With splendid photographs and magnificent conceptual maps and diagrams, the book balances between urban theory, urban pedagogy and urban poetry.
