Shobha Priya Praveen Kumar,2017-01-27 The great poet Robert frost while talking about poetry, said that poetry 'takes life by the throat'. Poetry is the art of capturing life in words. It is not just the ken of life, but a direct realisation of the life. It is an exercise of subconscious, conscious interpretations of the life that intensely surface through the conscious awareness. Ergo, readers must experience poems through subconscious exercises to capture the intensity of the life, hotting up in a poetry. No conscious nusus and analyses can lead one anywhere in fully realising the inner arcane treasure of beauty and meanings hidden in the poetry. Nor any other person can do the work for a reader of poetry. Appreciation of poetry involves the reader tuning his subconscious perceptions to receive the poet's subconscious signals through the juste-milieu of the poetry. A poet can transmit his experience of shock of pleasure or grief directly to his reader sans its conscious awareness in both. The incantation is cast through the selection and articulation of words, not only in their word meanings, but also in the synergy of word rhythms, word musics, word pictures, word forms and oblique word hues and shades in the poetry. No avizetfull efforts can do the magic either in writing poetry or in appreciating it to the level of a well-trained subconscious exercise of the mind. All avizetfull exercises of poetic criticism are for this reason, badly limited. Though poetry is about what affected the poet most intensely, it is possible that he may not algate be consciously aware of all meanings and their oblique hues in his poem although his subconscious mind exercised on all aspects of the poetry in its parts and in its entirety. The poet, T.S. Eliot was once asked by a student to explain the meaning of one of his poems. The great poet responded to the student by reading the poem and said no more. The same student made the request encore to which T.S. Eliot read the poem encore and fell silent, ipso facto delivering the vital message of a true poetry that poetry cannot be restated in a form other than more suo without poetic distortions. The raison d'etre of poetry is the pleasure of the shocks of discovery about the life. It is the fraicheur of thoughts in poetry that endears it to its readers; it is the intensity, the undivided attention with which the poet experiences the deja vu that warms up the poetry to its readers; it is the concentration of thought and feelings which brood to beauty and rich shades of meaning in poetry. The art of writing poetry is the process of gradual release of the shocks of coalesced thought and feelings in relaxed contemplative leisure of a reflective mood. Those who attempt the release through the carefully chosen language are poets and their expressions, poetry. The development of poetic impulses helps such releases to be streamlined to carefully chosen language as an assuetude to prevent wastes by dissipation. The true pleasure of reading poetry is in having an arcane keek to the subtle Unknown Horizons of the poet's mind, thought and personality. The two hundred and forty poems of this collection imprimis deal with the joie de vivre in its variegated hues- pleasures, sorrows, hopes, despairs, romances, ideologies and their concrete surroundings. These poems have concentrated thoughts and feelings as their roots. How far the intensity succeeded to release itself in relaxed contemplative leisure of the reflective mood and how far the intensity of the experience coalesced to the shocks of discovery about the quotidian life and things for the direct perception of the reader are the measures of success of my nusus, to be appraised by the public. I leave at it.

An Executive Guide for Deploying Innovation Praveen Gupta,2014-01-10 An Executive Guide for Deploying Innovation In the past, innovation has been considered an art - dependent upon the people who make it happen and a relatively rare, unpredictable occurrence. As a result, too much time is taken in the development of new products and services. In the 21st century, we must change this process so that we become continual thinkers, capable of innovating on demand for mass customization. This requires that we understand innovation better and standardize the process for predictable results. History shows that innovation is evolutionary and is a response to an unsolved problem or unexploited opportunity, which makes Praveen Gupta's Business Innovation in the 21st Century a valuable addition to the literature. His 25 years of business problem solving have given him the tools to develop a plausible framework that directs us to look at innovation in a different context. Several books have been written addressing various aspects of innovation, but common understanding has been limited to the level of "brainstorming" and creative tools. This book presents a comprehensive approach to the innovation process. This is one of the first books for executives that address various aspects of innovation from concepts to commercialization. The purpose of this book is to provide comprehensive coverage of innovation-related processes and a new framework that are suitable for the Internet generation and the knowledge age. The goal of developing such a framework is to facilitate standardization of the innovation process so that results can be more predictable and so that innovation can be produced on demand. The book is specifically designed for executive to learn concepts of innovation in order to lead the innovation deployment successfully. In Praise of Praveen's Work in : "Our intellectual processes have to have fuel through network. Employees can participate in networks where they get a chance to renew their thinking, get new exposures, and continue to be engaged intellectually in developing new ideas. That is the idea of ideas, the innovation! - Robert W. Galvin, Former Chairman and CEO, Motorola, Inc. (from inside) "As a believer in the importance of process excellence in all aspects of management and leadership, I have been searching for an approach that unleashes excellence in generating the innovation which is vital to corporate survival. Praveen Gupta has documented understanding of that process and provided the framework for its substantial enhancement." - Bob Anderson, Director, Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago "Great way to bring new thinking on the innovation process to an organization! - Richard Gendon, Managing Director, Center for Professional Management Creating the new can't be the exclusive purview of an isolated team. Praveen Gupta has provided a confluence of ideas and approaches to engage the greater organization in sustained innovation. - Bob Aron, Ph.D., Director, New Product Development, DeVry University
