How to Become a Product Demonstrator Don Levy,2015-12-09 If you looking for a fun job that normally pays above minimum wage then this book will help you find it. Being an active product demonstrator with many years of experience has allowed me to write a guide that will teach you all about the different types of available jobs, places to find them and requirements for each. The best part of the book is the 1,000+ worldwide places to find a job. As I look back on the 80 years of my life I'm in wonder of all the different things that I have done. Many of which have helped me write this guide for becoming a Product Demonstrator. Back in my late 20's up to my 50's I was in the fair and carnival business in different capacities which included demonstrating a variety of products on the different fairgrounds and carnival lots that I was at. Fairs and carnivals operate for a certain length of time each year and then there is the off season. During this time I would do demonstrations at home shows, auto and boat shows, swap meets, music festivals or any place that a number of people would gather. I finally tired of being on the road all the time so I went into real estate and mortgage banking. When I retired from that I finally got bored and decided to find something to do. The main requirement was that along with making money it had to be fun. After a lot of research it sounded like mystery shopping would fit the bill. It was fun but the paperwork and low pay weren't that exciting so I started looking again and began seeing requests for product demonstrators. I wasn't excited about going on the road again but when I found out I didn't have to travel and could work when I wanted I decided to give it a try. Although the pay was a few dollars about minimum to start the job was fun. This was a little more than 5 years ago. After a couple of years I found that it was too hard to stand for the 6 hours in a demonstration. I looked around again and found that I could transition to an alcohol demonstrator job. It was less hours and more money so that's what I'm doing today. keywords: Product demonstrator, event specialist, demonstration, demonstrator, demonstrating, employment, pitchman

The Hidden Lamp Zenshin Florence Caplow,Reigetsu Susan Moon,2013-10-21 The Hidden Lamp is a collection of one hundred koans and stories of Buddhist women from the time of the Buddha to the present day. This revolutionary book brings together many teaching stories that were hidden for centuries, unknown until this volume. These stories are extraordinary expressions of freedom and fearlessness, relevant for men and women of any time or place. In these pages we meet nuns, laywomen practicing with their families, famous teachers honored by emperors, and old women selling tea on the side of the road. Each story is accompanied by a reflection by a contemporary woman teacher--personal responses that help bring the old stories alive for readers today--and concluded by a final meditation for the reader, a question from the editors meant to spark further rumination and inquiry. These are the voices of the women ancestors of every contemporary Buddhist.
