WAINAMOINEN AND YOUKAHAINEN - A Legend of Finland Anon E. Mouse,2016-08-03 ISSN: 2397-9607 Issue 194 In this 194th issue of the Baba Indaba’s Children's Stories series, Baba Indaba narrates the Finnish legend “Wainamoinen and Youkahainen.” After his labours to create the land of Finland, Wainamoinen rested and dedicated himself to singing the legends of Finland. So good and so fine of voice was he, that it was claimed he could sing beings and things into and out of existence. Way in the North of the country, above the Arctic Circle, lived another, younger singer called Youkahainen. Over time word filtered through about the greatness of Wainamoinen. Youkahainen sets off for the South seeking to challenge Wainamoinen to a contest.....Download and read this story to find how the young Youkahainen faired in his battle with the great Wainamoinen. INCLUDES LINKS TO DOWNLOAD 8 FREE STORIES Each issue also has a WHERE IN THE WORLD - LOOK IT UP section, where young readers are challenged to look up a place on a map somewhere in the world. The place, town or city is relevant to the story. HINT - use Google maps. Baba Indaba is a fictitious Zulu storyteller who narrates children's stories from around the world. Baba Indaba translates as Father of Stories. It is believed that folklore and tales are believed to have originated in India and made their way overland along the Silk and Spice routes and through the Middle East and Central Asia before arriving in Europe. Even so, this does not cover all folklore from all four corners of the world. Indeed folklore, legends and myths from Africa, Australia, Polynesia, and some from Asia too, can be altogether quite different and seem to have originated on the whole from separate reservoirs of lore, legend and culture.

Perspectives on Philosophy of Management and Business Ethics Jacob Dahl Rendtorff,2017-01-05 This book presents a selection of articles with focus on the theoretical foundations of business ethics, and in particular on the philosophy of management and on human rights and business. This implies identifying and discussing conflicts as well as agreement with regard to the philosophical and other foundations of business and management. Despite the general interest in corporate social responsibility and business ethics, the contemporary discussion rarely touches upon the normative core and philosophical foundations of business. There is a need to discuss the theoretical basis of business ethics and of business and human rights. Even though the actions and activities of business may be discussed from a moral perspective, not least in the media, the judgments and opinions relating to business and management often lack deeper moral reflection and consistency. Partly for this reason, business ethicists are constantly challenged to provide such moral and philosophical foundations for business ethics and for business and human rights, and to communicate them in an understandable manner. Such a challenge is also of scientific kind. Positions and opinions in the academic field need to be substantiated by thorough moral and theoretical reflection to underpin normative approaches. Far too often, business ethicists may agree on matters, which they approach from different and sometimes irreconcilable philosophical standpoints, resulting in superficial agreement but deeper-lying disagreement. In other cases, it may be of high relevance to identify philosophical standpoints that despite conflicting fundamentals may arrive at conclusions acceptable to everyone.
