A Miracle of Love Amy Yawanarajah, 2015-07-01 In the heart-breaking story, The Miracle of Love, parents, Amy and Eric Yawanarajah, took their month-old child, Naveen, for what they believed was a routine medical visit after the baby contracted a cold. They heard the dreaded words that their son had a rare cardiac defect that could not be corrected. At the time, there were few known treatments for Naveen's type of congenital heart defect. The child's prognosis was he would be lucky to survive his seventh birthday! But Naveen's parents never gave up. They searched the globe until research led them to seek palliative treatment in New Zealand when Naveen was just four. Naveen's strong belief in his ability to live a long life ultimately convinced his parents to accept his choice of Perth Western Australia for his tertiary studies. It was the benevolence of the insurance system of Australia that funded the young man's many cardiac procedures. Naveen lived to age thirty-two, well beyond the lifespan projected by Australian cardiac specialists. This is the true story of a young man whose love of life and people while living with a congenital heart condition, is a miracle which will be an inspiration to many.

A tool for climate smart crop insurance: Combining farmers' pictures with dynamic crop modelling for accurate yield estimation prior to harvest Singh, B. K., Chakraborty, Dulal, Kalra, Naveen, Singh, Jaya, 2019-01-08 The study found that dynamic crop models have the accuracy to predict normal to high yields, but there are limits to their ability to capture low yields. On the other hand, the machine learning (CNN) model has better ability to capture lower yields. It is worth noting that the crop model only took into consideration mainly the weather data to predict yields; it is handicapped by the paucity of detailed management information deployed by farmers. However, the pictures sent by farmers reflected more yield-determining characteristics that reflected crop health and yield and that were then captured by the CNN. Finally, among the picture characteristics parameters, if “GCC & H” correlations are high, this could be a good indicator of low yield.

Economic Renaissance In the Age of Artificial Intelligence Apek Mulay, 2018-12-06
Economic Renaissance in the Age of Artificial Intelligence explores a wide range of new approaches to the economic, social, legal, scientific, technological, financial, architectural, environmental, and humanistic challenges that humanity will face due to increased automation. Marshall Goldsmith wrote in his book, What Got You Here, Won't Get You There, that people rely on their past experience to address new challenges. The limitation with this approach is that these new challenges often arise from different contexts and may not be susceptible to traditional approaches. In the coming era of artificial intelligence (AI), expanded use of robots, and increased trans-national commerce, humanity will face monumental challenges that will differ from those we have faced in the past, including how to avoid mass unemployment due to rapid growth of automation. In order to survive and thrive in this new era, we will have to think and act differently, so that new ideas can solve not only the problems of the present but also of the near and distant future. Economic Renaissance in the Age of Artificial Intelligence explores a wide range of new approaches to the economic, social, legal, scientific, technological, financial, architectural, environmental, and humanistic challenges that humanity will face due to increased automation. The new methods and approaches outlined by the various experts in this book will help inform and inspire humanity to create a more balanced world in which science, economics, and the environment can thrive for years to come.

My Sister's Big Fat Indian Wedding Sajni Patel, 2022-04-19 A fresh, witty rom-com romp set against the backdrop of a high-profile music competition and a riotous Indian wedding Zuriika Damani is a naturally gifted violinist with a particular love for hip hop beats. But when you're part of a big Indian family, everyone has expectations, and those certainly don't include hip hop violin. After being rejected by Juilliard, Zuri's last hope is a contest judged by a panel of top tier college scouts. The only problem? This coveted competition happens to take place during Zuri's sister's extravagant wedding week. And Zuri has already been warned, repeatedly, that she is not to miss a single moment. In the midst of the chaos, Zuri's mom is in matchmaking mode with the groom's South African cousin Naveen—who just happens to be a cocky vocalist set on stealing Zuri's spotlight at the scouting competition. Luckily Zuri has a crew of loud and loyal female cousins cheering her on. Now, all she has to do is to wow the judges for a top spot, evade getting caught by her parents, resist Naveen's charms, and, oh yeah . . . not mess up her sister's big fat Indian wedding. What could possibly go wrong?

Duped Saadia Navin Bilgrami, 2015-10-16 I remember when I was on an opinion survey in 1945, it was often argued in favor of the cause that as long as there was a neutral government, minorities had little to worry about; but in a Hindu-dominated democratic India, they saw a future fraught with uncertainty and insecurity. It was countered very ably by a girl whom I still remember—shy, short statured with a shock of curly hair and reading glasses as thick as the vertexes of glass paper weights sliced to fit in the metallic frame. She had said, “We would then be a formidable minority—a deciding factor—in the most populous democracy of the world, and historically speaking, determined minorities have changed destinies of nations.” We were speechless. The argument against the sectarian violence, however, occurring on daily basis since campaign for the separate homeland had started, was hard to brush aside. But now as we look back, weren’t Pakistanis more ruthless in suppressing their compatriots and brothers in faith East Pakistanis when they talked of a separate homeland for themselves? Here the backlash was formal, and the army was charged to quell the uprising. One four-star general was heard bragging at the departure lounge of Karachi Airport before flying to Dacca to subjugate the upheaval—“Next Bengali generation would speak Punjabi!” To Indians, Muslims’ demand for a separate homeland was also la guerre de secession.
