The Seventh Major Understanding Jordan Gray,2011-04-01 Global awakening is happening now! Each of us is here to play our role in this adventure of transformation. Learning and living The Seventh Major Understanding brings a modern Golden Age into focus. Joshua, a nonphysical being, shares fascinating ideas about humanity's path out of the age of material accumulation into an age of peace, love, abundance, and understanding. Joshua's views about God, reincarnation, the ego, karma, judgment, and other religious teachings differ from traditional wisdom. He takes a fresh look at these concepts, and he urges us to transcend the spiritual boundaries of both Eastern and Western religions. Joshua builds upon our knowing that we create our personal and global reality. Awakening to our oneness with All That Is, is the path to a new way of life. The Seventh Major Understanding shines a light on our path into a brighter personal and shared reality - a new Golden Age.

Visionary Voices Penny Rosenwasser,1992 Feminist movements have made a profound impact on both spiritual and political practices; as a multicultural collection of interviews with women about the complexities of personal and social empowerment, this book connects the two through the voices of activists, healers and artists, poets and politicians. The uniqueness of Visionary Voices lies in the diversity of its contributors--including Deena Metzger, Papusa Molina, Fran Peavey, Winona LaDuke and many more--and their collective dismantling of the false dichotomy between spiritual and political growth.--BOOK JACKET.

Hope Into Practice Penny Rosenwasser,2013 Anchored in Jewish ethical tradition and community-building, Hope Into Practice is an activist's call to repair the world. Linking recovery from internalized anti-Semitism (and sexism) with more empowered/effective activism for social justice, this book brings to life an irresistible blend of women's healing stories, history, and a fair-minded perspective on Israel-Palestine - as well as in-depth discussions of anti-Semitism, Jewish trauma, racism, white privilege, assimilation, and liberation --inviting us to have the courage to face our fears but not act on them: to choose justice, despite our fears. To date, Hope into Practice has received 5 awards, including the Association for Women in Psychology Jewish Caucus Award.

Singing Beyond Sorrow Carole Marie Downing,2015-05-27 Singing Beyond Sorrow is Carole Downing's story of finding a way to embrace life after the unexpected and unimaginable death of her husband from cancer. Written in a journal style, the book chronicles her ups and downs, the firsts without her husband, the parenting of their six-year-old son, and the sometimes tragic, sometimes funny, conflicts between a young widow picking up the pieces of her life and a world that would rather close its eyes to death and bereavement. While working through her grief, Carole discovered the gift of finding gratitude in each day, no matter how small: her son's laughter, the generosity of a stranger, or the simple beauty of a field of poppies. She came to understand that even amidst the raw pain of loss, the preciousness of life was present when seen through the lens of gratitude. As a former hospice nurse and bereavement volunteer, Carole's unique blending of professional experience with her personal story sheds light on the often hidden process of grief. Her book can help the newly bereaved on their path of healing, while also offering us all an opportunity to see moments of grace in our everyday lives.
