Nothing Personal Nancy Jo Sales, 2021-05-18 A raw and funny memoir about sex, dating, and relationships in the digital age, intertwined with a brilliant investigation into the challenges to love and intimacy wrought by dating apps, by firebrand New York Times–bestselling author Nancy Jo Sales At forty-nine, famed Vanity Fair writer Nancy Jo Sales was nursing a broken heart and wondering, “How did I wind up alone?” On the advice of a young friend, she downloaded Tinder, then a brand-new dating app. What followed was a raucous ride through the world of online dating. Sales, an award-winning journalist and single mom, became a leading critic of the online dating industry, reporting and writing articles and making her directorial debut with the HBO documentary Swiped: Hooking Up in the Digital Age. Meanwhile, she was dating a series of younger men, eventually falling in love with a man less than half her age. Nothing Personal is Sales’s memoir of coming-of-middle-age in the midst of a new dating revolution. She is unsparingly honest about her own experience of addiction to dating apps and hilarious in her musings about dick pics, sexting, dating FOMO, and more. Does Big Dating really want us to find love, she asks, or just keep on using its apps? Fiercely feminist, Nothing Personal investigates how Big Dating has overwhelmed the landscape of dating, cynically profiting off its users’ deepest needs and desires. Looking back through the history of modern courtship and her own relationships, Sales examines how sexism has always been a factor for women in dating, and asks what the future of courtship will bring, if left to the designs of Silicon Valley’s tech giants—especially in a time of social distancing and a global pandemic, when the rules of romance are once again changing.

Message with Purpose Michael Boothby, 2019-10-12 On the surface, Message with Purpose is a how-to guide to Tinder and other swipe dating apps. On a deeper level, it's a guide on how to be more expressive, open, and authentic in your communication both online and off. Michael combines his personal dating experiences as well as his knowledge of improvisational theater, stand-up comedy, and working in sales to provide readers with a clear model to follow for more successful (and fun) dates. The book covers everything from... * How to write your profile * How to swipe * How to send the first message * How to carry a conversation * When to ask for the date * How to ask for the date * How to act on your date (to improve your chances of getting another) He also goes where few other dating books have gone before, covering the intangibles like... * What happens if the date totally sucks? * What do you do if you've been ghosted? * What if you're burnt out from online dating? Ultimately, Michael seeks to resolve the question of how can we not lose face-to-face interaction through a screen? How can we not only keep our humanity through seemingly dehumanizing technology, but elevate our lives and relationships through it?
