Maggie 316 Phil Scott,2022-05-04 In 1997, a satellite engineer fearing for his life hid a floppy disk containing three incriminating photos in an access door of a GPS satellite in order to put the photos out of reach. In 2021, private space contractors are hired to remove 2,600 obsolete, useless satellites from earth's orbit. The satellite, a.k.a. Maggie 316, is mysteriously recovered instead of being incinerated. Four strangers become a formidable team to solve the mystery of the three photos and to discover who had been willing to murder in order to keep the photos secret. As the story unfolds the reader is subtly a witness to the triumph of courage, the power of friendship, and the growth of real love in the midst of tension and uncertainty.

Lord High Executioner Frank Dimatteo,Michael Benson,2020-05-26 The bloodsoaked saga of the Murder, Inc. legend who helped create the modern American Mafia—one body at a time—featuring shocking eyewitness accounts . . . Umberto “Albert” Anastasia was born in Italy at the turn of the century. Five decades later, he would be gunned down in a barber shop in New York City. What happened in the years in between—and why every crime family had reason to want him dead—is one of the most brutal and fascinating stories in the history of American organized crime. This in-depth account of the man who became one of the most powerful and homicidal crime bosses of the twentieth century from Mafia insider and co-author Frank Dimatteo is the first full-length book to chronicle Anastasia’s bloody rise from fresh-off-the-boat immigrant to founder of the notorious killer’s club Murder, Inc.—featuring never-before-told accounts from those who feared him most . . . They called him “The One Man Army.” “Mad Hatter.” “Lord High Executioner.” Albert Anastasia came to America mean and became a prolific killer. His merciless assassination of Mafia godfather Vincent Mangano is recounted here in chilling first-hand detail. He set the record: the first man in the history of American justice to be charged with four separate murders—and walk free after each one. But in the end, he was the last obstacle in rival Mafia hoodlum Vito Genovese’s dream of becoming the boss of bosses—and paid the ultimate price . . .

50 Years, 50 Moments Jerry Rice,Randy O. Williams,2015-11-03 “In compiling the facts and details for this book, Randy and I have had the pleasure of hearing stories from players, coaches, executives, and broadcasters, spanning six decades of great football. I learned more than I ever thought I would about the game I love.”—Jerry Rice As a three-time Super Bowl winner and Super Bowl MVP, Jerry Rice has firsthand knowledge of what it takes to win championships. In this celebration of the biggest game in professional sports, Rice counts down the fifty greatest moments from the grand, fifty-year history of the Super Bowl. Through scores of first-person accounts from the players and coaches themselves, readers get new and intimate perspectives on unforgettable plays such as James Harrison’s 100-yard interception return for the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII, Butch Johnson’s diving touchdown catch for the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XII, Denver Broncos quarterback John Elway’s “helicopter” dive in Super Bowl XXXII, and how the author himself served as a decoy on the game-winning touchdown that would cement the San Francisco 49ers as the team of the 1980s. Together with coauthor and veteran sportswriter Randy O. Williams, Rice also recounts the improbable moments when role players rose to heroic heights: When the Green Bay Packers’ Max McGee came off the bench to catch the first touchdown in Super Bowl history; when a special teams player who almost didn’t make the Super Bowl roster helped the New Orleans Saints change the tide of Super Bowl XLIV, and when a New England defensive back with one career start made a game-saving interception at the goal line in the final minute of Super Bowl XLIX. 50 Years, 50 Moments presents an intimate chronicle of the plays and players that won championships, forged dynasties, and changed the history of the NFL itself.

Into the Year 1945 Robert Lesser,2005-03 Click here to read an excerpt from the book. Philoctetes II Summary: A pulp fiction' style story of corruption, in terms of money and spirit, in the city of Chicago after World War Two. Also, a story of childhood hatred between two men, Phil Moran and Tony Accardo, that has been kept to a white hot heat all of their lives. The corruption is that all these men (Phil, Tony, Jake, Paul and especially Timmy) have been on the take' and the play is about stolen money. The police commissioner Paul Quinn is on the payroll of the mob (Tony Accardo is Al Capone's chauffeur and Jake Guzik is the accountant, a.k.a. Greasy Thumb, because he's always counting the money). Fifteen million dollars of the mob's money has been stolen from the bank the mob owns, the Continental Illinois Bank in Chicago. Only one man, the best detective in Chicago, Phil Moran, can solve the mystery and get the mob's money back. Tony Accardo hates Phil Moran, since childhood, but now he must beg him for his powers, just like Philoctetes was begged to join the battle of the Greeks against the Trojans, for the power of his arrows. But Phil Moran and his son Timmy Moran actually committed the crime, unbeknownst to Tony, Jake and Paul. Timmy Moran got a job as the night janitor in the bank. He had broken into the Mosler safe company and duplicated the master key. This enabled him to open all the mob's safety deposit boxes. Timmy then put fifteen million of the mob's money into garbage bags and loaded it onto a garbage truck. His father Phil Moran, dressed in a garbage man uniform, drove the truck away at night and brought it up to Canada to deposit into safety deposit boxes. Timmy then discovered the robbery, waited for the bank to open in the morning, took a bundle of cash to the bank manager and announced the crime. Timmy Moran, the soon-to-be-Priest, was never suspected. Bets is the loose cannon in the play. She's uncontrollable. She's a compulsive gambler, hence the nick name Bets instead of Betty. All of the stolen money had been marked TA for Tony Accardo (fifteen million bucks). Teresa, Bets' niece, has found some of the stolen money, a bunch that Timmy had hidden for himself in the lining of his overcoat. Teresa, who is staying in the house of Phil and Bets, gives the money to Bets, to acquiesce her. Bets, the compulsive gambler, who doesn't know the money was from the Mob's bank, bets it to Joey, her bookie, with whom she is always in phone contact. But Joey is owned' by Tony, so he immediately reports it to Tony when he sees that Bets is gambling with TA marked bills. (Joey knows that if he doesn't tell the mob, then he's a dead man). When Tony asks Joey about the money, Bets is implicated. She makes the scheme blow, tying the Moran family to the robbery. The immediate action of Tony and Jake is to recover their money. Young Timmy, who knows the banks in Canada and has the keys to the safety deposit boxes with the mob's money, has gone to the Jesuit seminary in Montreal. But the mob is all powerful. A bible that Timmy had given to Tony Accardo when he first started working in the bank, as a gesture of affection, is returned to Bets in a package with bullet holes and Timmy's severed off index finger sticking straight up from the hole in the bible. In uncontrollable grief, Bets, realizing what she's done, that she caused her son's death, kills herself. Bets lights a cigarette, drinks a whiskey and then hangs herself. (A symbolic last gesture, since Bets, a cheapskate, never used to actually drink or light up; she'd just suck the cigarette and sniff the bottle, because she always was saving money). Phil then discovers his wife's dead body. Tony and Jake storm the apartment. Phil hopes Jake will kill him, reliev

Intelligent Components for Vehicles A. Ollero,1998-09-11 The IFAC Workshop on Intelligent Components for Vehicles (ICV'98) was held in Seville (Spain), on March 23-24 1998. The event follows the Workshop on Intelligent Components for Autonomous and Semiautonomous Vehicles (ICASAV'95) held in Toulouse (France, October 1995). The main objective of ICV'98 was to bring together specialists on components and instruments for automotive systems, mobile robots and vehicles in general to enhance the value of their experience in both hardware and software intelligent components. Future vehicles will deal more and more with autonomous functions to improve safety and traffic management and to reduce consumption and pollution. Numerous on-board decision systems will replace the driver in critical running phases. The problems and solutions experienced, by adopting this new technology, will bring out many common points with other transportation systems and mobile robots. Research and Developments on Mobile Robotics have produced many components for perception, control and planning that can be used in vehicles for collision detection and avoidance, position estimation, guidance and manoeuvring aids for drivers, advanced teleoperation, and other applications. The topics of the Workshop are in an emerging field in which the research is quickly being converted into industrial products. Several applications in the automotive domain, marine vehicles, agricultural and others were included in the program. In addition to the presentation of the papers, ICV also included a plenary talk and a round table about intelligent components for future vehicles with the participation of several industrial companies.
