Considering the Fit Between Business Strategy and Cultural Values Kaspar Luk, 2014-12-30 This book was motivated by an apparent paradox found within the intercultural communication research area, as it seems that some of the most basic guidelines within contemporary academic literature on cross-cultural communication are to some degree being intentionally disregarded by the Danish pharmaceutical company Novo Nordisk. The guidelines in question refer to the importance of considering the complexity and many differences found within employees with different cultural backgrounds, and on how organizations should adapt accordingly in a communicative situation. This book will discuss how intercultural values influence the intended perception of The Novo Nordisk Way by conducting a comparative analysis of the respective value foundations and perceptions of Danish and North American employees.

Heartcore - New Thoughts on Leadership Mads Øvlisen, Mikael R.

Lindholm, 2023-08-29 In their 100th year of doing business, and more than twenty years after his retirement as CEO, Novo Nordisk still practices the leadership principles formulated by Mads Øvlisen. This elite practice of leadership - which he calls 'heartcore' - originated in Danish culture, and still continues to create success globally. This book is written to be a source of inspiration for all leaders who aim at fostering a better world. Mads Øvlisen delves deep into his thoughts on leadership, which have contributed to making Novo Nordisk one of the world's leading companies. 'Heartcore' is a leadership practice that fosters extraordinary growth and renewal by setting high standards for mutual respect, creativity, talent, and freedom. He outlines how one can meet greater targets by balancing 'soft' values with hard results, and by creating an equilibrium between expected economic surplus, social responsibility, and environmental quality. Mads Øvlisen was the CEO of Novo Nordisk from 1981 to 2000, and after retiring, he continued as chairman of the board until 2006. He has simultaneously held board positions in a handful of corporations, among others, LEGO and the Royal Theatre. Mads has been an advisor to the UN Global Compact, which works with corporations to create a sustainable future with economic growth and prosperity for all. Furthermore, he has held several public positions in Denmark, advising the Council for Social Responsibility as well as the Council of the Arts. He has received numerous awards and honours such as becoming Commander of the Order of the Dannebrog, one of Denmark's two senior orders bestowed by the sovereign.

August and Marie Krogh Bodil Schmidt-Nielsen,2013-05-27 August Krogh, the son of a brewer, studied zoology in Copenhagen and earned his doctoral degree under the physiologist Christian Bohr, the father of the world-renowned nuclear physicist Niels Bohr. Krogh's unusual ability to construct instruments and complex apparatuses and his intuitive understanding of physical principles made it possible for him to improve on Bohr's methods. His findings led him to challenge Christian Bohr's ideas about oxygen secretion, and when Bohr refused to accept his findings, Krogh unwillingly came into a painful conflict with his own mentor. Krogh's continued studies of how oxygen is supplied to the tissues led to his realization that the blood flow in the finest blood vessels, the capillaries, has to be regulated through a mechanism that opens and closes the capillaries according to the tissue's need for oxygen. This idea and his scientific proof were at the time so new and revolutionary that he was promptly (in 1920) awarded the Nobel Prize. His fame in Denmark and all over the world continued to grow until his death in 1949. His scientific discoveries extended from respiration, exercise physiology and capillary physiology into comparative osmoregulation, isotope studies, active transport of ions in plants and animals, and finally insect flight. Another dramatic story of Krogh's life began when he introduced insulin production in Denmark in 1922. This move saved his own wife's life as well as numerous other lives and helped make Denmark's Novo-Nordisk the largest producer of insulin in the world today. Krogh's wife, Marie, became a physician and a renowned scientist in her own right. Throughout their harmonious marriage and partnership, Marie played an important role in her husband's life both scientifically and personally. Written by the proud daughter of August and Marie Krogh, this biography is based on numerous letters, scientific papers, interviews, symposia, and other sources as well as the author's own knowledge of her parents. The intertwining of the scientific work and personal lives of these two remarkable people is beautifully illustrated in a well-rounded picture of their struggles and triumphs. It is a unique book, full of human warmth and scientific understanding.

De renfærdige Hanne Sindbæk, 2019-04-10 Novo Nordisk er Skandinaviens mest værdifulde selskab; mere værdifuldt end A.P. Møller – Mærsk, Carlsberg, Danske Bank, Lundbeck, Vestas og Coloplast – tilsammen! Novo Nordisk har sammen med søsterselskabet Novozymes gjort hovedaktionæren, Novo Nordisk Fonden, til en af verdens mest velhavende fonde med en formue under forvaltning på omkring 350 milliarder kroner. Alligevel er historien om denne helt ekstraordinære danske virksomhed aldrig skrevet. Før nu. De renfærdige er en uafhængig fortælling om de mennesker, begivenheder og produkter, der skabte Novo Nordisk. Fra den spæde start i 1923, da nobelpristageren August Krogh kom hjem fra Canada med opskriften på det nye mirakelmiddel insulin over brødrene Pedersens start af en konkurrerende virksomhed, Novo, og de to selskabers rivaliseren gennem 64 år indtil fusionen i 1989. Det er en beretning om, hvordan Mads Øvlisen byggede bro fra den familieejede til den børsnoterede virksomhed, så de humanistiske værdier kom tørskoede over, samt hvordan Lars Rebien globaliserede virksomheden, mangedoblede dens værdi og blev udnævnt til verdens bedste CEO af det estimerede Harvard Business Review. Og det er en fortælling om den stræben efter renfærdighed, der løber som et uudsletteligt spor i virksomhedens dna. Bogen bygger på omfattende research samt interview med alle bogens nulevende hovedpersoner og en lang række nøglepersoner i og omkring virksomheden.
