The Boston Consulting Group on Strategy Carl W. Stern, Michael S. Deimler, 2012-06-14 A collection of the best thinking from one of the most innovative management consulting firms in the world For more than forty years, The Boston Consulting Group has been shaping strategic thinking in business. The Boston Consulting Group on Strategy offers a broad and up-to-date selection of the firm's best ideas on strategy with fresh ideas, insights, and practical lessons for managers, executives, and entrepreneurs in every industry. Here's a sampling of the provocative thinking you'll find inside: You have to be the scientist of your own life and be astonished four times: at what is, what always has been, what once was, and what could be. The majority of products in most companies are cash traps [They] are not only worthless, but a perpetual drain on corporate resources. Use more debt than your competition or get out of the business. When information flows freely, reputation, more than reciprocity, becomes the basis for trust. As a strategic weapon, time is the equivalent of money, productivity, quality, even innovation. When brands become business systems, brand management becomes far too important to leave to the marketing department. The winning organization of the future will look more like a collection of jazz ensembles than a symphony orchestra. Most of our organizations today derive from a model whose original purpose was to control creativity. Rather than being an obstacle, uncertainty is the very engine of transformation in a business, a continuous source of new opportunities. IP assets lack clear property lines. Every bit of intellectual property you can own comes with connections to other valuable innovations.

of the Year 2019 Based on an in-depth analysis of over 2,600 leaders drawn from a database of more than 17,000 CEOs and C-suite executives, as well 13,000 hours of interviews, and two decades of experience advising CEOs and executive boards, Elena L. Botelho and Kim R. Powell overturn the myths about what it takes to get to the top and succeed. Their groundbreaking research was the featured cover story in the May-June 2017 issue of Harvard Business Review. It reveals the common attributes and counterintuitive choices that set apart successful CEOs—lessons that we can apply to our own careers. Much of what we hear about who gets to the top, and how, is wrong. Those who become chief executives set their sights on the C-suite at an early age. In fact, over 70 percent of the CEOs didn't have designs on the corner office until later in their careers. You must graduate from an elite college. In fact, only 7 percent of CEOs in the dataset are Ivy League graduates--and 8 percent didn't graduate from college at all. To become a CEO you need a flawless résumé. The reality: 45 percent of CEO candidates had at least one major career blowup. What those who reach the top do share are four key behaviors that anyone can master: they are decisive; they are reliable, delivering what they promised when the promise it, without exception; they adapt boldly, and they engage with stakeholders without shying away from conflict. Based on this breakthrough study of the most successful people in business, Botelho and Powell offer career advice for everyone who aspires to get ahead. Based on research insights illustrated by real life stories from CEOs and boardrooms, they tell us how to: - Fast-track our career by deploying the career catapults used by those who get to the top quickly - Overcome the hidden handicaps to getting the job we want. - Avoid the 5 hazards that most commonly derail those promoted into a new role. For everyone who aspires to rise up through the organization and achieve their full potential, The CEO Next Door is an essential guide.

Pathways Google,2022-04-20 For decades, we at Google have poked and prodded at the notion of work: who does it, where it happens, and how we encircle it within an environment where everyone has the tools they need to be successful. When we moved into our Silicon Valley campus back in 2003, just five years after our founding, we wanted to shake the stuffy, rigid workplace environment that had become the norm for corporate headquarters. We designed airy, o-pen offices with bright colors and playful elements, where Googlers were invited to bring their dogs, collaborate in the open, and enjoy amenities that made the workday not just bearable, but enjoyable. The latest additions to our headquarters – Bay View and Charleston East – celebrate innovation, nature and community. Explore the stories behind our new buildings. You'll hear from the people who brought the project to life, and learn about innovative solutions.

Opening Doors to Teamwork & Collaboration Judith H. Katz,Frederick A. Miller,2013-03-11 “Four simple but powerful keys that will help you and your colleagues knock down barriers and create a winning team.” –Ken Blanchard, coauthor of The One Minute Manager® Your people might be your organization’s greatest assets, but it’s their interactions with one another that determine the quality and the quantity of their contributions—and few organizations know how to generate the sense of excitement, energy, and shared mission that occurs when people truly join together. This book shows how, describing four simple behavioral keys that fundamentally change how people work together—building greater trust, understanding, and collaboration. “This book is filled with wonderful common sense; alas, uncommonly practiced. Anyone who wants to improve their own communication and their team’s collaboration skills cannot come away untouched.” –Beverly Kaye, Founder and Co-CEO, Career Systems International and coauthor of Help Them Grow or Watch Them Go “This book is a laser beam on what makes work and all other relationships work. It declares that face-to-face relationships, not technology, not clear objectives, vision and metrics, are what make organizations adaptive and sustainable.” –Peter Block, author of Flawless Consulting

Lords of Strategy Walter Kiechel,2010-03-03 Imagine, if you can, the world of business - without corporate strategy. Remarkably, fifty years ago that's the way it was. Businesses made plans, certainly, but without understanding the underlying dynamics of competition, costs, and customers. It was like trying to design a large-scale engineering project without knowing the laws of physics. But in the 1960s, four mavericks and their posses instigated a profound shift in thinking that turbocharged business as never before, with implications far beyond what even they imagined. In The Lords of Strategy, renowned business journalist and editor Walter Kiechel tells, for the first time, the story of the four men who invented corporate strategy as we know it and set in motion the modern, multibillion-dollar consulting industry: Bruce Henderson, founder of Boston Consulting Group Bill Bain, creator of Bain & Company Fred Gluck, longtime Managing Director of McKinsey & Company Michael Porter, Harvard Business School professor Providing a window into how to think about strategy today, Kiechel tells their story with novelistic flair. At times inspiring, at times nearly terrifying, this book is a revealing account of how these iconoclasts and the organizations they led revolutionized the way we think about business, changed the very soul of the corporation, and transformed the way we work.

Architecture in Detail II Graham Bizley, 2010 Presents 40 detailed studies of some of the most innovative buildings of recent years. Intricate 3-dimensional cut-away drawings explain in a clear and engaging way the construction of each building, illuminated by photographs, a brief description, and comprehensive notes. Focusing on issues such as low-carbon construction, prefabrication and craft, the projects have been chosen for their use of innovative construction techniques.

This 188-page publication covers finance, gas and power, oil and exploration, industry, IT and telecoms, transport, construction, real estate, agriculture, health, entertainment, and tourism.
