The Ayatollah Takedown Matt Scott, In 1979, the Islamic Revolution gave birth to a new beginning for Iran. But every beginning has an ending... ..And every ending has a new beginning. The Supreme Leader of Iran, Marzban Shir-Del, is desperate. After discovering that Iran started a war between India and Pakistan for national gain, the international community places the toughest economic sanctions on them to date. Thinking that an oil deal with China will shield them from their enemies, Shir-Del turns to General Secretary Zhang Xu for assistance, but he wants more than Shir-Del is willing to give. Unbeknownst to the Supreme Leader, chief commander of the Revolutionary Guard, Ramin Lajani, is conspiring with CIA operatives Ben Thrasher and Beth Jenkins to overthrow him. With the 1953 CIA coup never far from Iranians' minds, the task is daunting. With Tom Delang acting as a conduit between themselves and the U.S. government, Thrasher and Jenkins must secure the necessary funds from an old nemesis, Vivian Walsh, keep Israel from interfering with their mission, effectively utilize insiders Farhad and Donya, and coordinate with Lajani, without being detected. But Lajani isn't as beloved as he thinks. Basiij General Mohammad Nassiri has been suspicious of him for years. Will Lajani accomplish the impossible or will Nassiri discover his motives before it's too late, allowing the Supreme Leader to make one last stand?

"Straw To Show the Wind"-1 Dr. (Er.) Parimita, 2020-12-07 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my loving eye on you" (Psalm 32:8) "But God hath chosen the foolish of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak of the world to confound the mighty" (1 Corinthians 1:26-31) First and foremost I earnestly praise the Almighty GOD the most gracious and merciful who enabled me to complete this book. The beatitude and euphoria that accompanies successful completion of any task would be incomplete without expression of simple certitude to the people who made it possible to achieve the goal by their encouraging guidance and proper steering. It is still great at this juncture to recall all the faces and spirit in the form of teachers, friends, near and dear ones. Foremost I wish to express my plethora of thanks to my Godfather and our Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Most Rev (Prof) Dr. R.B.Lal for providing me an opportunity to work in the admirable intellectual atmosphere of SHUATS, Prayagraaj U.P. India. I cannot but consider myself lucky or fortunate to have taught knowledge hungry and ever helpful students under my guidance. They lend a hand to me throughout the period of writing this reference book. My diction doesn't seem too rich enough to provide suitable words to articulate my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to my husband who is my friend, philosopher, guide Mr. Manoj Khatri, who has given sound and fruitful advices, immense support also being a constant encouragement throughout my life and venture of this study despite the significant changes it involved in our lives, for which I am greatly indebted to him, as without his everlasting love I would not have come up to this level. I would also like to thank my daughters, Rechal and Sarah, for their boundless love, understanding and encouragement to finish this book. One last word; since it is practically impossible to list all contribution to my work it seems proper to issue a blanket of viii thanks for those who helped me directly and indirectly during the course of study and writing.

21st Century Leadership Melvin B. Greer Jr., 2013-12 It's time to incorporate cutting-edge technologies to enhance your leadership skills and inspire future innovators. Melvin Greer, the founder and managing director of the Greer Institute for Leadership and Innovation in Washington, D.C., takes a fresh look at how to fill the leadership gap in this guidebook to leadership. He demonstrates ways to - rethink assumptions and myths about innovation; - develop leadership habits that lead to high performance; - develop a successful workforce and talent management strategy; and - create a modern innovation pipeline via STEM. We can no longer confine knowledge about information technology to just one department. Just as leaders need to know how to read a profit and loss statement or interpret a balance sheet, they must also understand how technology can impact business strategy. A twenty-first-century leader must understand behavioral, economic, and social shifts in order to capitalize on opportunities and achieve success. Whether you're an executive, senior manager, a new hire, a teacher, or a student, you must use twenty-first-century leadership if you want to succeed.

The New Statistics with R Andy Hector,2021 Statistical methods are a key tool for all scientists working with data, but learning the basics continues to challenge successive generations of students. This accessible textbook provides an up-to-date introduction to the classical techniques and modern extensions of linear model analysis—one of the most useful approaches for investigating scientific data in the life and environmental sciences. While some of the foundational analyses (e.g. t tests, regression, ANOVA) are as useful now as ever, best practice moves on and there are many new general developments that offer great potential. The book emphasizes an estimation-based approach that takes account of recent criticisms of over-use of probability values and introduces the alternative approach that uses information criteria. This new edition includes the latest advances in R and related software and has been thoroughly road-tested over the last decade to create a proven textbook that teaches linear and generalized linear model analysis to students of ecology, evolution, and environmental studies (including worked analyses of data sets relevant to all three disciplines). While R is used throughout, the focus remains firmly on statistical analysis. The New Statistics with R is suitable for senior undergraduate and graduate students, professional researchers, and practitioners in the fields of ecology, evolution and environmental studies.
