Epiphany Armour Patterson, 2019-11-04 A Divine Revelation That Changed Everything... For all who have entered into the unique, eternal covenant with the sole living God, Christmas, in its essence, is the remembrance of and reflection upon the ultimate gift. God gave once for all people and for all time His only Son to dwell amongst us, changing the world forever. He completed a covenant initiated two thousand years before, provided the one requisite sacrifice, and lit the path unto salvation for the people of all nations. In the observance of Epiphany, we reflect not only upon the Advent of Immanuel, God With Us, but also on that first going out of the light of the nations and His salvation toward the end of the earth. In these devotionals following the course of Matthew 2, the reader is invited to look beyond the night of Jesus' birth toward the unfolding of His new covenant for all people. Author Bio: Armour has spent much of his life in the Middle East afoot or in the saddle; aboard felucca, boat, and ship; as well as driving roads both crowded and known and remote and unmarked. He traversed the cities, ruins, deserts, hills, mountains, and waters of the lands of the Bible. He is a freelance writer and itinerant preacher and lives in North Texas with his wife, Rachel. About the Publisher: Innovo Publishing LLC provides full-service publishing services for Christian authors, artists & ministries with turn-key media solutions for books, eBooks, audiobooks, music, film, and courses using traditional, co-operative, and independent publishing models.

A Gift from the Past and The Big Wind Joann Klusmeyer, 2024-04-25
STORYTELLING AT ITS BEST FOR TWEENS & TEENS - FAITH & FAMILY-FRIENDLY - Book 1 in the Footsteps in the Canyon Adventure Series Thirteen-year-old Caitlyn knew that many feet had walked over the beautiful high meadow and into the deep rugged canyon she loved so much near her family's guest ranch in the Oklahoma Panhandle. In addition to the hooves, padded paws, claws, and talons that still roamed this untamed land, there were the footsteps of boots, shoes, and moccasins of centuries past that had left their mark with stories to be told. What Caitlyn didn't know was just how personal all those stories would become as she and her homeschooled friends left their own footsteps in the canyon. This exceptionally researched historical fiction series for tweens and teens combines stories from the present day with those of the settlers pushing West in the late 1800s and from the lives of the Kiowa Indians a century earlier. A GIFT FROM THE PAST (Story 1) Caitlyn's discovery of a tragedy in the canyon by her home was unexpected. That day, she was only wishing to rest her eyes from staring at the computer screen and at the puzzle called mathematics. But this discovery was a different kind of puzzle, and with each piece she set in place, it squeezed her heart a little more. Yet she was drawn to it like a moth to a flame and would cherish it for the rest of her life. THE BIG WIND (Story 2) Over the years, many people had lived on the high meadow beside the box canyon, including those of the tipi village a hundred years ago. Now, thirteen-year-old Caitlyn lives on the same high meadow. She visits the same canyon with the river running through it.

She feels the same sunshine and rain and even the whirling cone of wind dropping out of the clouds—that fearsome funnel of air and debris known as the twister. Staying safe would not be easy.

Brave, Strong, and True, 2015-11-02 When the country called, our military men and women answered. Brave, Strong, and True challenges us as citizens to do more than say, Thank you for your service, offering us the chance to understand and connect with our nation's veterans by becoming part of the reintegration solution. Right now, what we hear repeatedly about veterans' mental health isn't always positive and is often far from accurate. Personalizing the issues and advocating for specific, proven protocols, a Marine-turned-PhD calls for a radical shift in the way we talk about health for our military. To promote real wellness, healing, and connection for those who served requires a focus on the resilient leadership potential present in our nation's veteran community. Resilience can be trained and cultivated in all of us, and this book will show you how.

Not to Destroy, But to Fulfill Linus K. H. Chua, 2010-01-15 In Matthew 5:17-48, we see the Lord Jesus speaking clearly about His relationship to the law of the Old Testament and about how His people should understand and respond to that law. Unfortunately, this important passage of Scripture often is either misunderstood or totally ignored by many Christians today. In Not to Destroy, But to Fulfill, Linus Chua presents what he believes is a proper understanding of this crucial passage. He also seeks to draw out some important applications and implications for the modern Christian.----Linus Chua is a member of Pilgrim Covenant Church in Singapore and is currently pursuing the M.Div. degree with Whitefield Theological Seminary in preparation for the pastoral ministry. He is also the author of Catechism in Conversation, which gives a brief introduction to the Westminster Shorter Catechism in conversational style.

A Life to Rescue Karen Michelle Graham, 2010-05-04 The puzzling behavior of a two-year-old boy baffles his parents. Why would a child flap his hands, not respond to his name, and regress in his language skills? A specialist reveals the news-autism. Yet amid the heartache, the couple discovers a road to overcoming autism. A Life to Rescue relives the wonder of this child's deliverance providing a hope available to other young children with autism.

 The book appendix includes: therapy basics, hiring tips, scheduling, meetings, payroll, workshops, peer play, learning in a group/school, success and depression. I found it [A Life to Rescue] very readable and a valuable presentation of ABA (Applied Behavior Analysis). How anyone could read this mother's account and not be informed, impressed, and inspired by the method and the results gained with her son is totally beyond my imagination. I learned so much, and I've been working in the field of autism from over thirty-five years. Dr. Laurence A. Becker, Ph.D. What a great book! A fantastic reference for parents. A great tribute to all that ABA/Lovaas therapy can do. Crystal Burns Held, ABA Consultant. Website:

Where the Ground Is Even Armour Patterson, 2009-09 Three Navajos ride from the East toward a White man's world of which they are suspicious. Two carefree but pining shepherders walk through heavy snow from the West. A young family, the man wounded and the woman full with child, move north desperately ahead of a rage-filled cattleman and his men. A young, rakish deputy sheriff rides up from the Southwest in pursuit of a wanted man. In the days before Christmas of 1881, all converge on the small town of Flagstaff at the foot of the San Francisco Mountains.---It indeed reminds the reader of some of Louis L'Amour's writing. It is rich in description of the landscapes of Arizona and the emptiness of the mountains and deserts as well as souls without the anchor of Christ. Mike Huckabee, Former Governor, State of Arkansas---Fabulous! My favorite of all that he has done. Dr. Charles S. Kelley, President, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary---I just read Armour's book . . . in one sitting. He does gunfights about as well as anyone I've ever read. Marvin Padgett, Vice President, P&R Editorial-----Armour was born in New Orleans and grew up in Texas. He has worked on several ranches and spent time in the saddle on five continents, more than enough time in the saddle in wild country to realize the majesty of God, the temporality of human endeavor, the triviality of pomp and circumstance, the futility of greed, and the remarkable behavioral semblance of mankind and sheep. He now resides in Northern Arizona with his wife Rachel, a beauty from the Sierra Nevadas who also handles a Winchester well. They enjoy all things outdoors, dining out in San Diego and Las Vegas, dogs, horses, and critters generally.

Hell No, Not Me Jean Tobe, 2009-03 Out of obedience and willingness, God revealed to me all the activities on the Great Day of Judgment and where everyone that is found unworthy will be heading to - which is Hell - and also the reward of being faithful, which is Heaven. God made me taste a little bit of what Hell and Heaven are like and the need for salvation for all mankind. God disclosed to me that Hell and Heaven are real. Then he ordered me to tell people to separate themselves from evil acts, to sin no more and to do good.

Separating oneself from sin and evil is the beginning of every kind of wellness and salvation. God is saying to you: choose life now. The train is about to leave, do not let the train leave without you.
