Franklin D. Cleckley, Robin Jean Davis, Louis
J. Palmer, Jr

DirectTV, Inc., Plaintiff-appellant V. Hoa Huynh, Defendant-appellee Hoa Huynh, 2005 Federal law makes it illegal to intercept satellite TV signals without authorization and also bans modifying or assembling interception tools for sale or distribution. In this case before the Ninth Circuit, DirectTV claims that it can sue individuals for both interception of its signal and modification of receiving equipment in cases where altered smart cards are simply inserted into standard television equipment. DirectTV claims that inserting a smart card into preexisting television equipment constitutes assembling a pirate device. The amicus brief claims that DirectTV is overreaching and also points out that legitimate security researchers would be threatened under the proposed misreading of the law. A lower court has already ruled that DirectTV cannot sue on this theory and dismissed DirectTV's attempt to double-dip by punishing individuals twice for a single offense. Brief supports a lower court decision that 47 U.S.C., section 605(e)(4) does not apply to individuals who used interception devices solely for personal use.

Litigation Handbook on West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure - Fourth Edition Franklin D. Cleckley, Robin Jean Davis, Louis J. Palmer, Jr., 2015-01-01 January 2015 Cumulative Pocket Part The Litigation Handbook On West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure - Fourth Edition provides a meaningful and thorough starting point for any practitioner seeking a fundamental understanding of the application of the West Virginia rules of civil procedure. For ease and convenience, the material in this new Handbook has been organized to correspond with actual rule citations. For example, § 12(b)(6) of the Handbook corresponds with Rule 12(b)(6) of the rules of civil procedure. Therefore, if a practitioner knows the particular rule citation under consideration, he or she need only find the corresponding section citation in this Handbook for a discussion of the particular rule. The Fourth Edition cites per curiam opinions issued by the state Supreme Court and also provides federal case law construing the federal rules of civil procedure. As the practitioner knows, West Virginia's rules of civil procedure are patterned after the federal rules. With this knowledge in mind, the Handbook offers as persuasive authority federal decisions construing the federal rules. As a practical matter, the Handbook limits its use of federal case law to areas that the state Supreme Court has not issued controlling opinions upon. This Handbook is an invaluable tool for both the bench and bar. Order Litigation Handbook on West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure Fourth Edition for your office today!
