Die Zukunft ist smart. Du auch? Holger Volland, 2021-03-15 Viele Experten betonen, wie wichtig der Ausbau digitaler Technologie ist – für unseren Alltag, die Wirtschaft, den Kampf gegen Klimakrise, Krankheit und Hunger in der Welt. Gleichzeitig warnen andere vor digitaler Demenz, onkontrollierbarer Übermacht der Digitalkonzerne und vor einer manipulierten Menschheit im Überwachungskapitalismus. Dazwischen stehen wir: Menschen mit Facebook-Profil, die YouTube-Videos schauen oder TikTok nutzen, die mit Google Maps ihren Weg finden und mit Alexa ihre Pizza bestellen. Sind wir in der Zukunft schon angekommen, wenn wir als Laien so locker mit der digitalen Welt umgehen? Oder lassen wir uns arglos von machtgierigen Digitalkonzernen manipulieren und von unseren Geräten ausspionieren? Leben wir in einer Filterblase? Und wenn ja, wie kommen wir da wieder raus? Anhand von einfachen Fragen, wissenschaftlichen Fakten und kurzweiligen Geschichten über die digitale Zukunft erklärt Digitalexperte und Kulturvermittler Holger Volland die relevantesten Entwicklungen der digitalen Transformation und ihre Wirkung für unser ganz persönliches Leben.

Journalistiek, ‘Nepnieuws’ et desinformatie Ireton, Cherilyn, Posetti, Julie, UNESCO, 2020-12-31 Journalistiek, 'Fake News' & Desinformatie: Handboek voor Journalistiek Onderwijs is de Nederlandse vertaling van het in 2018 verschenen Journalism, 'Fake News' & Disinformation: Handbook for Journalism Education & Training. Wij, Berit Zandbelt en Koen Leurs, werkten van april tot juli 2020 aan deze vertaling in onze capaciteit als student-stagiair en universitair docent verbonden aan de Universiteit Utrecht. Dit was een turbulente periode met ingrijpende gebeurtenissen. De Covid-19 virus pandemie die wereldwijd het publieke leven tot stilstand bracht bleek volgens Peter Burger, universitair docent journalistiek (Universiteit Leiden), de ideale voedingsbodem voor de verspreiding van hoaxes, broodje-aapverhalen en samenzweringstheorieën. Misinformatie en desinformatie met betrekking tot corona betrof onder andere anti-vaxxers die schadelijke foutieve berichtgeving over vaccins verspreidden, Bill Gates die besmette mensen met microchips wilde implanteren, verbanden die worden gelegd tussen 5g-netwerken en het corona virus, onjuiste berichten over de symptomen behandeling van het virus en misleidende berichten over de positieve effecten van de lockdown op ons dierenrijk, met gefabriceerde beelden van dolfijnen die weer in de grachten van Venetië zouden zwemmen en herten die Parijse kerken zouden hebben bezocht. Om de consequenties van de informatiewanorde die ook in Nederland ontstond rondom 'Corona' te duiden, hebben wij Yvonne Zonderop en José van Dijck gevraagd een voorwoord te schrijven bij deze Nederlandstalige versie. Zonderop, onafhankelijk journalist en lid van de UNESCO Commissie Nederland, pleit ervoor om jonge en aankomende journalisten het tot hún romantische opdracht te maken in de tegenaanval te gaan tegen mis-, des- en malinformatie. Van Dijck, universiteitshoogleraar media en digitale samenleving aan de Universiteit Utrecht reflecteert aan de hand van de Covid-19 infodemie over het belang van kwaliteitsjournalistiek als hoeder van democratie

Dot to Tot Matt Taylor, Sue Merrifield, 2016-01-22 An exciting new resource for Parent and Toddler groups. There are 39 weeks' worth of story time plans, which explore a biblical story and truth in an appropriately short and fun format. Accompanying each weekly story is a photocopy-able handout for the adults attending the group meetings. These help parents raise their heads up from the tasks of parenting for a moment, think themselves about that day's story and how it might apply to them personally. Dot to Tot is ultimately designed to connect both children and adults to God and His Word and Church, and to help connect toddler and parent through what they learn together.

Animation and Advertising Malcolm Cook, Kirsten Moana Thompson, 2019-12-17 Throughout its history, animation has been fundamentally shaped by its application to promotion and marketing, with animation playing a vital role in advertising history. In individual case study chapters this book addresses, among others, the role of promotion and advertising for anime, Disney, MTV, Lotte Reiniger, Pixar and George Pal, and highlights American, Indian, Japanese, and European examples. This collection reviews the history of famous animation studios and artists, and rediscovers overlooked ones. It situates animated advertising within the context of a diverse intermedial and multi-platform media environment, influenced by print, radio and digital practices, and expanding beyond cinema and television screens into the workplace, theme park, trade expo and urban environment. It reveals the part that animation has played in shaping our consumption of particular brands and commodities, and assesses the ways in which animated advertising has both changed and been changed by the technologies and media that supported it, including digital production and distribution in the present day. Challenging the traditional privileging of art or entertainment over commercial animation, Animation and Advertising establishes a new and rich field of research, and raises many new questions concerning particular animation and media histories, and our methods for researching them.

Antifascisms David Ward, 1996 This book is an in-depth analysis of three of the most crucial years in twentieth-century Italian history, the years 1943-46. After more than two decades of a Fascist regime and a disastrous war experience during which Italy changed sides, these years saw the laying of the political and cultural foundations for what has since become known as Italy's First Republic. Drawing on texts from the literature, film, journalism, and political debate of the period, Antifascisms offers a thorough survey of the personalities and positions that informed the decisions taken in this crucial phase of modern Italian history.

Why Life Speeds Up As You Get Older Douwe Draaisma,2012-03-29 Entertaining and educational, Douwe Draaisma's Why Life Speeds Up As You Get Older raises almost as many questions as it answers. Draaisma applies a blend of scholarship, poetic sensibility and keen observation in exploring the nature of autobiographical memory, covering subjects such as déjà...-vu, near death experiences and the effect of severe trauma on memory recall, as well as human perceptions of time at different stages in life. A highly accessible and personal read, this book will not fail to touch or provoke thought in its readers.

The Place Is Here Nick Aikens,Elizabeth Robles,2019-09-24 : A richly illustrated collection of artworks, essays, and conversations that offer a range of perspectives on black art in Thatcherite Britain. The Place Is Here begins to write a missing chapter in British art history: work by black artists in the Thatcherite 1980s. Richly illustrated, with more than two hundred color images, it brings together artworks, essays, archives, and conversations that map the varying perspectives and approaches of a group of artists who challenged the dominance of white heterosexual men in the canon of contemporary art. The many artists discussed and displayed here do not make up a “movement” or a school or a chronological progression, but represent the diverse interests and activities of artists across a decade and beyond. They grapple with black nationalism, anti-colonialism and postcolonialism, anti-Thatcherism, black feminism, black queer subjectivity, psychoanalysis, forms of narrative and documentary image-making, in different ways and through different modes of representation across a range of media. The book, which grows out of a series of exhibitions that began in 2014, offers essays, close readings of selected works, panel discussions, and archival presentations, bringing together different voices and generational perspectives. Contributions come from the artists themselves, established scholars, and younger practitioners, critics, and art historians. They discuss the exhibitions, call for a reappraisal of dominant art historical approaches, and consider the use and role of the archive in artworks; look at works by Mona Hatoum, Martina Atille, Said Adrus, Chila Kumari Burman, and Pratibha Parmar; and present key documents and other material. Contributors Nick Aikens, Sonia Boyce, Laura Castagnini, Deborah Cherry, Alice Correia, Chandra Frank, June Givanni, Sunil Gupta, Evan Ifekoya, Claudette Johnson, Raisa Kabir, Gail Lewis, Amna Malik, Samia Malik, Priyesh Mistry, Dorothy Price, susan pui san lok, Raju Rage, Elizabeth Robles, Ashwani Sharma, Marlene Smith, Leon Wainwright, Michelle Williams Gamaker, Rehana Zaman
