The Negro Motorist Green Book Victor H. Green,
The idea of The Green Book is to give the Motorist and Tourist a Guide not only of the Hotels and Tourist Homes in all of the large cities, but other classifications that will be found useful wherever he may be. Also facts and information that the Negro Motorist can use and depend upon. There are thousands of places that the public doesn't know about and aren't listed. Perhaps you know of some? If so send in their names and addresses and the kind of business, so that we might pass it along to the rest of your fellow Motorists. You will find it handy on your travels, whether at home or in some other state, and is up to date. Each year we are compiling new lists as some of these places move, or go out of business and new business places are started giving added employment to members of our race.

Giving Up Without Giving Up Jim Green, 2019-03-07
'What if the suffering that we call depression contains experiences and lessons without which we cannot be fully alive?' This is one of the many startling questions that Giving Up Without Giving Up invites us to ask ourselves. Depression seems to be a contemporary epidemic, a condition understandably feared and avoided by all. Yet this book explores the possibility that we have much to learn from the desert times in our lives, when it feels as though we are losing everything, most of all any sense of who we are. Drawing on his extensive experience of meditation within both the Buddhist and Christian contemplative traditions, as well as his own times of personal loss and bewilderment, Jim Green offers us a moving account of just how this wisdom practice can accompany each of us as we make 'the gentle pilgrimage of recovery'. He guides us through 'the invention of depression' in the mid-twentieth century, questioning the increasing tendency to medicalize human suffering. Based on the insight that 'Life is the Treatment', he offers a thorough and practical approach to our times of personal desolation, showing how we can learn to treat ourselves and each other with care and compassion. At the heart of this approach is the practice of meditation, learned from the Buddha, The Desert Fathers and Mothers and from Jesus himself. It's a practice which, this heartfelt book insists, can help you 'to be depressed – which might mean in mourning – for exactly as long as you need to be, no longer and no shorter. Then, changed, you are brought back to life, which is change itself.'

Showbiz Trilogy Jim Green, 2012-08-03 Trilogy of books following the rollercoaster career of songbird Celia Lipton as she rises to the top of her profession through seaside theatre, radio, and talking pictures in the late 1920s - until tragedy strikes...

King of the Rocks Bill Green, 2017-06-21 Bill Green's father died suddenly when he was in Belfast. Spring was coming on, and Ireland was turning into its fabled green. When he returned for the funeral, he landed at JFK airport on his way home to Pittsburgh. Oddly, while on the concourse, he felt like he was floating. Green felt a deep sense of euphoria. Why did he take pleasure for even a moment in his father's death? In his mind, he had committed a grave and unforgivable sin. Who was this man, his father? Green believed that perhaps knowing more would relieve his unending sense of grief. King of the Rocks is a book about searching the past; it is about psychoanalysis and dreams and about finding clues in a cache of old photos and letters. It is about baseball, exotic travel, polio, absence and drink, and the dense granitic silence of men.

Singles Jim Green, 2012-08-06 Tangled tales of a disparate crew of thirty-five to fifty-something singles who haunt the clubs in search of company, romance, riches, opportunity; anything to take them away from staring at the blank walls that constitute home for the lonely, the low in spirit, and the downright irresponsible.

Totally Goofy Jim Green, 2017-04-17 Several years back I submitted a question to Ask Marilyn, in the Sunday Magazine Parade-[May 21, 2006-and as relevant today, as then] but not really expecting that she would answer...according to the Guinness Book of World Records, Marilyn vos Savant has the highest recorded IQ [ever], and my question was: It is obvious that our country is deeply divided: almost 50-50, judging. From the last election. Neither side sees any merit whatsoever in the programs of the other, and each side-is convinced that the other side has the dumbest ideas that ever came down the pike. Why are the two sides so far apart? Without getting too deep into the weeds, I really wasn't crazy about her answer....but leave to the reader to judge for themselves...she was pretty much saying that since our politicians weren't shooting at each other that this evidenced a certain civility [see her response, herein]....I would only add, here, that the million woman march the day following Trump's inauguration--to protest his election--reflects a certain discontent with the current Republican ideology.....And Trump's assertion that the largest crowds in America history came to DC [a patent lie-and more Obama fixation], and just to see him at his inauguration--was a dead-ringer that we are in an ideological wasteland.....Indeed, in just a short month Trump has the rest of the world convinced that he is loose cannon [downright spooky with Kim III also a loose cannon]----Trump has time to redeem himself-but it is questionable if he has the psychic makeup to do so...the big money says....NOPE.....

Ships and Memories Eric W. Sager, 2011-11-01
Canada is a great maritime nation. Although ships and the sea have been part of its history for centuries, very little is known about the men and women who have worked in its coastal and lake fleets. Ships and Memories is a fascinating account of life at sea during the age of steam. In it, seafarers tell their own stories and remember the good times as well as the bad, in peace and war and during the depression. Eric Sager draws on interviews with master mariners, engineers, able seamen, cooks, stewards, and many others who worked aboard steamships from 1920 to 1950.

Hollywood Heartache Jim Green, 2014-02-07
Provides details on the lives and deaths of 50 20th century actors and actresses.

America Is One Sick MF Jim Green, 2012-09-24

America is one sick MF--We have elements in America that will say that I "hate" America for making that statement--but they would be dead-wrong--Indeed, it is their ignorance of America--that has America so FU--We cannot start fixing what is wrong with America, until we start fessing-up to what we are doing wrong--And when we cannot tell the truth in a "free" country--it is no longer a "free" country....Further, the following are "institutional flaws" that call for the American people to step up--and getting rid of the current crop of Republicans: governors, in our state houses, and in Washington, would be a good start....

Totally Corrupt Jim Green, 2017-05-15 This book is DEDICATED TO: The eradication of FEAR in America--as FDR articulated: nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror which paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance. In short, fear is the mother of all cancers on the body politic of America.....i.e., fear is a wall to keep the Mexicans out, and drives our insidious racism.....and the pernicious fear resulting from McCarthyism still hangs like a black cloud over and cripples America to this day, resulting in our Third World healthcare system, and Job Creation--and is the parent of the pervasive hate in America today.....to illustrate: I didn't write the following. It is a cut and paste from FACEBOOK, or some blog [would like to give credit if knew the author]--but it is so on target regarding how fear is driving Conservative policy in America today--i.e., is undermining America and our progress--and relegating America to a Third World country status, rather than a world leader--Conservatives are such cowards: they are afraid of gay people getting married or serving in the military; they are afraid of bringing terrorists to super max prisons in the US from which no one has ever escaped; they are afraid of the boy scouts letting gay kids in; they are afraid of everyone voting and are constantly suppressing the vote under some bogus voter fraud theory; they are afraid of letting students vote at their universities; they are afraid of women having the right to choose; they even are afraid of women getting contraception [the real issue actually is a women's agency and control over their bodies]; they are afraid of immigration reform leading to citizenship because they are afraid of-- name whatever reason; they are afraid of mandating gun purchasers to undergo background checks for crazy people and terrorists; they are afraid of people smoking pot; they are afraid of climate change being real and contradicting their beloved Bible; they are afraid of legitimate campaign reform; they are afraid of Muslims; they are afraid of blacks; they are afraid of atheists; they are afraid of hippies; they are afraid of socialists; they are probably still afraid of monsters under their beds; they are just rank cowards and keep making things up to be afraid of.

Tolleson Jim Green, Jimmy Ruiz, 2008 In 1907, five years before Arizona's statehood, Walter Gist Tolleson and his wife, Alethea, chose the dry Arizona Territory for their sick son. In 1910, they purchased and later subdivided 160 acres just 10 miles from a young settlement known as Phoenix. And in 1912, the town of Tolleson was born. By the 1940s and 1950s, the community had become the Vegetable Center of the World. The area that was once an agricultural mecca is now divided by suburban sprawl, but Tolleson's original spirit remains. It is bustling with growing schools and industry, as well as world-class sports, shopping, and entertainment facilities, all surrounding a 6-square-mile community with small-town pride. That inexhaustible spirit continues to make Tolleson one of the greatest places in the country to live.

Our Greed & Ignorance Jim Green, 2012-09-02 Where is the truth in America? If America fails it will have two parents: GREED AND IGNORANCE? Greed on the part of the 1%, and Ignorance by those in the 99% who are in the 'bubble', and who are unwilling, or unable to inform themselves, and thus vote Republican's a truth in America, today' and Republican Conservative, and 30-year Congressional insider, Mike Lofgren, nailed it regarding the Republican Party, today--with the 'Republicans went crazy?'.

The Shadow Walkers Jim Green, 2021-02-14 A fifteen-year-old runaway named Dumas Daniels and his strange young friend, July Bobby, meet a Navajo soldier on his way home from Afghanistan. He takes them to his great-grandmother's place deep into the Navajo reservation in Northern Arizona, to hide from a violent biker gang whose leader has been disrespected by the young soldier. It is here that Dumas comes to understand the meaning of commitment, and it is here that Ms. July Bobby discovers her destiny. It is here that the past and the future come together in the land of the shadows.

Albert Einstein Jim Green, 2003 The popular image of Einstein as an absent-minded genius with his head in the clouds is a far cry from the real picture. A sensitive man deeply interested in social issues, Einstein felt it was his duty to use his fame and intellect to advance the cause of social justice. John Green takes a new and subversive look at Time magazine's Person of the Century, whose forthright opposition to war led to the FBI declaring him too clever not to track'.'

Dollars for Death Dave Holmes, Jim Green, 1999

The Musician's Joke Book Jim Green, 2010-06-07 A side-splitting selection of one-liners, comic definitions, yarns and witty quotes from the world of music. Most professions have their own jokes, but musicians seem to have more than their fair share. Perhaps it's the insane travel schedule, the bad lodgings or just lack of sleep. But as Jim Green says in his introduction, ...it's not surprising we're a band apart (so to speak), outcasts who seek only our own company, rubbing two jokes together for warmth and trying to feel superior by sneering at one another's abilities and personalities. So maybe the reason musicians love poking fun at one another is nothing more than getting in first before everyone else does. Or perhaps choosing laughter is the only alternative to despair... Anyway, here is a truly great selection of jokes, quotes and stories from the world's second oldest profession. Enjoy! Q: What is the definition of perfect pitch in a piccolo? A: When you throw it in the toilet and it doesn't hit the rim. Q: What do you throw a drowning lead guitarist? A: His amp. Q: Why was the clarinetist staring at the orange juice bottle? A: Because the label said concentrate. I don't know anything about music. In my line you don't have to. Elvis Presley

The Ghost Dancer Jim Green, 2021-02-14 Sure enough, like I thought I seen, there laid an old human skull lookin' up at me and smillin' with a toothless grin. You don't run on to things like that every day, and, to tell the truth, I didn't know exactly what to do. I kicked it with my toe some then reached down, picked it up, and looked around tryin' to figure out where it'd come from. I figured there musta been somebody buried next to that wash a long time ago, and the buck's landslide opened the grave.
