Building A Conscience Lawrence Keough,2015-02-28 Building a Conscience is a story of conversion in which a high powered lobbyist, Luke McAlarney, and his wife, Bethany, leave their spirituality at the altar to join the ranks of the nouveau rich. They are obsessed with living the American dream of power, privilege and riches. But Luke begins to question whether the ends – big bucks – justify the means – mercenary tactics. Luke's conscience is awakened after a series of developments in which he is challenged to look beyond himself for the common good. Along the way, Luke and Bethany try to hold their marriage and family together as they question what they want from life and how to cope with their potentially suicidal daughter, Bree. There are no easy answers as they undertake steps that allow them to redefine the American dream on their terms.

Cowboy Within Liam Lenhart,2023-08-14 About the Book The devil's second home is a hot Texas summer. Hope Cooper's anger heats up Chester Kinkead's dude ranch after Luke Anderson knocks out her adopted big brother, the ranch foreman. Luke's unlikely imprisonment for assault sets up a battle of wills and emotions between the two. Hope's distrust of men not associated with Chester's ranch where she was raised fuels her initial hate-filled encounter with Luke. Several life-altering incidents set off an emotional quagmire for both. Luke and Hope have endured full-throttled overloads of adversity during their upbringing producing opposite reactions and outcomes. Hope received loving support during tough times which was lacking during the latter half of Luke's childhood. Time will allow each to discover honest feelings for the other with unanticipated consequences. Hope's presence pushes Luke to uncover unidentified inner cowboy traits. Chester becomes conflicted whether to further Luke's punishment or encourage a new life to support the possibility of love on the ranch if he stays. About the Author Liam Lenhart is a dad to a wonderful daughter and son. And enjoys fishing, the gym, and spending time outdoors every way possible.

Roughhouse Red: Iron Man of the Mountains Margo Palmer,2023-10-30 Who would know better spots to fish than a game warden? Cliff Palmer grew up working a farm in Georgia with his father, joined the Civilian Conservation Corps in Washington state as a teenager, then was drafted and fought in Italy during World War II. After the war, he served as a wildlife ranger with Georgia Game and Fish Commission for thirty years. These are his stories. Margo Palmer's interest in writing dates back to her college years at Harvard where she studied writing with Memphis poet Richard Tillinghast. She taught for thirty years in Gwinnett County (Georgia) Public Schools, turning to writing after retirement. She interviewed Cliff Palmer during his lifetime to document the savor of rural Georgia's language and culture in his biography. She and her husband live on a 62-acre farm in Barrow County, Georgia, and are parents to three and grandparents of ten children.

The Legend of Luke Steel Rell Webber,2011-08-01 Derrick Steel was three years old when his mother moved him and his two sisters away from rural northeast Mississippi to live in St. Louis. Now twelve years later, fifteen-year-old Derrick learns that his father, Luke Steel has become a legendary taxidermist in Mississippi because of his more unconventional specimens: a huge Hereford bull that now stands beside a prominent steak house, a pit bulldog who won more than forty-one illegal fights before being shot by the local sheriff , and a wrestling bear whose final match almost caused a second civil war in the county. But Derrick also discovers that his father has now been placed in a mental institution. Why had Luke Steel not contacted his son? And why was he now in a mental institution? Derricks answers can only be solved by returning to the place of his birth. And since his initial link to his father is an aunt who is deaf, Derrick must first learn to communicate in American Sign Language.

Rethinking the Acceptable Year Christopher James Luthy,2019-11-13 The biblical Jubilee has enjoyed increasing prominence in Lukan and missional literature, much of which has been based on suggested Jubilee allusions throughout Luke-Acts (especially Luke 4:16–30). This study questions the presence of such allusions, arguing that the suggested references are better understood within the broader and more explicit tradition of the Basileia of God. Every suggested Lukan textual and thematic reference to the Jubilee is examined, with particular attention given to the Nazareth episode (Luke 4:16–30), which is often cited as the most explicit Jubilee reference. The study also addresses some fundamental issues which have informed recent exegeses, including Luke's use of the term ἄφῃσις, the theme of the Basileia of God throughout Luke-Acts, and the importance of Isaiah 61 (both the first-century traditions that may have influenced Luke, as well as how Luke employed the text throughout his two-part work).
