Critical Discourse in Punjabi Rana Nayar, Alpna Saini, Tania Bansal, 2023-09-29 This volume forms a part of the Critical Discourses in South Asia series which deals with schools, movements and discursive practices in major South Asian languages. It offers crucial insights into the making of the Punjabi language and literature, and its critical tradition across a century. The book brings together English translation of major writings of influential figures dealing with literary criticism and theory, aesthetic and performative traditions and re-interpretations of primary concepts and categories in Punjabi. It presents 30 key texts in literary and cultural studies from Punjab from the beginning of development of Punjabi language to its present form, with most of them translated for the first time into English. These seminal essays cover interconnections with socio-historical events in the medieval, colonial and post-independence period in Punjab. They discuss themes such as spiritual and aesthetic visions, poetic and literary forms, modernism, progressivism, feminism, Dalit literature, power structures and social struggles, ideological values, cultural renovations, and humanism. Comprehensive and authoritative, this volume offers an overview of the history of critical thought in Punjabi literature in South Asia. It will be essential for scholars and researchers of Punjabi language and literature, literary criticism, literary theory, comparative literature, Indian literature, cultural studies, art and aesthetics, performance studies, history, sociology, regional studies and South Asian studies. It will also interest the Punjabi-speaking diaspora and those working on the intellectual history of Punjab and conservation of languages and culture.

Punjabi Immigrant Mobility In the United States
Diditi Mitra, 2012-11-09 How did so many Punjabi immigrants come to find themselves behind the wheels of so many New York City taxi cabs, and what do their stories have to teach us about how immigrants must navigate life in a new society? Diditi Mitra analyzes how race and class influence settlement patterns in the United States, based on her extensive interviews with 59 Punjabi taxi drivers, organizers of the New York Taxi Workers Alliance, lawyers who represent drivers in taxi courts, owners of taxi fleets, and an official of the New York Taxi and Limousine Commission. What emerges is an unprecedented exploration into how society shapes the 'choices' made by immigrants as they adapt to America.

Landscapes of Fear Patrick Hoenig, Navsharan Singh, 2014-07-04 Drawing on the findings of a comparative research project, this volume tackles a set of intricate questions about the workings of impunity in India. How do victims of abuse and survivors of sexual violence end up being denied justice? What do those on the margins—those with the wrong sex, wrong identity markers, wrong political leanings— tell us about violence by state and non-state actors? Bringing together senior academics, civil society leaders and fresh voices from the across India, the volume offers analysis – contextual, structural and gendered – and breaks new conceptual ground on the underbelly of India Shining. The volume contains testimonies that were collected during fieldwork in four Indian states. Published by Zubaan.

Justice Through Public Interest Litigations
Navkiran Singh, 2022-03-19 The state of Punjab witnessed a great deal of Political turmoil between the years 1984 and 1994 on account of political uprisings demanding more power to the state. Human rights violations were rampant and were used as a means to quell anti-State rhetoric. To combat this, a group of lawyers came together and fought against State repression while forming a non-profit organization in the 1990's titled "LAWYERS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS INTERNATIONAL". Their motto was to uphold Human rights using Public Interest Litigation as a tool. This book is a compilation of the Public Interest litigations (PILs) filed in The High Court of Chandigarh by the author Advocate Navkiran Singh written with the hope of inspiring young Lawyers, Social activists and Human Rights enthusiasts. Its aim is to pass down knowledge and experience to young, pro-democracy citizens of India. It throws light on how Public Interest Litigations can be used as a tool not only to uphold justice and Human Rights but to also strengthen India as a democracy.
