Apocalyptic Dusk Deep Naskar,2021-04-07 This book is a collection of dark poems written over a span of seven years. It talks about an apocalypse which is highly personal in nature. The doom which came suddenly, without any prior notice, and flooded everything. It was the dusk when the sun set and never rose again. The poems here are subjective, surreal and prone to individual perception, ranging from passionate poetic epiphanies to cryptic imageries and references. They offer a multi-layered meaning and expose themselves depending upon how much the readers wish to probe into.

Dizygotic Twins - A fiction of facts Abhishek Chatterjee,2020-08-05 The whole purpose behind writing this book and sharing my thoughts with the world is to make life better, help people become more reasonable in their approach, remove negative vibes and solve problems in human relations that spoil the joy of life. I have touched upon various aspects of life, like its creation and purpose, common conflicts and their reasons, how to make human life less complicated and I have put great deal of emphasis on parenting. In the first part, I have mentioned about how a good entity designed and created this universe and life, and what could have been the possible reason behind it. In the second part the other side of my thought gets manifested, where it says this universe was conceptualized and brought about by a negative element, also explains the possible reason behind it. Hence the title, Dizygotic Twins, which is basically the medical term for non-identical twins. Both of them are my brain child. Definitely all these are largely my imaginations based on life events, and on both the versions, I have tried to give some solutions at my level, which also includes discussion about Anti-Natalism. That’s why I called it a Fiction Of Facts! One might find a layer of rawness in my style of writing due to the fact I am a rookie when it comes writing. This is my maiden work in writing, so kindly pardon the lack of finesse which you may witness while reading. My mind and heart were brimming with these thoughts and concepts for decades, I couldn’t hold them back, and hence I just poured them all out despite being a complete naïve in literature. Hope this book makes some sense to the reader. Many Thanks
