Data-Driven Law Edward J. Walters,2018-07-16 For increasingly data-savvy clients, lawyers can no longer give it depends answers rooted in anecdotal data. Clients insist that their lawyers justify their reasoning, and with more than a limited set of war stories. The considered judgment of an experienced lawyer is unquestionably valuable. However, on balance, clients would rather have the considered judgment of an experienced lawyer informed by the most relevant information required to answer their questions. Data-Driven Law: Data Analytics and the New Legal Services helps legal professionals meet the challenges posed by a data-driven approach to delivering legal services. Its chapters are written by leading experts who cover such topics as: Mining legal data Computational law Uncovering bias through the use of Big Data Quantifying the quality of legal services Data mining and decision-making Contract analytics and contract standards In addition to providing clients with data-based insight, legal firms can track a matter with data from beginning to end, from the marketing spend through to the type of matter, hours spent, billed, and collected, including metrics on profitability and success. Firms can organize and collect documents after a matter and even automate them for reuse. Data on marketing related to a matter can be an amazing source of insight about which practice areas are most profitable. Data-driven decision-making requires firms to think differently about their workflow. Most firms warehouse their files, never to be seen again after the matter closes. Running a data-driven firm requires lawyers and their teams to treat information about the work as part of the service, and to collect, standardize, and analyze matter data from cradle to grave. More than anything, using data in a law practice requires a different mindset about the value of this information. This book helps legal professionals to develop this data-driven mindset.

Gilgamesh Motivation Haydar Alawini, 2021-05 Many of us have dreams and resolutions that we want to achieve someday, but finding and keeping the motivation to succeed in those goals can be baffling and challenging to find. To push yourself with carrots and sticks to reach your goals in the future will backfire on you. Our world is an ocean of distractions; we have trained our minds to seek distractions every minute. Every maker and doer has to battle resistance to finish the job at hand, and no one is immune. This resistance serves only one purpose: to keep us away from high concentration and focus and push us to procrastinate, experience anxiety & fear, and keep us distracted. We, as a species, unfortunately, use avoidance to deal with our emotions. Procrastination, or the lack of motivation, can be an emotional coping mechanism attributed to many things. In this book, you will learn how and why that is. Because everybody is different, therefore, we will be motivated by different things. Motivation is affected by the satisfaction of the needs necessary for well-being, growth, or sustaining life. Motivation cannot be adequately described as an individual fact, but rather than that, it often involves interactions between an individual and a more prominent social context. So both social and cognitive elements are essential. A multidisciplinary approach is necessary to address the science of motivation; therefore, I tackled motivation from different perspectives. Also, there are many common surprising misconceptions about motivation; my goal is to clear these misconceptions. At its core, motivation is a drive and need; its essence is energy and persistence. It is the desire and urges to make progress towards a specific goal or a resolution. It is an internal process, a condition inside us that desires a change. In this book, you will learn what motivation is? And how can some of us keep their focus and motivation up all their active time while others can't keep going and finish their tasks for more than a quarter an hour? Do rewards enhance motivation? Is competition an effective way to increase people's motivation and performance? The science has discovered the mechanism behind self-motivation and motivation and how to reach the state of peak performance? You will learn what science and practice have found what doesn't motivate us very well, and you will discover that being motivated is a way of living and thinking, and how it is an attitude?! Motivation is a tricky thing to master, but absolutely not impossible; my goal in this book is to teach you in simple, practical ways how to hack your motivation. And how to trick your brain into being motivated most of the time toward whatever you want to achieve in life.

Do You Feel Tongue-Tied While Interacting With Your Boss? Does Setting Professional and Personal Goals Feel Like a Herculean Task? You Too Can Have a Challenging Career And Lead a Balanced Life! Humans all have formed our own definitions of happiness right from childhood. A lot of these perceptions are because of conditioned development example they are a part of our habits due to repetitive inculcation by parents, teachers and society in general. That is why, none of us has actually pondered what exactly makes us feel happy! This feeling has been left to our sub-conscience and we simply feel the happiness according to the situation we are in. A lot of small things can give happiness to us. For instance, just the thought of shopping or spending money tends to excite us and makes us feel happy. Opportunities and new ideas also have a similar effect on us.

This excited state makes us imagine things related to these incidents. For example the perspective of going on vacation while getting an office bonus would not only make us excited, but also make us plan and imagine the holiday. In fact, we would feel the bliss without actually being on the vacation itself! However, when being on the actual vacation, the excitement tends to settle down as one begins to feel contented. The same is the case with objects. We are quite crazy to purchase the latest cell phone, laptop, I-pod, or the new car. But once we own that stuff, the excitement settles down and the appeal doesn't stay the same. The cycle of excitement begins again when another new product is launched. The New Landscape of Mobile Learning Charles Miller, Aaron Doering, 2014-02-24 The New Landscape of Mobile Learning is the first book to provide a research based overview of the largely untapped array of potential tools that m-Learning offers educators and students in face-to-face, hybrid, and distance education. This cutting edge guide provides: • An essential explanation of the emergence and role of Apps in education • Design guidelines for educational Apps • Case studies and student narratives from across the US describing successful App integration into both K-12 and Higher Education • Robust, research-based evaluation criteria for educational Apps Although many believe that Apps have the potential to create opportunities for transformative mobile education, a disparity currently exists between the individuals responsible for creating Apps (i.e. developers who often have little to no instructional experience) and the ultimate consumers in the classroom (i.e. K-20 educators and students). The New Landscape of Mobile Learning bridges this gap by illuminating critical design, integration, and evaluation narratives from leaders in the instructional design, distance education, and mobile learning fields.

Daily Motivational Quotes Susan A. Enns, 2011-10-18 This is a collection of my favourite motivational quotes all in one place! Some are sales related, some are business related, but most are simply life related. They are in no particular order, just a random thought for each day of the year to help keep you on a positive note. If the old saying misery loves company is true, then motivation must breed happiness! I have spent my entire career, in one form or another, in sales. As such, I have dealt with rejection almost every day of my working life. Don't get me wrong, I have had a very successful career, but no sales person hears yes all the time. In fact, it is just the opposite. We hear no many more times than we hear yes. In sales, rejection is just something we deal with every day. When we let it get us down, it shows to everyone we meet, including our customers, our colleagues and our family. Essentially, our negative attitude becomes our worst enemy. Even if you are not in sales, if you let your negative thoughts get the best of you, you are your own worst enemy too. Given my profession, I have been asked many times how do I stay positive? It can't be easy to keep the right attitude when you have to deal with rejection every day, right? Yes, actually, it can be. I stay positive because I choose to stay positive. I actually make a conscious effort to not be negative and to only be positive. I discovered long ago that a motivational quote always puts me in the right frame of mind. I started searching the internet for a daily quote that made me smile or motivated me in some way. Each day I did this, I found that I became better mentally prepared to tackle the day. More importantly, I was just happier! I started to share what I found online. I would put a daily motivational quote in my Facebook and LinkedIn statuses, I would blog about them, and I would tweet them on Twitter. Friends, family, and business associates all enjoyed them so much they started calling me The Quote Lady. More importantly, everyone's positive attitude seemed to be contagious. The more the motivation spread, the more everyone became motivated! That's when I decided to pull together a collection of my favorite motivational quotes all in one place, and this eBook was created. I hope you enjoy them as much as I do. Remember, your thoughts control your outcomes and you control your thoughts. So choose wisely! Thank you for your everyday contribution to our success! - Cyril K. It is really amazing for what you are doing in helping others stay positive and overcome their challenges, whatsoever small or big they may be - Parmod R. Susan inspires me to do better and help others. - Loretto C. Like it...Very Motivating - Jeff W.
